

LOCAL NEWS.

New line of boys overcoats at Robinson's. J. D. Donaldson, of Riverton, was in town Friday. Skeels & Son buy shoes for wear and not for looks. Mrs. Ed Rose, of Parkersburg, was up to town on Friday. Lost—Fine Berkshire male h-g. Write or phone J. C. Watson. R. C. Dement, of Myrtle Point, was a Coquille visitor on Thursday. Sweet and sour pickles, green and ripe olives. Robinson's Store. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Folsom, of Myrtle Point, visited in town last week. See the Heavy Flannel Shirts at Lyons & Jones, just the thing for winter. Elijah Smith is back to Coos Bay from his recent trip to San Francisco. Full stock of the celebrated Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pens at R. S. Knowlton's Drug Store. Prof. J. H. Barklow, of Norway, had business at the county seat last Wednesday. Did you get a pair of those high-top shoes at Lyons & Jones? All sizes for little folks. Mr. and Mrs. George Steward, of Riverton, were in town Friday, doing shopping. Hot Drinks—coffee, chocolate and bouillon at The Popular, Collier and Collier. Born—in Coquille, Oregon, December 9, 1909, to Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lyons, a daughter. Our Drug Trade is growing for the reason that quality is our first consideration. Fuhrman's. J. F. Haga, of Bandon, made our office a brief call while in town on Wednesday of last week. For Rent—Small place near town—3 acres bottom cleared. Inquire of Harvey Tyrrell, Coquille. S. J. Culver, of Bandon, was in town Friday, having returned from his farm in Camas valley. Secure a footing on the road to success by depositing your savings in the Farmer's & Merchant's Bank. Andrew Smalley and daughter Emma, of Arago, were in town Thursday transacting business with our merchants. The shoes for woodsmen; Tozier's—S. F. Shoes. The gloves for wear Logger Fear Gloves. E. L. Tozier. John R. Miller, formerly of this city, but now located at Gold Beach, Curry county, was in town a couple of days last week, looking after business interests. Begin now to provide for a "rainy day," by placing your earnings in the Farmer's and Merchant's Bank. Mrs. G. W. Stevenson, of Cunningham, went to Bridge last Thursday to help take care of her old friend, A. J. Wilson, who has been in declining health for some time. The cold weather is here. Robinson's Store has a fine line of gents', ladies' and children's wool underwear. We made an error in our last issue when we reported Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Schuyler, of Marshfield, to have been the happy parents of a baby daughter. It is a fine big son. The largest variety of ladies' hand bags ever shown in Coquille, ladies' purses and card cases, at Knowlton's Drug Store. G. A. Signolness, formerly engaged in lumbering in this valley, but now located in Portland, where he is doing a good business dealing in real estate, was in Coquille a few days last week, greeting old friends and acquaintances. Ladies, if you have not bought your tailored suit for winter, remember Robinson's Store is the place to get them. George Wilson, of Empire, a member of the grand jury for the adjourned term of circuit court which convened Friday, came over Thursday and had a day looking about town meeting old friends before getting down to business. Postal-card albums in great variety, from 25 cents up. Large assortment of Christmas and New Year cards at Knowlton's. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Colver and their daughter, Miss Laura, arrived in town Sunday, having driven in from Roseburg. They report very bad roads and had a breakdown near town. Miss Colver had been attending college at Philomath, where she had graduated. They proceeded on their way Monday.

Twenty per cent off on dishes at Skeels & Son's. Remember the oratorical contest Friday night. Marshall Way returned from the Bay on Friday. Snow Drift flour is the best. Sold by Skeels & Son. J. A. Armgeld, of Prosper, was in town yesterday. For a nice fresh steak phone No. 21. Slagle Bros. C. T. Ceasna, of Riverton, had business in town Saturday. Imported handkerchiefs for fancy work at Robinson's. Thomas Smith was up from Riverton on business Monday. A new line of fancy groceries just in at Skeels & Son's. W. R. Haines, the piano man, was over from Marshfield yesterday. Look at the new line of black undershirts at Robinson's. Mrs. W. E. Craue, of Bandon, was a Coquille visitor on Saturday. New elastic-belts with jet trimmings at Robinson's Store. J. C. Hayes, of Myrtle Point, was a passenger to the Bay by Monday's train. Hemstitched and piece linens at The White House. Gus Bender, the Myrtle Point music dealer, was in Coquille on Saturday. Parties wishing coal from the Rouse mine will apply to Harry Flanders. C. C. Johnson, the lower river sawmill man, had business in town Saturday. Fine papeteries, portfolios, jewel cases, etc., at Knowlton's Drug Store. J. B. Moomaw, of Bandon, made Coquille a visit between boats last Saturday. A pipe makes a fine Christmas present. See the selection at the Popular. C. C. Johnson, the lower river sawmill man, was a Coquille visitor on Saturday. Nothing recommended at Fuhrman's that is not positively known to be right. Mrs. J. A. James, of Johnson's mill, was in Monday and paid our office a pleasant call. Robinson's Store is going to close out their line of ladies' coats. Call and get prices. Claud Watters, of the Fairview section, was a passenger to Bandon on the Coquille Saturday. If you fail to attend the big Christmas Sale at O. Wilson & Co's, you will lose money. On December 29th a violin and vocal recital will be given by local talent at the Heazlet Theatre, for the benefit of the Educational League. All should attend. Jardiniers, Flower Pots, Vases, Lamps, Crocks. Anything you are in need of, call at the Racket. T. G. Bunch was over from the Bay a few days the last of the week visiting relatives and doing some work for foreign missions. Our office enjoyed a pleasant call. Have you any jewels? Billy Schroeder has jewel boxes to put them in. J. S. Hume, of Portland, passed down the coast lately. He goes to Rogue river to prepare for the spring run of salmon, during which he will operate the Hume cannery there. When looking for a new suit, hat or anything in gent's furnishings, remember Robinson's is the place. Mrs. J. L. Barker, of Fairview, who had been in town for a week visiting, went to Marshfield on Monday, and after a short stay in that place will return home by way of Summer. For Sale—316 acres grazing land all seeded, 3 miles from Coquille for $12.50 per acre. Terms. J. W. Leneve. On Tuesday of last week the new tug Klihyam took in tow the old tug Triumph, which has been sold to Astoria parties, and took her around to Coos Bay, and while there the bar became rough and the Klihyam was unable to get out of the bay for several days. Before selecting your list of holiday presents look over the big ad of E. C. Barker & Co., the jeweler then go and see his stock. Eugene Ro-inson, the inveterate fisherman, who spent the last fishing season on the Umpqua, has purchased the outfit of T. A. and Carl Walker, of this city, and will proceed to catch Steelheads which will be shipped to Coos Bay and put into cold storage for shipment.

Get one of those new neckties for men, at Robinson's Store. Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Welch, of Lampa, were in town shopping yesterday. Saws gummed, filed and set at Quick & Curry's shop. Mrs. J. E. Perrott was a passenger down the river by Saturday's Dispatch. Hand Painted chamber sets. Best to be had at the Racket. Assessor T. J. Thrift is at Salem attending a meeting of the assessors of the state. That's what they all say, "Slagle Bros. for choice meats." Harry Flanders, the teamster will fill orders for Rouse coal. W. T. Kerr and T. T. Land, of this city, started one day last week for Salem on business. Nuts—Almonds, Walnuts, Filberts and Brazil, at Robinson's. Mrs. F. H. Schroeder, who has been ill for some time, is still confined to her room. Get your shoes at Lyons & Jones there stock is new and up-to-date. Arthur Alexander, of Olalla, Oregon, is in this city enjoying a visit with his uncle, T. A. Walker and family. Call up Lyons & Jones by phone and get your order filled promptly. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kronenburg, of Parkersburg, came up yesterday to the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kronenburg, of this city. J. A. Peart, the strawberry man, has plants for sale—$5 per thousand. The Herald job office has just turned out the minutes of the late annual conference of the M. E. Church, South, held at Cottage Grove last autumn. Their next conference will be held at Medford. Registered Durock Jersey pigs, the kind that fatten on clover, for sale by J. D. Carl, Myrtle Point, Or. Phone 101. All should attend the Educational League meeting next Friday at 3:30 in the high school rooms of the public school. A good program will be rendered, and a paper by Miss Partridge, subject "Education is Life," will be read. Make your washing easy by using Washing Tablets at Drane's store. F. E. Bowen & Co., dealers in millinery and notions, will give the L. A. S. A. sale day on Saturday, Dec. 18. Everybody come and buy something nice. Get yourself a new hat or a feather for the old one. Next door to Skeels' Store. Clocks, Clocks, Clocks. Billy Schroeder has a large variety and can order anything you may want if he hasn't it now. Dr. J. D. Kelly, who recently moved from Bandon to this city for the benefit of his son, who was very low, and who since passed away, removed with his family to Bandon yesterday, where the Doctor has built up a lucrative practice, and the family have many friends. Get your table legs turned at Quick & Curry's. They have some patterns already out. Hard wood, $1 per set. Miss Eva Schroeder arrived yesterday from Portland and will enjoy a visit of three weeks with relatives and many friends in Coos county. Miss Schroeder has been attending the Portland Business college for some months, and will return in three weeks to take up her studies. For Sale—The well-known registered stallion, "Bruce Wilkes." Will take cattle or sheep in part payment. Z. C. Strang, Gravel Ford. On New Years eve there will be a Grand Masque Ball at the Heazlet. Beautiful and costly prizes will be awarded on this occasion. This is the time to come early and dance the old year out and the new year in. Masks may be secured at the Racket. Posters will be out soon. Keep your eye open for them. If it is Christmas presents you are trying to select, go to Billie Schroeder's. He can interest you with his large stock. Doc Barker, of Fairview, lost portions of two fingers of his right hand last Thursday while sawing down a tree at a camp in that section. His spring-board slipped with him and in his fall he struck the saw with his hand, lacerating the fingers so severely that amputation was necessary. Dr. Richmond performed the operation. Do you want your money invested safer than in a bank? Then buy one of those South Bend watches from Billy Schroeder.

New silks just in at The White House. The steamer Elizabeth expected to sail yesterday afternoon. I am in the market for all kinds of furs. GEO. T. MOULTON. Will Tenbrook, of Bandon, was a Coquille visitor yesterday. Optimo cigars, the right size box for a Christmas gift, at the Popular. D. H. and J. A. Prewett, of Parkersburg, had business in town yesterday. Hay, grain, flour and groceries always on hand at Lyons & Jones. School Clerk G. T. Moulton reports a scholastic population of Coquille at 469. Santa Claus' head quarters at M. H. Hersey's Racket Store. Don't forget the place. Silva Dominighine, of Norway, returned from a business trip to Portland yesterday. Get it at Fuhrman's and you will get it right. Possibly just a little bit better than you expected. L. C. Bargelt, of the Myrtle Point Enterprise, was a passenger to the Bay by Monday's train. The Christian Sunday school will have a Christmas tree and short Program on Christmas eve. When you want the latest styles in men's clothing you can find them at Robinson's store. Be sure and get one of the Firemen's souvenir badges which will admit you to their dance. Christmas Eve. The football game between Coquille and Marshfield Sunday resulted in a victory for the home town in a score of 16 to 0. Now is the time to buy hats at The White House, everything reduced. Remember the Frey loving cup contest to take place at the Masonic Hall on Friday, the 17th inst. Harold Leep, of Bancroft, came down Monday and is visiting with the family of J. G. Fish and other friends. All kinds of embroidery silk and cotton threads, also cornation braid, just arrived for The White House. Jim Collier is suffering from a severely bruised hand, sustained while working on the China camp railroad bridge. The play, by home talent, which was to be put on at the Heazlet theatre, will be postponed for a couple of weeks. Posters announcing the date will be out soon. See those alligator purses at Billy Schroeder's. They are ordered specially for the holidays. At a recent called meeting of the city council it was decided not to go ahead with the planking of Hall street between Second and Third, and try Arago gravel on this section as an experiment. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fish, of Bancroft, came down Monday for a visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Fish will remain till after the holidays, while Mr. Fish will return home and look after things there. Anyone wishing fancy or plain sewing, call on Mrs. M. Nosler, next door to the Herald office. The regular December term of circuit court is now under full way. Judge John S. Coke on the bench and Deputy District Attorney Liljeqvist in charge of the grand jury. There is an extensive docket, and a large number of people from all parts of the county, represented by a full complement of legal lights, are here in consequence of the contentions of the county. Everybody, men, women and children should wear one of the Firemen's souvenirs on Friday, Dec 24th, the day of their annual ball.

BOOKS! BOOKS! Books for the Girls and Books for the Boys The latest and best selling books of fiction and the finest line of gift books ever brought to Coquille. Post Card Albums We have in stock a great variety of Post Card Albums from 25 cents up. Also a large assortment of Christmas and New Year cards. Mirrors We have on hand a great variety of mirrors in different styles, including Bonnet Mirrors, Triple Mirrors and Stand Mirrors. Also a handsome assortment of Manicure Sets, Comb and Brush Sets, and a nice line of Toilet Sets for Ladies and Gentlemen. The Largest variety of Ladies' Hand Bags, Purses and Card Cases ever shown in Coquille can be found here. The Celebrated Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pens Kodaks Cameras Knowlton's Drug Store Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Wieder, of Marshfield, who had been visiting at Bandon, came up Monday and went to the bay by train. Handsome assortment of manicure sets, comb and brush sets, fine toilet sets for ladies and gentlemen, at Knowlton's Drug Store. G. W. Derby, who has spent most of the time the past few years about Bandon, passed through town Thursday on his way to Roseburg for the purpose of entering the Soldiers Home at that place. The old gentleman has been failing in health for some time, and his eyesight is gradually giving way, making it preferable for him to seek the protection afforded by that institution. For Rent—Good dairy farm, carries 15 to 20 cows. 15 good cows on place for sale, also 15 head of young stock, farming implements, separator, etc. For particulars see C. I. Green, Lampa. Mrs. C. L. Bender, optometrist, of Myrtle Point, spent a few days in this city last week plying her profession. It will be remembered that Mrs. Bender with her husband took an attendance course of two months at the Northern Illinois College of Ophthalmology and Otology, at Chicago, passing the examination there, then came direct to Portland and passed the examination given by the Oregon State Board with an exceptionally fine standing. Mrs. Bender passing the highest of anyone yet taking the Oregon examination, as her papers on file show, and later they registered with the County Clerk of Coos County. They have opened an optical parlor in an adjoining room to their jewelry store, and have been practicing for the past eight months. One of those ladies' tailored suits or long capes would be just the thing for a Christmas present. See them. Robinson's Store. Remember the Kendall Recital, the best popular attraction of the season. C. M. Kendall of O. N. University, teacher, actor, traveler, mimic and basso. Tragedy, pathos, comedy and song. The old folk's favorite, the children's friend. Best and most complete repertoire of any man on the road. He doesn't want your money for nothing. If you can't laugh, don't come. Watch for dates. Tozier's Celebrated Logger Shoes have won popularity with the woods boys. E. L. Tozier maker, Coquille. Fall suits for men at Robinson's. Dr. John McLoughlin and his work in aiding the early settlers at Oregon City will not be forgotten and by a decisive vote, this pioneer city has declared it will maintain the historic home of Dr. Loughlin as a public monument to his work. This tribute to Dr. McLoughlin will meet with the hearty approval of all right thinking people everywhere. All kinds of Dishes. Some of the Finest Havaland China and Hand Painted China of the latest patterns to choose from ever Brought to Coquille at the Racket. Rev. C. H. Cleaves, Rev. E. C. Holladay and P. E. Drane, of this city, went to North Bend Thursday to attend the revival conducted by Dan Shannon, and which are creating intense interest on the Bay. These meetings are attracting large crowds, many chartering gasoline launches and attending from Marshfield. These gentlemen were highly pleased with the services, and report many conversions. An effort will be made to arrange for a series of meetings at this place some time in the future. Books! Books!! Books!!! Juvenile books, children's books, books for girls and boys, latest and best selling books of fiction, fine gift books, at R. S. Knowlton's. Go to Skeels & Son's for your holiday goods. State dairymen and fruit growers held their annual conventions in Portland during the past week and both were well attended and very successful. Both of these great industries will receive a decided impetus from the gatherings of the past week. Better acquaintance of the men actively engaged in dairying and horticulture has resulted and the interchange of ideas is always valuable. Thursday night a reception to the two bodies was given by the Commercial club. A valuable suggestion was made by President H. C. Atwell of the fruit growers, who advises an annual fruit show in Portland, at which all sections of the state shall be represented. This idea is being taken up actively by all interested in the development of the state along these lines and the advantages that may be expected to result are very great. We have both new and second hand in the following lines, dressers, commodes, iron and wood beds, bed springs, mattresses, floor matting, sewing machines, in fact almost everything needed for the house or camp. Come and look through, you will be surprised at the great variety of articles to be found in our store. O. M. Goodman & Co. We Sell for Less -- Why? CASH ONLY. Gifts For Men What could be more appreciated by any man than one or more of the following: SHIRTS NECKWEAR HOSIERY MUFFLERS HANDKERCHIEFS SUSPENDERS Woolnap Blankets.....$2 15 Xtra size, nice soft finish and usually sold for.....$3 00 Good wool underwear— Suit.....$2 25 Well made and a good wearing garment. Boys sweater coats.....$1 25 Oxfords Grey-Blue trimmings. Men's dress or work shoes also high tops at the usual saving in price. Hub Clothing and Shoe Co.

What's Better Than Cranberry Sauce? We have received a shipment of nice fresh Cranberries, and are selling them for 15c per qt. 2 qts for 25c O. WILSON & CO The Store of Big Values and Little Prices.