

LOCAL NEWS.

New silks just in at The White House.

This is the shortest day of the year.

New line of boys overcoats at Robinson's.

Geo. O. Pope was down from Fishtrap Monday.

Skeels & Son buy shoes for wear and not for looks.

Frank Flam was up from the lower river on Friday.

Imported handkerchiefs for fancy work at Robinson's.

W. F. Keller was down from Fishtrap on Thursday.

For a nice fresh steak phone No. 21. Slagle Bros.

Chris Long, of Bandon, was a Coquille visitor on Monday.

A new line of fancy groceries just in at Skeels & Son's.

Mrs. Mary Smith, of Bandon, visited in town on Saturday.

Get one of those new neckties for men, at Robinson's Store.

Hay, grain, flour and groceries always on hand at Lyons & Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Welch, of Lampas, were in town shopping yesterday.

Fine papeteries, portfolios, jewel cases, etc., at Knowlton's Drug Store.

Mrs. S. C. Endicott, of Myrtle Point, visited in town on Tuesday and Wednesday.

I am in the market for all kinds of furs.

Geo. T. Moulton.

C. Timmons, of Bandon, had business which called him to the Bay on Thursday.

J. A. Peart, the strawberry man, has plants for sale—$5 per thousand.

T. B. Wheeler, the Bandon real estate man, had business in Coquille on Saturday.

Make your washing easy by using Washing Tablets at Draue's store.

Jack Mast, of McKinley, made our office a pleasant call while in town on Wednesday.

Anyone wishing fancy or plain sewing, call on Mrs. M. Nosler, next door to the Herald office.

Mrs. M. T. Clinton is down from Fishtrap to see her sister, Mrs. George McAdams, of this city.

When you want the latest styles in men's clothing you can find them at Robinson's store.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Faust, of Coaledo, came to town by Saturday's train to do some shopping.

Tozier's Celebrated Logger Shoes have won popularity with the woods boys. E. L. Tozier makes, Coquille.

S. Brewer, of Myrtle Point, and M. Brewer, of Bandon, met at Coquille on Saturday for a short visit.

See those alligator purses at Billy Schroeder's. They are ordered specially for the holidays.

Registered Durock Jersey pigs, the kind that fatten on clover, for sale by J. D. Carl, Myrtle Point, Or. Phone 101.

M. D. Sherrard, one of the machinists from the Smith mill at Marshfield, was a Coquille visitor on Saturday.

Get your table legs turned at Quick & Curry's. They have some patterns already out. Hard wood, $1 per set.

Mrs. Chas. Peterson, of Riverton, was in town on Wednesday shopping and visiting. Our office received a pleasant call.

A word to the wise, take care of your eyes Mrs. C. L. Bender, Optometrist. At the Baxter First Thursday and Friday of each month.

Fall suits for men at Robinson's. Attorney J. J. Stanley had business which called him down the river Monday.

Go to Skeels & Son's for your holiday goods.

A. L. Neely, of Riverton, was in our city Monday to have a hand dressed, which he had out severely with an ax.

Have you any jewels? Billy Schroeder has jewel boxes to put them in.

The late King Leopold, of Belgium, whose death occurred last week, left a private fortune estimated to be worth fifty million dollars.

See the Heavy Flannel Shirts at Lyons & Jones, just the thing for winter.

Dr. J. D. Kelly was up from Bandon Monday morning looking after the remainder of his household effects to be moved to Bandon.

Full stock of the celebrated Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pens at R. S. Knowlton's Drug Store.

Hand Painted chamber sets. Best to be had at the Racket.

Miss M. M. Pressey, of Bandon, returned home Monday after a visit of several days in this city with her friend, Mrs. Brown.

New elastic belts with jet trimmings at Robinson's Store.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinnis, of Bandon, returned Saturday from an extended visit with friends of Mississippi valley states. They report having had a very nice time.

Did you get a pair of those high-top shoes at Lyons & Jones? All sizes for little folks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kern, of this city, returned Monday from a trip east. Mr. Kern had business with the transfer of property, and Mrs. Kern went to visit relatives and friends.

Now is the time to buy hats at The White House, everything reduced.

C. T. Nicholson, of Medford, who has been here for several weeks assisting his daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slagle, started on his return home last Thursday. He enjoyed his visit here very much.

Robinson's Store is going to close out their line of ladies' coats. Call and get prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Smith, of Grants Pass, who had been here for about six weeks visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. C. H. Cleaves and wife, started Saturday on their return. They went by way of the Drain route.

All kinds of embroidery silk and cotton threads, also coronation braid, just arrived for The White House.

County Surveyor Gould went to South Slough early last week to survey the grounds for the approaches for the bridge across that stream, to take the place of the ferry. He was accompanied by Lloyd Spires, of Myrtle Point, as an assistant.

For Sale.—316 acres grazing land all seeded, 3 miles from Coquille for $12.50 per acre. Terms. J. W. Leneve.

Socialist reunion and basket dinner will be held at Quick's Exchange Dec. 25, at 10 a. m. A good program will be rendered. All Socialists and their families are cordially invited to come and have a good time. By order of local Coquille.

Before selecting your list of holiday presents look over the big ad of E. C. Barker & Co., the jeweler then go and see his stock.

Harvey Tyrrell, who was recently shot by mistake by Geo. Tobin on the lower river, went to Marshfield Monday to consult a physician in regard to his wounds. It seems as though they are not getting along as well as he would like to see them.

Postal-card albums in large variety, from 25 cents up. Great assortment of Christmas and New Year cards at Knowlton's.

A. B. Daly, of Marshfield, who looks after the needs of the loggers of this valley, came up from Bandon Saturday after visiting his customers of the lower river, and proceeded to the Bay by train Monday. He reports things looking upward at the present time.

On New Year's eve there will be a Grand Masque Ball at the Heazlet. Beautiful and costly prizes will be awarded on this occasion. This is the time to come early and dance the old year out and the new year in. Masks may be secured at the Racket. Posters will be out soon. Keep your eye open for them.

Twenty per cent off on dishes at Skeels & Son's.

Nelson Jones was up from Riverton yesterday.

Hemstitched and piece linens at The White House.

Mrs. Chas. Ashton, of Bandon, was in Coquille yesterday.

Snow Drift flour is the best. Sold by Skeels & Son.

Chas. Evland returned yesterday from an extended trip outside.

Saws gummed, filed and set at Quick & Curry's shop.

G. G. Borgard, of Lampas, had business in Coquille yesterday.

Look at the new line of black undershirts at Robinson's.

G. G. Borgard was up to town yesterday from the lower river.

That's what they all say, "Slagle Bros. for choice meats."

Miss Connie Robinson, eldest daughter of E. H. Robinson, arrived from Portland Monday by the Alliance.

Hand Painted chamber sets. Best to be had at the Racket.

Miss M. M. Pressey, of Bandon, returned home Monday after a visit of several days in this city with her friend, Mrs. Brown.

New elastic belts with jet trimmings at Robinson's Store.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinnis, of Bandon, returned Saturday from an extended visit with friends of Mississippi valley states. They report having had a very nice time.

Did you get a pair of those high-top shoes at Lyons & Jones? All sizes for little folks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kern, of this city, returned Monday from a trip east. Mr. Kern had business with the transfer of property, and Mrs. Kern went to visit relatives and friends.

Now is the time to buy hats at The White House, everything reduced.

C. T. Nicholson, of Medford, who has been here for several weeks assisting his daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slagle, started on his return home last Thursday. He enjoyed his visit here very much.

Robinson's Store is going to close out their line of ladies' coats. Call and get prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Smith, of Grants Pass, who had been here for about six weeks visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. C. H. Cleaves and wife, started Saturday on their return. They went by way of the Drain route.

All kinds of embroidery silk and cotton threads, also coronation braid, just arrived for The White House.

County Surveyor Gould went to South Slough early last week to survey the grounds for the approaches for the bridge across that stream, to take the place of the ferry. He was accompanied by Lloyd Spires, of Myrtle Point, as an assistant.

For Sale.—316 acres grazing land all seeded, 3 miles from Coquille for $12.50 per acre. Terms. J. W. Leneve.

Socialist reunion and basket dinner will be held at Quick's Exchange Dec. 25, at 10 a. m. A good program will be rendered. All Socialists and their families are cordially invited to come and have a good time. By order of local Coquille.

Before selecting your list of holiday presents look over the big ad of E. C. Barker & Co., the jeweler then go and see his stock.

Harvey Tyrrell, who was recently shot by mistake by Geo. Tobin on the lower river, went to Marshfield Monday to consult a physician in regard to his wounds. It seems as though they are not getting along as well as he would like to see them.

Postal-card albums in large variety, from 25 cents up. Great assortment of Christmas and New Year cards at Knowlton's.

A. B. Daly, of Marshfield, who looks after the needs of the loggers of this valley, came up from Bandon Saturday after visiting his customers of the lower river, and proceeded to the Bay by train Monday. He reports things looking upward at the present time.

On New Year's eve there will be a Grand Masque Ball at the Heazlet. Beautiful and costly prizes will be awarded on this occasion. This is the time to come early and dance the old year out and the new year in. Masks may be secured at the Racket. Posters will be out soon. Keep your eye open for them.

Harry Flanders, the teamster will fill orders for Rouse coal.

Masque ball at the Heazlet New Year's Eve.

Nuts—Almonds, Walnuts, Filberts and Brazil, at Robinson's.

Remember the Fireman's Ball at the Heazlet Christmas Eve.

Hand painted china going at just half price at E. C. Barker & Co's.

A. H. Stutsman, the real estate man, came over from Marshfield yesterday.

Get your shoes at Lyons & Jones there stock is new and up-to-date.

Fireman's souvenir badges which admit you to their ball on sale at Fuhrman's.

Call up Lyons & Jones by phone and get your order filled promptly.

Born.—On Fishtrap, December 20, 1909, to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Paull, a son.

The cold weather is here. Robinson's Store has a fine line of gents', ladies' and children's wool underwear.

Mrs. L. J. Cody, of Bandon, was up to town the first of the week visiting friends.

Born.—In Coquille, Oregon, December 21, 1909, to Mr. and Mrs. Cribbins, a daughter.

When looking for a new suit, hat or anything in gent's furnishings, remember Robinson's is the place.

Born.—In Elgin, Illinois, December 9, 1909, to Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schroeder, a son.

Anyone wearing one of the Fireman's souvenir badges will be admitted to their ball free.

Ladies, if you have not bought your tailored suit for winter, remember Robinson's Store is the place to get them.

L. C. Bargelt, of the Myrtle Point Enterprise, was a passenger to the Bay by Monday's train.

Don't be too late in securing your souvenir badge, which admits you to the Fireman's Ball.

The largest variety of ladies' handbags ever shown in Coquille, ladies' purses and card cases, at Knowlton's Drug Store.

Lee Mast and Bud Ingram were in from the North Fork yesterday making Christmas purchases.

Attend the Kendall recital tonight at the school house, and give the Educational League a boost.

One of those ladies' tailored suits or long capes would be just the thing for a Christmas present. See them. Robinson's Store.

For real estate and insurance, see Stutsman & Co. Estates handled, abstracts furnished and titles perfected.

Prof. R. W. Airey, of Gaston, Oregon, has been in Coos county lately on business and visiting his many friends in the meantime.

Clocks, Clocks, Clocks. Billy Schroeder has a large variety and can order anything you may want if he hasn't it now.

Married.—At the M. E. Parsonage, December 18, 1909, W. M. Westbrook and Mrs. Emily Hanscom, Rev. E. C. Holladay officiating. The Herald, with many friends extend congratulations.

If it is Christmas presents you are trying to select, go to Billy Schroeder's. He can interest you with his large stock.

Union prayermeeting will be held at the M. E. Church, South, December 23. Mr. Hooton of the Christian church will lead. The three churches will continue the union meetings for a number of weeks, looking toward the hope of a general union revival meeting.

Handsome assortment of manicure sets, comb and brush sets, fine toilet sets for ladies and gentlemen, at Knowlton's Drug Store.

Ned C. Kelly, of this city, secretary of the Modern Woodmen Camp, started for Montana on Friday. He goes to inquire into the death of Miss Ella Pope, a member of the camp, who died in that state last spring under circumstances which seem to warrant an investigation.

Do you want your money invested safer than in a bank? Then buy one of those South Bend watches from Billy Schroeder.

The new Armory at the Oregon Agricultural College is nearing completion. It is the largest building of its kind in the West. It is 130 yards long and 60 yards wide. A regular sized football field can be laid out under its roof. It will be a great boom to all kinds of athletics.

Santa Claus' headquarters at M. H. Hays' Racket store. Don't forget the place.

BOOKS!

BOOKS!

Books for the Girls and Books for the Boys

The latest and best selling books of fiction and the finest line of gift books ever brought to Coquille.

Post Card Albums

We have in stock a great variety of Post Card Albums from 25 cents up. Also a large assortment of Christmas and New Year cards.

Mirrors

We have on hand a great variety of mirrors in different styles, including Bonnet Mirrors, Triple Mirrors and Stand Mirrors. Also a handsome assortment of Manicure Sets, Comb and Brush Sets, and a nice line of

Toilet Sets for Ladies and Gentlemen

The Largest variety of Ladies' Hand Bags, Purses and Card Cases ever shown in Coquille can be found here.

The Celebrated Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pens

Kodaks Cameras

Knowlton's Drug Store

Handsome prizes will be given New Year's Eve at the masque ball in the Heazlet.

Toys of all kinds at the Racket.

G. A. Robinson will keep his store open evenings during the holiday trade.

We can fit any boy with a new suit. Robinson's Store.

A number of Coquille's gunners have gone to Arago to attend the turkey shoot there today.

Don't miss seeing those swell comforts at Lyons & Jones.

This office is turning out some large posters for the grand masque ball which takes place in the Heazlet New Year's Eve.

A full stock of 1847 Rodger Brothers' silver ware. Also Sterling silver teaspoons, table spoons and other pieces at the Racket Store.

John Berry, an old and honored pioneer citizen of the South Fork passed away last week and was buried at Myrtle Point Saturday.

I. Chandler was down from Gravel Ford yesterday. He recently received the word that Noah Chandler, a nephew, of Josephine county, was very ill from pneumonia and not expected to recover.

On December 29th a violin and vocal recital will be given by local talent at the Heazlet Theatre, for the benefit of the Educational League. All should attend.

Prof. F. B. Anderson, having closed his business school in this city, with his family took passage on the Breakwater last week en route to Springfield, Missouri, where he has excellent inducements offered him in school work.

C. B. Haywood, of Portland, representing the American Type Founders Co., of that city, was here for several days last week setting up a new printing press for the Coquille Valley Sentinel. The press is called the Stonemetz. The office has been moved from the old Pharmacy building to the new Harry building near the Tuttle Hotel.

For Sale.—The well-known registered stallion, "Bruce Wilkes." Will take cattle or sheep in part payment. Z. C. Strang, Gravel Ford.

L. R. Woodward, of Arago, returned Saturday from a trip north. He was as far as the Alberta country, with which he was very much pleased in many respects. He tells us that it is a great wheat and stock country. Mr. Woodward had his ears frozen enough to cause them to peel off while on the trip.

All kinds of Dishes. Some of the Finest Havaland China and Hand Painted China of the latest patterns to choose from ever brought to Coquille at the Racket.

Dean J. A. Boxell of the School of Commerce of the Oregon Agricultural College has published a bulletin on "Business Methods for the Farm" which is attracting widespread attention and very favorable comment from practical farmers and authorities on farm life. The bulletin presents in a clear and simple manner systems of bookkeeping and accounting which will enable the farmer to keep a definite and helpful record of his business. It meets a long-felt need in farm management. The pamphlet will be sent to any resident of the state upon request.

Books! Books! Books!!! Juvenile books, children's books, books for girls and boys, latest and best selling books of fiction, fine gift books, at R. S. Knowlton's.

Relatives of the late Mrs. Bigne, who suicided by drowning herself in the ocean at Bandon, are offering a reward of $100 for the recovery of her body.

Articles of incorporation of the Union Traction and Terminal Company have been filed with County Clerk Watson. This is the company formed by J. M. Blake in order to carry out their part of the obligations taken upon themselves in accepting the franchise granted Mr. Blake by the city of Marshfield, giving the privilege of constructing street car lines in that city. The same privilege will be obtained from North Bend, and the two cities are to be connected by a line. The capital of the company is placed at $100,000, and the incorporators are J. M. Blake, G. W. Kaufman and R. O. Graves. Mr. Blake states that the lines will be constructed as soon as possible after all rights and privileges have been secured.

We have both new and second hand in the following lines, dressers, commodes, iron and wood beds, bed springs, mattresses, floor matting, sewing machines, in fact almost everything needed for the house or camp. Come and look through, you will be surprised at the great variety of articles to be found in our store. C. M. Goodman & Co.

This Is For You

For the next few days we will make anyone purchasing a $4.50 pair of men's shoes, a present of a beautiful pocket knife. Call in and see our line. Nothing better in town.

Lyons & Jones

We Sell for Less --- Why? CASH ONLY.

OPEN EVERY NIGHT UNTIL CHRISTMAS

THE HUB

Offers the following suggestions in gifts for men, to those who are still in doubt.

SHIRTS HANDKERCHIEFS HOSIERY NECKWEAR SWEATER COATS UMBRELLAS SUSPENDERS SUIT CASES

OUR SHOE DEPARTMENT gives you BETTER VALUES for the SAME PRICE or as good a shoe for LESS THAN ELSEWHERE. Let us prove it to you.

Hub Clothing and Shoe Co.