

LOCAL NEWS.

Percy Ward, of Arago, was in town Thursday.

Skeels & Son buy shoes for wear and not for looks.

The schooner Oregon arrived in the river on Saturday.

For a nice fresh steak phone No. 21. Slagle Bros.

Willis Hoover was up from the lower river on Monday.

Great clearance sale is on at the Hub.

George Halter was down from Fishtrap on Thursday.

Hay, grain, flour and groceries always on hand at Lyons & Jones.

Mrs. W. A. Bean, of Riverton, was in Coquille Monday.

Fine papeteries, portfolios, jewel cases, etc., at Knowlton's Drug Store.

Martin Alexson returned from a trip to the Bay last Thursday.

Be on hand next Monday at the opening of Lorenz's clearance sale.

E. M. Gallier, the Bandon hotel man, was in Coquille Monday.

I am in the market for all kinds of furs. Geo. T. Moulton.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Clinton were up from Parkersburg on Thursday.

Wanted—Cattle to feed hay. Inquire of Hansen Bros. Fairview.

J. H. Matheny, of Myrtle Point, was a Coquille visitor on Monday.

Make your washing easy by using Washing Tablets at Drane's store.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Dement, of Myrtle Point, were in this city Monday.

Anyone wishing fancy or plain sewing, call on Mrs. M. Nosler, next door to the Herald office.

W. M. Hammack, of Fishtrap, went to Bandon Monday, returning yesterday.

When you want the latest styles in men's clothing you can find them at Robinson's store.

Wm. Corbin, of the Point, shook hands with friends in Coquille Thursday.

Read closely the big clearance sale advertisement of H. N. Lorenz in this paper.

John Whobrey, the Myrtle Point hide and fur buyer, was in Coquille Wednesday.

Tozier's Celebrated Logger Shoes have won popularity with the woods boys. E. L. Tozier makes Coquille.

Finley Schroeder was in this city from his ranch on the upper river Friday.

Registered Durock Jersey pigs, the kind that tuck on clover, for sale by J. D. Carl, Myrtle Point, Or. Phone 101.

Smith Hansen, of Fairview, made our office a pleasant business call while in town Monday.

Get your table legs turned at Quick & Curry's. They have some patterns already out. Hard wood, $1 per set.

Mrs. W. H. Smith, of Prosper, was in Coquille last Friday doing some Christmas shopping.

Dr. J. D. Wetmore, of Myrtle Point, had business which called him to Coquille on Monday.

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Liljeqvist, of this city, had business at the bay last Wednesday.

B. F. Hoffman, of near Myrtle Point, made our office a pleasant call while in town yesterday.

J. T. Hayes, the Marshfield optometrist, made our office a pleasant call while in town Friday.

Coquille's city council recently passed an ordinance against chickens running at large. The cows should go next.

Married.—At Coquille, Oregon, December 24, 1909, Wilber L. Ames and Elizabeth D. May, both of Coos county, Rev. C. H. Cleaves officiating.

Chester Ellingson will go below by the next Elizabeth. He goes to Oakland, Cal., to again enter college. He expects to be gone six months or longer.

Call up Lyons & Jones by phone and get your order filled promptly. There is to be a meeting of the Dairyman's Association at the hall of the Woodmen of the World a week from today, Jan. 5th. All dairymen should make it a point to be present and take an active part in the business of this meeting.

Married.—In Coquille, Oregon, December 27, 1909, Leslie M. King and Emma Smalley, E. G. E. Holden officiating.

Get your masks, for the New Year's ball, at the Racket.

Henry Lorenz's big clearance sale begins Monday, January 3rd. He will offer some rare bargains.

W. E. Crane, of Bandon, was in Coquille on Thursday of last week. See the Heavy Flannel Shirts at Lyons & Jones, just the thing for winter.

C. T. Cessna, of the lower river, was in Coquille yesterday.

W. Vandecar was a passenger from the Bay to Myrtle Point by Monday's train.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Gaffey returned from a trip to Portland by the last Breakwater.

Full stock of the celebrated Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pens at R. S. Knowlton's Drug Store.

Mrs. Thomas Ashton, of Parkersburg, was in town doing shopping on Thursday of last week.

For Rent—Small place near town—3 acres bottom cleared. Inquire of Harvey Tyrrell, Coquille.

Cashier L. H. Hazard, of the First National Bank, returned from a trip to the Bay Thursday.

The Hub Clothing and Shoe Store begins a big sacrifice sale tomorrow. Don't miss it.

J. R. Foster, of Langlois, passed through town Wednesday on his way home to spend Christmas.

Mrs. Wm. Colvin, of Rink creek, visited her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Swafford in this city a few days last week.

Secure a footing on the road to success by depositing your savings in the Farmer's & Merchant's Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Guerin, of Myrtle Point, went to Bandon Thursday to visit relatives and friends.

C. O. Crosby, the Fairview nurseryman, had business which brought him to Coquille the middle of last week.

The shoes for woodsmen; Tozier's—S. F. Shoes. The gloves for wear Logger Fear Gloves. E. L. Tozier.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Snyder, of the Myrtle Point section, were down Friday and remained over Christmas with Coquille friends.

Miss Gertrude Miller came over from Marshfield last week to spend the holidays with friends in Coquille.

Dull eyes made bright, by glasses that are right. Mrs. C. L. Bender, Optometrist, at the Baxter, first Thursday and Friday of each month.

Hardy Meat was down from the North Fork last week scaling a lot of logs which had been brought down by different parties of that section.

The big clearance sale at Lorenz's begins Monday.

Miss Georgina Hayes, of Myrtle Point, was the guest of Miss Eva Schroeder, who is here from Portland during the holidays, a day or so last week.

Sheriff W. W. Gage returned Monday morning from a trip to Salem. Mr. Walker who accompanied him proceeded to Portland where he goes to see a sister.

Why suffer with headaches? Others have been relieved by wearing our ground to order glasses. Mrs. C. L. Bender, Optometrist. At the Baxter, first Thursday and Friday of each month.

L. A. Roberts, G. H. Guerin and August Farley, of Myrtle Point, returned from Marshfield last Wednesday, having been to that city to attend a session of the Royal Arch Masons.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Perkins, from down the coast below Bandon, were in Coquille from Friday until Wednesday morning, enjoying a visit with Mrs. Perkins' mother, Mrs. B. F. Tupper, and their many friends.

Get your shoes at Lyons & Jones their stock is new and up-to-date.

Having offered their resignations, Register Eddy and Receiver Lawrence, of the Roseburg landoffice will be superseded by B. T. Jones, of Independence, as Register, and Geo. W. Riddle, of Roseburg, as Receiver.

Two sewing machines left. Give us cost and take them. Skeels & Son.

The home of Mrs. Murphy, widow of the late Dr. M. M. Murphy, of Marshfield, burned last week entailing a loss of about $3,000. This falls very heavily upon Mrs. Murphy as she had struggled hard to become possessed of the property. There is some insurance.

W. A. Barnett, of Prosper, was up to town one day last week.

Mayor Gallier, of Bandon, was in Coquille last week.

W. E. Neely was up from Prosper yesterday.

Mrs. B. K. Archer moved her household effects from Myrtle Point to Bandon last Wednesday, and will reside in the city by the sea in the future.

A new line of fancy groceries just in at Skeels & Son's.

Miss Nancy Benham came over from North Bend Friday and was met here by her father, J. D. Benham, of Fairview, whom she accompanied home to spend Christmas.

Saws gummed, filed and set at Quick & Curry's shop.

John Stone, of Myrtle Point, returned Friday from Boise, Idaho, where he has spent the past two years with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Stover, of that place.

That's what they all say, "Slagle Bros. for choice meats."

Mrs. Ella Watson, of McKinley, came down the latter part of the week to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Snow, and brother, Frank Snow and family.

Did you get a pair of those high-top shoes at Lyons & Jones? All sizes for little folks.

A. D. Border and Mrs. L. W. Traver, of Marshfield, passed through town Friday to Myrtle Point, where they spent Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Border.

Attend the Hub's clearance sale, great bargains are to be had.

Prof. E. H. Harnden, who has just closed a very successful term of school at Riverton, is in this city at present improving his property, having purchased the Hensley home in the south part of town.

Robinson's Store is going to close out their line of ladies' coats. Call and get prices.

The steamer Newport arrived in the Coquille on Saturday directly from Portland. She was ready for sea again on Monday. This is her second visit to this port, and she had a good cargo of freight.

For rare bargains attend the clearance sale of Henry Lorenz.

Marshall Pointer, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pointer, of this city, is carrying an axe in a sling, the result of a fall sustained at the ball grounds Saturday. He fell from the grand stand, fracturing one of his wrists.

Snow Drift flour is the best. Sold by Skeels & Son.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Goram, of the lower river, two well known and highly respected pioneer citizens, have been in rather poor health for some time, but it is hoped with the change in the weather their health will improve.

For Sale.—316 acres grazing land all seeded, 3 miles from Coquille for $12.50 per acre. Terms. J. W. Leneve.

There came near being a collision between two trains in town lately. One was the South bound from Marshfield, and the other Bob Train, from the North Fork. All that prevented the collision was the prompt and skillful management of "Bro. Wood."

Books! Books! Books!!! Juvenile books, children's books, books for girls and boys, latest and best selling books of fiction, fine gift books, at R. S. Knowlton's.

We see by the Cottage Grove Leader that license have been issued for the marriage of David Morton and Miss Etta Dorris. The bride-to-be was formerly a resident of the Arago section and has many friends here who will wish her much happiness.

For Sale—The well-known registered stallion, "Bruce Wilkes." Will take cattle or sheep in part payment. Z. C. Strang, Gravel Ford.

A grand masque ball at the Heazlet on New Year's Eve.

C. I. Green was up from Lampas yesterday and informs us that he expects to go to California in a short time. He has rented his place to M. M. Dobbins who has been a resident of this city for several weeks. Mr. Green goes for a change of climate for the benefit of Mrs. Green's health.

K. Holverson, the tailor, has just received a large lot of samples of suitings. Call and see them and get his prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lorenz, of Bandon, spent Christmas in this city with relatives and friends.

Ten-days' clearance sale begins at Henry Lorenz's next Monday.

Moss Averill who left Bandon last spring for Puget Sound, returned this morning, coming by way of Enterprise, Oregon, where he spent Christmas, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Averill.

Ladies, if you have not bought your tailored suit for winter, remember Robinson's Store is the place to get them.

A. F. Burkhart, who has been the representative of the Union Beat Co. in Coos county for some time, has been transferred to Portland, leaving on last week's Breakwater, and A. R. McCombs, who takes the place, was in this city last Wednesday.

Don't miss seeing those swell comforts at Lyons & Jones.

All licenses for hunting and fishing expire January first. Those who would continue to hunt and fish must renew their license or lay themselves liable to a fine.

Handsome assortment of manicure sets, comb and brush sets, fine toilet sets for ladies and gentlemen, at Knowlton's Drug Store.

R. J. Dean, of this city, spent Christmas with his daughter, Mrs. J. Mulkey, at Bandon.

Twenty per cent off on dishes at Skeels & Son's.

Married.—In Coquille, Oregon, December 27, 1909, Wallace C. Cross and Sarah Ann Epperson, E. G. D. Holden, officiating.

Harry Flanders, the teamster will fill orders for Rouse coal.

Leland Howey is home from the O. A. C. to spend the holidays. He is enjoying a visit from a cousin, T. Venton Hewer, of Canada, who will depart for his home when Leland returns to Corvallis.

Hand painted china going at just half price at E. C. Barker & Co's.

Thos. Coats, an old and respected citizen of Bandon, has suffered a severe stroke of paralysis, and is thought to be in a critical condition. Mr. Coats is a veteran of the rebellion, and many of his old G. A. R. friends will be pained to learn of his afflictions, and will sincerely hope for his rapid recovery.

Try that old-fashioned mince meat and apple-butter at Robinson's.

Roseburg has a new paper. "The Douglas Leader" made its first appearance on the 22nd of this month and is a bright, new sheet, containing eight pages 12x18. It is to be independent in politics, but fearless in condemning wrong doing wherever found, and is to be a booster from the beginning.

Large assortment of Kodaks and cameras at Knowlton's Drug Store.

J. L. Handelman, who moved from Norway a year or so ago to the Stuslaw, was severely hurt lately by being thrown from his wagon. The vehicle upset, the edge of the box falling across Mr. Handelman's back, but in such a manner as to break no bones. His injuries are not serious.

C. M. Goodman & Co., dealers in new and second hand goods, Phone No. 364.

The body found on the beach near Tillamook and reported as that of Henry Wickman last week, proved to be the remains of another person, and is supposed to be that of the fireman who was swept overboard off the Arago while she was stranded on the bar at that place. All hopes of finding the body of Mr. Wickman have been abandoned.

Now is the time to have your windows and doors reglazed. Quick & Curry has the galvanized screening.

The Margaret Iles Co., which has been disbanded for an outing and general vacation, some of the members going to California, while others went to the hills to look after mining interests, are again advertised to open an engagement at the Benson Opera house at Myrtle Point on January 19th. They will be in Coquille in due time.

When looking for a new suit, hat or anything in gent's furnishings, remember Robinson's is the place.

H. A. Hawkins, of Langlois, arrived in town yesterday evening with his family and will remain several days visiting with his brother, Mayor Hawking, and sister, Mrs. D. J. Lowe, and friends. The Herald acknowledges a very pleasant call.

Lyons & Jones have a large line of comforts and blankets to choose from. Give us a call, our prices are right.

See the 1000 pairs of shoes on sale at the Hub.

L. Barker and daughter, Miss Biddle, were in from Fairview today.

See the big posters out announcing the clearance sale at H. N. Lorenz's.

Dr. and Mrs. Culin, of this city, were Marshfield visitors the first of the week.

The Misses Harrison, of Myrtle Point, were in Coquille a day or so the first of the week.

Mrs. Lowe and daughter, Miss Maud, of Bandon, visited Marshfield friends the first of the week.

The Herald has just put out posters announcing a big sale at the Hub Clothing and Shoe Store.

The steamer Newport which came into the Coquille a few days ago will extend her trip to Eureka this time.

Owing to a rush of advertising this week the Herald is obliged to issue two extra pages, and in consequence is a little late.

Wm. Candlin, the commercial man, made a business trip to Bandon last week, and extended his visit to the farm of his friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. DeGassen.

Sweet and sour pickles, green and ripe olives. Robinson's Store.

Married.—At Bandon, Oregon, December 25, 1909, Wallace M. York and Lillie M. Coates, Rev. Marius E. Coen officiating.

These cold, frosty nights and beautiful days suit our eastern arrivals very well, but many Coos county residents prefer the warm rains. The latter are better on range stock.

All kinds of general merchandise on sale at Henry Lorenz's clearance.

Rev. Gregg held two well attended and interesting services in this city this week. Having closed his successful revival at Myrtle Point, he will depart for his home at Portland by the next boat.

J. C. Noel, of Gardiner, last week purchased through the agency of the Pacific Real Estate Co., Frank Burkholder general manager, the property of Mrs. Duley, known as the Judge Nosler place in the north part of town, paying the sum of $3,500.00 for it. We understand that Mr. Noel will become a resident of our city at an early date.

Big bargains at Lorenz's clearance sale.

Married.—At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Magill, of the Middle Fork, December 22, 1909, M. W. Oskette and Miss Bernice Magill were joined by the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. B. Hollenbeck, of Coquille, grandfather of the bride, in the presence of the family and a few friends. The young couple will make their home at Myrtle Point in the future.

For real estate and insurance, see Stutsman & Co. Estates handled, abstracts furnished and titles perfected.

John Rhodes, who it will be remembered by many of our residents spent a year or so in this section, leaving seven years ago, returned last week and is again making his home with his aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Fouts, and her sons, John and Jake. Mr. Rhodes has traveled considerably since leaving here, having visited his mother in Maryland, but spent most of the time during his absence in Missouri and Texas. His many friends were pleased to see him return.

Five lots for $500. See J. W. Leneve.

Office of The First National Bank

Coquille, Oregon, December 28, 1909.

TO OUR PATRONS AND FRIENDS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC:

We beg to announce that the stockholders of this bank have voted to increase the Capital Stock to $50,000.00, effective after January 15, 1910.

This action was taken in line with our past policy to afford ample protection to our depositors, which we consider is the first and paramount duty of every banking institution, and also to provide adequate facilities for our increased business.

We extend to you our sincere greeting, and take this opportunity of thanking you for your generous patronage, and for whatever measure of success has come to us we make our grateful acknowledgement.

Appreciating the trust confided in us, and promising for the future the same fidelity to your interest and protection that has won your confidence in the past, we wish each of you a happy and prosperous New Year.

Officers and Directors:

A. J. SHERWOOD, Pres.	L. H. HAZARD, Cashier.
R. E. SHINE, Vice Pres.	O. C. SANFORD, Asst. Cashier.
R. C. DEMENT	L. HARLOCKER I. HACKER.

MINDFUL

of the many evidences of prosperity as reflected in our constantly growing business, and deeply appreciative of the manifest loyalty of our numerous friends, we desire to express our heartfelt thanks to all who have had a part in helping us grow.

To you we extend in turn, our heartiest wishes for a happy, prosperous

NEW YEAR

E. BARKER & CO.

We Wish You, One and All

A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS

NEW YEAR

R. S. KNOWLTON

You can secure masks for the New Year's ball at M. H. Horney's.

For a good smoke try the El Toro, at the Oregonian.

Married.—In Coquille, Oregon, December 19, 1909, Herbert C. Davis and Elsie Lovett, Rev. E. C. Holladay officiating.

Parties wishing coal from the Rouse mine will apply to Harry Flanders.

L. M. Strong, the Norway creamery man, was down yesterday to see Geo. E. Peoples.

Ladies—When looking for rubber call on Lyons & Jones, they can fit you.

It appears that our state capitol is suffering from epidemic of typhoid, the result of the city's water becoming contaminated with the exceedingly high waters of the Willamette river.

Telephone for meat to be delivered at any time from Slagle Bros. Phone No. 21.

Married.—In Myrtle Point, Oregon, December 25, 1909, Geo. A. Martin and Miss Viola M. Post, Rev. Thos. Barklow officiating.

Arthur Ellingson is erecting a new home for the "Scenic," between the furniture store and central telephone office. It will have an elevated floor and all conveniences for this popular place of entertainment.

A word to the wise, take care of your eyes. Mrs. C. L. Bender, Optometrist. At the Baxter First Thursday and Friday of each month.

J. W. Gar diner, of North Bend, resigns as cashier of the First National Bank of that city in order to give his undivided attention to the logging business. Mr. Graves, a prominent North Bend druggist, will take the position as cashier in this popular financial institution.

This Is For You

For the next few days we will make anyone purchasing a $4.50 pair of men's shoes, a present of a beautiful pocket knife.

Call in and see our line. Nothing better in town.

Lyons & Jones