More Bodies Washed Ashore.

Two more bodies from the Czarina wreck were found on the beach near Ten Mile creek this morning, and will probably be brought to Marshfield tomorrow. The body found yesterday north of the Umpqua will probably be buried there.

The bodies are badly decomposed and disfigured, making identification practically impossible. The one found north of the Umpqua is supposed to be Capt. Duggan. With the exception of a pair of shoes and a colored shirt, it was naked. The body was about the size of Captain Duggan but Fred McCollom who went to Gardner this morning in hopes of being able to identify it, was unable to say whether it was that of the master of the ill-fated Czarina or not.

One body found near the mouth of Ten Mile creek was absolutely naked. The head had been torn from it, making identification impossible. But little was heard concerning the other body found near Ten Mile creek.

Coroner Golden is planning to go to the scene this afternoon or early tomorrow.

Owing to the condition of the bodies being washed ashore, there is little hope of identifying those that come in without the clothing. Those with the clothing on may possibly be identified.—Coos Bay Times.

Corporations Dissolved.

In an executive order Governor F. W. Benson has dissolved about 400 incorporated concerns doing business in the state of Oregon because these corporations had not made the reports to the secretary of state that are required by law, and had not paid their license fees for the past two years. The action was taken under the authority of Chapter 172 of the laws of 1905, and the concerns so affected are now without legal right to do business in this state. Their articles of incorporation are revoked and repealed by the order, and all powers conferred upon them by law are declared inoperative and void.

Many of the companies so affected are native to other states, but have been registered in Oregon, while others were incorporated under the laws of this state. A large percentage of the outlawed companies are mining concerns, while others are maintaining active businesses. Just what the legal effect of this executive order will be upon the operations of the concerns is hard to tell at this time, but many embarrassing law points will doubtless be raised as to the rights of the companies to issue check, collect money or transact other official business.—Salem Statesman.

Black Hand Found Guilty.

Toledo, Ohio, Jan. 29.—All of the fourteen Cicilians on trial here charged with the "Black Hand" conspiracy were found guilty by a jury in federal court today.

Salvatore Lima, the leader, was sentenced to sixteen years imprisonment and the others from two to ten years. Three were granted new trials.

Reason Enthroned

Because meats are so tasty they are consumed in great excess. This leads to stomach trouble, biliousness and constipation. Revise your diet, let reason and not a pampered appetite control, then take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be well again. Try it. For sale at R. S. Knowlton's Drug Store. Sample free.

Lightning Struck Oil.

Delbart, Texas, Jan. 29.—Mrs. Josie Pettis, owning a farm near Delbart, declared that a bolt of lightning struck the ground on the mountainside near her home recently and uncovered a spring of crude oil, which is now producing 200 barrels daily. It is claimed that she has been offered $10,000 for the small tract of land.

Norway Items.

The boys say ducks are plenty—plenty scarce.

W. A. Hoover has just completed a commodious woodshed for his brother-in-law, P. S. Robison, of this vicinity.

We understand that J. W. Bell lost a nice large can of cream one night lately through the pranks of some miscreants.

Mrs. J. P. Barkdoll was down from her homestead on Halls creek visiting with her son, Jas Barkdoll and wife, a few days last week.

Charles Haughton and daughter returned from the North Fork Saturday, where Miss Theresa has been visiting the Wyland girls for about three weeks.

Some of the boys have been playing ghost in this neighborhood of late. They had better look out. A shotgun in the hands of a woman who can shoot is a bad thing to get in range of sometimes.

Chas. Haughton has returned to Aasen Bros. camp to work again. Mr. Haughton says that Aasen Bros. are going to pension him after 20 years service. Haughton is the logging kid all right and is there in more ways than one.

"I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past eight years and find it to be one of the best selling medicines on the market. For babies and young children there is nothing better in the line of cough cures," says Paul Allen, Plain Deling, La. This remedy not only cures the coughs, colds and croup so common among young children, but is pleasant and safe for them to take. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Easily Fixed.

A man in Garden City, Kansas, fell under a train of cars and had his leg crushed, but they did not call a surgeon nor the coroner; he got up and hobbled off to a carpenter shop where he got it fixed again. It was a wooden leg.

A Common Cold.

We claim that if catching cold could be avoided some of the most dangerous and fatal diseases would never be heard of. A cold often forms a culture bed for germs of infectious diseases. Consumption, pneumonia, diphtheria and scarlet fever, four of the most dangerous and fatal diseases, are of this class. The culture bed formed by the cold favors the development of the germs of these diseases, that would not otherwise find lodgment. There is little danger, however, of any of these diseases being contracted when a good expectorant cough medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It cleans out these culture beds that favor the development of the germs of these diseases. That is why this remedy has proved so universally successful in preventing pneumonia. It not only cures your cold quickly, but minimizes the risk of contracting these dangerous diseases. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.
