

LOCAL NEWS.

Remnants at Robinson's.
 J. E. Martin, of Riverton, was in Coquille on Thursday.
 The best onion sets at Knowlton's Drug Store.
 Clifford Crews made a business trip to Bandon last Saturday.
 Read our ads—patronize our advertisers.
 Mrs. J. E. Perrott was a passenger on the down Dispatch Saturday.
 Assorted stock of fresh cookies at Robinson's.
 The Misses Maud and Hope Albee, of Fishtrap, were in town Thursday.
 Saws gummed, filed and set at Quick & Curry's shop.
 Joe Fi h, of Bandon, came up to Coquille Thursday and will remain a few days.
 For garden tools come to the Second Hand Store.
 Deputy Pros. Attorney Liljeqvist returned from the Bay on Thursday morning's train.
 I am in the market for all kinds of furs.
 GEO. T. MOULTON.
 Sam Sherwood and family were in town doing some shopping on Thursday of last week.
 Ladies' and children's coats going at a sacrifice at Rose's Cash Store.
 Mr. and Mrs. John McCue, of the lower river, were in this city on Thursday of last week.
 If you buy goods at the Second Hand Store, you are bound to save money.
 Chas. Peterson and wife returned from the Bay Thursday and proceeded to Riverton by the Coquille.
 Robinson's Store is closing out some men's clothing. Get his prices.
 Mrs. Barrows, of near Parkersburg, spent Wednesday in Coquille, returning by the Dispatch Thursday.
 Have you seen the Valentines at Knowlton's? They are certainly beauties.
 Attorney Treadgold arrived in Coquille from Myrtle Point Wednesday night of last week, and proceeded to Bandon on Thursday morning.
 Washington's Birthday, St. Patrick's Day and Easter postals in great variety at the Palm.
 Henry Benham arrived in town on Thursday morning's train. He came over the middle fork road which he says is in a very bad condition. He has been around Roseburg for some time and reports things being very quiet there.
 K. Holverson, the tailor, has just received a large lot of samples of suitings. Call and see them and get his prices.

E. Bargeron, the Coaledo merchant, had business in town Thursday.
 Garden seeds at Knowlton's Drug Store.
 Mrs. Claud Stutsman went to Marshfield Friday to visit relatives and friends.
 Harry Flanders, the teamster will fill orders for Rouse coal.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kronenberg, of Parkersburg, were Coquille visitors on Thursday.
 The latest styles in ladies' tan cloth-top shoes at Robinson's.
 Mr. Fish, the bookkeeper for the Prosper Mill Co., had business in Coquille last Thursday.
 That's what they all say, "Slagle Bros. for choice meats."
 Tex Robinson, the Fishtrap farmer, who was sick the early part of last week, was able to be in town Friday.
 Make your washing easy by using Washing Tablets at Drane's store.
 Geo. Shelly, the commercial man, came up from Bandon Wednesday and proceeded to Myrtle Point by Thursday's train.
 A beautiful selection of Valentines on display at Knowlton's Drug Store.
 Dr. Harrison, the veterinary surgeon, of Myrtle Point, passed through town Thursday, making a professional trip to Bandon.
 Ladies, call and see our line of fancy spring shirt waists at Rose's Cash Store.
 Mrs. H. P. Belloni, of Riverton, was in town Saturday. She was accompanied home by her mother-in-law, Mrs. George Belloni, of near this city.
 For Sale.—316 acres grazing land all seeded, 3 miles from Coquille for $12.50 per acre. Terms. J. W. Leneve.
 H. J. Neighbors and two sons arrived in this city Friday from Salem. Mr. Neighbors is a carpenter and contractor, and will locate in Coquille.
 For real estate and insurance, see Stutsman & Co. Estates handled, abstracts furnished and titles perfected.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gaffey, of this city, went to the Bay Thursday on their way to Portland, where they will probably locate. They were accompanied to the Bay by Mr. Gaffey's sister, Mrs. J. R. McGee, of Riverton.
 V. R. Wilson, the optician, will remain in Coquille for the next few weeks and is prepared to fit glasses repair the same and duplicate broken lenses. Will also do watch work. People having good watches needing repairs, should bring them in; we can do the trick. Prices reasonable.

Beautiful postal Valentines at the Palm.
 Hugh Lohorn went to the Bay Monday.
 Choice onion sets at Knowlton's Drug Store.
 J. W. Mast, of Bandon, came up on the steamer Coquille Monday afternoon.
 Prompt delivery made of all goods from the Second Hand Store.
 Miss Gertrude Miller, the stenographer, came over from Marshfield Monday.
 New dry goods by the first boat for Robinson's Store.
 Mrs. J. B. R. Shelton, of Beaver Slough, did shopping in town on Saturday.
 Dr. Harrison, the Myrtle Point veterinary surgeon, was in town on Saturday.
 Wanted—Cattle to feed hay. Inquire of Hansen Bros. Fairview.
 E. H. Robinson, the fisherman, had business which called him to the Bay Monday.
 W. E. Neely, who was up from Prosper Saturday, made our office a pleasant call.
 Hand painted china going at just half price at E. C. Barker & Co's.
 Mrs. T. J. Hall, of Marshfield, who has been visiting Mrs. Walter Sinclair, returned Monday.
 Remember, the Palm is headquarters for fine homemade candy.
 Mrs. S. L. Curry was a passenger up from the lower river by Monday's Dispatch, having been down to see her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ashton, and brother, Charles Ashton, and his family.
 Ladies' for summer wear—the latest thing out—at Rose's Cash Store.
 The steamer Fifield arrived in port at Bandon Monday afternoon. This was the cause of the steamer Coquille being late, as she waited to bring a few of her passengers who wished to come up to this city.
 Robinson's Store has just received a new line of men's dress and work gloves.
 J. G. Fish, the furniture factory man, returned from Portland Friday. He informs us that Mrs. Fish, who it will be remembered has undergone an operation, is recovering rapidly, being beyond all danger, and expects to be home in about a month.
 Telephone for meat to be delivered at any time from Slagle Bros. Phone No. 21.
 R. E. L. Bedillion, of Bandon, went up to Fishtrap on the steamer Echo last Saturday for the purpose of shooting ducks. Whether he gets ducks or "ducked" is more than we can say, as he has been known to get both on former occasions in that neighborhood.
 For the latest improved gearing you will find it in the White Lily washing-machine at the Second Hand Store.
 O. F. Schoenemann, who has spent the past two or three years with his brother-in-law, Peter Jacobson, of the Rink place, went to the Bay Friday on his way to Astoria to catch the steamer Roanoke for Eureka. Mr. Schoenemann is completing an electrical course with the International Correspondence School, and will probably be running a street car line soon.
 Just received at Knowlton's Drug Store, a large lot of the finest onion sets ever seen in this market.
 There was a meeting of the stockholders of the Coquille Valley Telephone Co. held at the courthouse in this city Saturday. Most of the business transacted was of a private nature, no one being admitted except stockholders. The meeting was well attended by farmers from up and down the valley. The Echo left an hour later than usual in order to give those from up the river a chance to get home after the meeting concluded.
 Anyone wishing fancy or plain sewing, call on Mrs. M. Nosler, next door to the Herald office.
 J. M. Whetstone returned from Myrtle Point Friday, having been up on business, and found a telephone message awaiting him, asking him to return to Gardiner at once to resume his work as filer at the mill, which was shut down for a short time on account being blocked up with lumber. We presume vessels have arrived in which have relieved their docks. Mr. Whetstone had a nice visit, and our people had a chance to hear some of his music at the Scenic Saturday night.
 For Sale.—Grass and grain hay and fine red oats and barley. Inquire of W. H. Thomas, Coquille.

W. C. Laird has just received a fine assortment of rugs.
 Cliff Martia, of Riverton, was in Coquille Monday.
 Bargains in men's clothing at Robinson's Store.
 John Wayne, of Bridge, came to Coquille last Monday.
 Have yet 24 tons of field peas for sale. Phone 7x6.
 H. L. Stephens, the Fishtrap nurseryman, was in town Monday.
 Mrs. J. P. Clausen, of the lower river, was shopping in this city Monday.
 Valentines of many styles and prices at Knowlton's.
 Rev. and Mrs. Horsfall were passengers on the train to Marshfield, Friday.
 Look out for the 10 and 25 cent bargain counters at Skeels & Son's.
 E. E. Johnson and wife went to the lower river Monday to see Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Johnson, of Prosper.
 The Palm carries a fine line of postal cards in great variety.
 The steamer Bandon arrived in the river last Saturday and sailed again for San Francisco on Monday.
 A good entertainment at the "Dime" six nights each week.
 The Wilhelmina came into the river from Coos Bay Sunday, bringing a load of freight from the Alliance.
 Robinson's Store has the first shipment of their spring shoes.
 Miss Emma Pomeroy, of the lower river, spent a few days in Coquille last week, returning by Monday's Dispatch.
 Cedar posts for sale. Inquire of J. W. Briggs, P. O. box 36.
 E. G. Perham, the contractor for the new First National Bank building, returned from a short visit to the Bay by Monday's train.
 Have you looked over that new line of men's hats at Robinson's?
 Henry Schroeder returned to his home at Arago Monday, after having spent Sunday in the dental parlors of Dr. Kirshman, of this city.
 Rugs, all prices from $4.50 to $55.00 at W. C. Laird's.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tollman, of this city, went to Fishtrap by the steamer Echo Monday, on their way to their coal land interests over the river.
 New Mattresses—All kinds, at C. M. Goodman & Co's Second Hand Store.
 John Gobbi, of Mendocino county, California, who has been sawing in the Lyons & Johnson mill for the past six weeks, went to Marshfield Monday on his way to California. His health has not been good on account of the cool, damp weather.
 Rolled barley, shorts, bran, wheat and cracked corn at Robinson's Store.
 Sohn Stauff, who has been up from Oakland, California, visiting his mother, Mrs. George Stauff, and sister, Mrs. Walter Sinclair, of this city, for the past two weeks, went to Marshfield Monday. Mr. Stauff will make his home on Coos Bay for awhile.
 Secure a footing on the road to success by depositing your savings in the Farmer's & Merchant's Bank.
 The following-described real property was sold last week through the agency of Wm. Oddy: House and lot 12, block 34, Elliott's addition, sold to Mrs. Clara J. Miller, also a three-acre tract known as the Hensley place, to W. H. Hull, of Riverton.
 For Sale—Span of good horses, weight 1400 lbs each, 7 and 9 years old. W. B. Colvin, Coquille.
 Archie Collier, of this city, is a sufferer from a severe burn about the right eye, caused by a coal of fire from a cigar which fell on his face while he was wrestling with a friend. It seems that his friend was behind him and holding his hands in a position that prevented Patsy from removing the fire before it had done its work.
 Our line of ladies' and gents' Spring shoes to arrive by first steamer. Rose's Cash Store.
 W. R. Haines, the piano man, came over Thursday, accompanied by his piano tuner, W. G. Holl. Mr. Haines returned to the Bay by Friday's train, leaving Mr. Holl over until Saturday to finish up his work. Mr. Holl will be over next Monday, and anyone wishing pianos tuned may leave orders at this office.
 Look out for seed grain—bald barley, beardless barley, red and white oats, seed corn, vetch, peas, Early Sward and Beauty of Heburn potatoes, also the best eating potatoes in town. All to be had at Skeels & Son's.

Healthy
 Horses and Cattle

are as easy to have as any if you only take a little precaution in having them make the best use of their feed. That simply means feed them a dose of the renowned

RUSSIAN STOCK TONIC

It gives them an appetite, it tones their digestive organs, and every ounce of feed they eat counts. You should try it.

Fuhrman's Pharmacy
 COQUILLE, OREGON

Garden seeds of all kinds at Skeels & Son's.
 Miss Tiny Roberts, of Myrtle Point, came to Coquille on Tuesday.
 Attorney Chas. McNight was a passenger to the Bay on yesterday morning's train.
 For sale—Big Worthington steam pump—4 inch intake pipe. Inquire of George Gilman.
 Mrs. Nelson Smith, of this city, returned Tuesday from a visit of a few days with friends in Myrtle Point.
 Wm. Carver, the liveryman of Myrtle Point, went to Bandon Friday to attend to some business matters. He tells us that he has sold his livery business to Laird & Weekly.
 Robinson's store are closing out their stock of ladies' tailored suits
 J. N. Smith and wife, of Globe, Arizona, were passengers on the Fifield and came up to Coquille on Monday evening by the steamer Coquille, and proceeded to the Bay by Tuesday's train.
 Full stock of garden, grass and field seed at Knowlton's Drug Store.
 Gus Anderson, a shoemaker, late of Heppner, Oregon, arrived here Friday, having come down on the Breakwater. Mr. Anderson informs us that he is well pleased with the looks of Coquille and surroundings, and will soon be working at his trade in this city, having rented the building of J. L. Thompson, formerly occupied by the Sentinel.
 We buy every thing that has a value. C. M. Goodman & Co. New and Second Hand Goods.
 There was a special train over from Marshfield to bring the passengers from the Breakwater on Friday afternoon. The steamer Dispatch waited for this train to take those among them who wished to go to Bandon, among whom we noticed eighteen men on their way to Pacific City. Included in their number was a Mr. C. N. Smith, a newspaper man, who informs us that he is going to start a paper in the new town. Mr. Smith will doubtless do well(?) as there is no newspaper in that immediate vicinity, and he will be welcomed in the field.
 Farina, fine and course graham, corn meal and hominy, at Robinson's.
 Mrs. B. H. Burns, of this city, is in receipt of a letter from Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Gould, who lately left here for Aurora, Washington, stating that their six-year-old son, Delbert, had passed away from typhoid fever on the 27th ult. Their other little boy, Gerald, had been bad off for some time, but was better and they hoped for his recovery at the time the letter was written. Mr. and Mrs. Gould were here only a short time, but made many fast friends during the time, while Mrs. Gould renewed old acquaintances, she having lived here while she was Miss Ethel Whitelaw.
 BOYS, when you want some spending money, bring your old Rubber Boots and Copper Junk to the Second Hand Store. We pay cash.
 Wanted.—The Overland Monthly wants an energetic capable man or woman in Coquille to act as County Manager in Coos County, to conduct a subscription campaign Good pay, permanent employment, experience unnecessary. References required. Outfit and instructions free. Address immediately, "Circulation Manager" Overland Monthly, 773 Market St., San Francisco, Cal.

HATS - HATS

Now is your Chance for a Hat at

Lyons & Jones

FROM

$1 to $3.50

Buy while you have a chance to Double your Money.

ESTABLISHED
 20 YEARS

Better Prepared to Serve the Public than Ever Before, Having a Very Full and Complete Stock of

DRUGS, DRUGGIST SUPPLIES, STATIONERY, BLANK BOOKS AND SCHOOL SUPPLIES

Kodaks and Supplies
 ...a Specialty

KNOWLTON'S DRUG STORE

We Repair
 WATCHES CLOCKS
 JEWELRY
 COMBS BARRETT'S
 PHONOGRAPHS

We Do
 AGATE GRINDING AND POLISHING
 STONE SETTING RING
 MAKING ENGRAVING

All Work Guaranteed

E. C. Barker & Co.

Call and See Us and Hear the Music.

Aretino Talking Machine FREE with $25.00 cash trade and a cash payment of $2.50 on delivery of machine. One 10-inch record FREE with $10.00 in cash trade. One 10-inch record FREE with $5.00 in cash trade every Saturday. Remember the Aretino record fits all kinds of disc talking machines.

P. E. Drane
 DEALER IN
 Ladies' and Gents' Furnishings,
 Fancy and Staple Groceries, Flour and Feed.

Information Wanted.
 Information is wanted as to the whereabouts of William Costello. I have important news for him from Van Couver, Washington.
 W. W. GAGE,
 Sheriff.

For that Terrible Itching.
 Eczema, tetter and salt rheum keep their victims in perpetual torment. The application of Chamberlain's Salve will instantly allay this itching, and many cases have been cured by its use. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

BASKET BALL

Bandon - High - School
 VS.
 Coquille High School

IN MASONIC HALL, COQUILLE
 Saturday, Feb. 12, at 8 o'clock p. m.

Remember, This Game will be Played Saturday Night

Admission 25 Cents School Children 10 Cents
 Watch this Ad. Next Week

HOTEL BAXTER

Centrally and Conveniently Located. Table Supplied with the Best the Market Affords. Sample Rooms for Commercial Men. Transfer of Baggage to and from Boats and Trains.

Recently Newly Furnished Throughout

R. HANSEN
 Proprietor and Manager