

LOCAL NEWS.

George Henninger, of Fishtap, was in town Thursday.

The best onion sets at Knowlton's Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Randleman were up from the lower river on Monday.

Garden seeds at Knowlton's Drug Store.

Rev. and Mrs. Horsfall came over from Marshfield Monday and went to Bandon.

Read our ads—patronize our advertisers.

J. H. Oerding, the concrete man, made a short business visit to Myrtle Point Monday.

For garden tools come to the Second Hand Store.

Capt. T. W. Panter, of Bandon, was one of the crew of the steamer Echo the first of the week.

Saws gummed, filed and set at Quick & Curry's shop.

There will be services Sunday morning and evening at the St. James Episcopal Church by the Rev. Mr. Horsfall.

I am in the market for all kinds of furs. GEO. T. MOULTON.

P. J. Lindberg, of Port Orford, came over from the Bay Monday morning and took the boat for the Coast country in the afternoon.

That's what they all say, "Slagle Bros. for choice meats."

Amos Orson, of Bandon, was in Coquille Monday, being on his return from a two months sojourn at Seattle, Washington.

Robinson's Store is closing out some men's clothing. Get his prices.

R. W. Lundy, of Myrtle Point, came down by Monday morning's train and shook hands with a number of old comrades while in this city.

If you buy goods at the Second Hand Store, you are bound to save money.

H. S. Kribs, who has been at Myrtle Point for some time, passed through town Saturday on his way to his homestead in the Ten-Mile country, where he will spend the balance of the winter.

Washington's Birthday, St. Patrick's Day and Easter postals in great variety at the Palm.

J. L. Briggs was in town on Monday. Mr. Briggs has decided not to move to the valley as mentioned a week or so ago. His family had gone as far as Empire on their way, but will return to their home on the Coquille river.

K. Holverson, the tailor, has just received a large lot of samples of suitings. Call and see them and get his prices.

W. F. Disher, of Bandon, was a Coquille business visitor on Monday.

Geo. Laird, of Bandon, went to the Bay by Thursday's train.

P. L. Phelin, of the Myrtle Point Mill Co., had business in Coquille on Thursday.

The Palm carries a fine line of postal cards in great variety.

J. Machado, the Myrtle Point merchant, came down to Coquille on business Thursday.

The latest styles in ladies' tan cloth-top shoes at Robinson's.

The steamers Elizabeth and Field sailed from the Coquille river direct for San Francisco on Friday.

A good entertainment at the "Dime" six nights each week.

Alex Barklow and wife, of Myrtle Point, passed through town Thursday on their way to Bandon for a short visit.

Hand painted china going at just half price at E. C. Barker & Co's.

N. P. Peterson, one of Myrtle Point's prominent business men, passed through town Thursday on his way to Marshfield.

Look out for the 10 and 25 cent bargain counters at Skeels & Son's.

Mr. and Mrs. Nile Miller, of the Fishtap section, returned from the Bay Friday, having been over to secure special treatment for Mrs. Miller's eyes.

Rolled barley, shorts, bran, wheat and cracked corn at Robinson's Store.

Fred Gage, of Coos River, came over Friday to see his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gage, and other members of the family, as well as many friends.

For Sale—Span of good horses, weight 1400 lbs each, 7 and 9 years old. W. B. Colvin, Coquille.

Prof. A. G. Rabb, of the North Bend high schools, made our office a pleasant business call Thursday, while in town as one of the board conducting the teachers' examination.

For real estate and insurance, see Stutsman & Co. Estates handled, abstracts furnished and titles perfected.

Clarence Waters, of the North Fork, who has been in California for some weeks returned Thursday. He informs us that he took treatment at the Byron hot springs, which relieved him very much of rheumatism, from which he had been bothered for some time.

V. R. Wilson, the optician, will remain in Coquille for the next few weeks and is prepared to fit glasses repair the same and duplicate broken lenses. Will also do watch work. People having good watches needing repairs, should bring them in; we can do the trick. Prices reasonable.

Dance Saturday night at the Heazlet.

"Dora Thorne" at the Heazlet Wednesday night, the 16th.

J. L. Crosby, of Gravel Ford, was a Coquille visitor on Saturday.

Choice onion sets at Knowlton's Drug Store.

New dry goods by the first boat for Robinson's Store.

The telegraph wires from Roseburg to Coos Bay were down several days lately.

Filo and Royal silk Floss in all shades at Robinson's.

J. O. Stemmler, the Myrtle Point real estate man, attended court at this place last week.

Look at that red and cream serge at Robinson's.

C. A. Pettengill was in from his farm on Cunningham Saturday. He made our office a pleasant business call.

Cedar posts for sale. Inquire of J. W. Briggs, P. O. box 36.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wiley were in Coquille Friday. Mr. Wiley has accepted a position in Crane's Camp and will go to work soon.

Prompt delivery made of all goods from the Second Hand Store.

Attorney C. R. Wade, of Bandon, was a passenger from the Bay by Saturday's train, and continued his trip home by the steamer Coquille.

Telephone for meat to be delivered at any time from Slagle Bros. Phone No. 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Knife, of near Johnson's mill, returned from Coos Bay Friday, where they had taken their little daughter to have her ears treated.

Anyone wishing fancy or plain sewing, call on Mrs. M. Nosler, next door to the Herald office.

Mrs. Wain Hollenbeck, of Bandon, went to Coos Bay, Thursday accompanied by her father, Wm. Furgison, who was on his way to Portland.

Just received at Knowlton's Drug Store, a large lot of the finest onion sets ever seen in this market.

G. H. LaDue, of Walla Walla, is visiting the different sections of Coos county with a view to finding a location that suits him. He is highly pleased with this county as a whole, and will no doubt become a resident in the near future.

The shoes for woodsmen; Tozier's—S. F. Shoes. The gloves for wear Logger Fear Gloves. E. L. Tozier.

A number of logs were left on what is known as the Capt. Butler place, near Arago, and the owners of such logs are hereby notified that the same must be removed at once. The logs are marked as follows: M, one; Y, two; T, six; B L, one H-A, two; <->, six. If these logs are not removed immediately the undersigned will appropriate them to his own use. R. BIASCA.

For Sale.—316 acres grazing land all seeded, 3 miles from Coquille for $12.50 per acre. Terms. J. W. Leneve.

There was a change took place in the ownership of the steamer Echo, plying between this city and Myrtle Point, the last of the week. The interest owned by Chief Engineer C. I. Kime was purchased by Allen Panter, son of Capt. W. R. Panter, who owns the other portion of the boat. This deal also carried with it an interest in the steamer Myrtle which is used for special trips up the South and North Forks, and on the run above this city in low water in summer.

There is to be a Washington program rendered at the Heazlet Theatre on Tuesday afternoon, February 22nd, by the pupils of our public schools. Each room will be represented by exhibit work which will be of interest to all. A large attendance should greet our school children and give them encouragement in their patriotic entertainment. All parents and friends are cordially invited to be present. Admittance will be entirely free.

Those onion sets at Knowlton's were grown especially for him by one of the best growers of sets in the Willamette valley.

Died.—At his home near River-ton, Oregon, February 8, 1910, David Mathers, aged seventy-two years, four months, and seven days. He leaves a wife, a young son and two daughters, Mrs. Mary Frances Barrett, and Mrs. Ellen Deitz, to mourn his death. Mr. Mathers was a native of Scotland, and was one of the very early pioneers of Coos county, having lived here since 1864. He was a good man and will be missed by a large number of friends.

"Dora Thorne" next Wednesday night.

Bargains in men's clothing at Robinson's Store.

Flaxon, that new summer dress goods, at Robinson's Store.

Alfred Johnson, Jr., of this city, went to the Bay on business Monday.

Have yet 2 1/2 tons of field peas for sale. Phone 7x6.

White and brown linen for fancy work also brown elony lace to match, at Robinson's.

Rugs, Rugs, all prices from $4.50 to $55.00 at W. C. Laird's.

Ed Roberts, the Myrtle Point real estate man, had business at the county seat on Thursday.

Wanted—Cattle to feed hay. Inquire of Hansen Bros. Fairview.

Capt. George Leneve, who has been on Coos Bay for some time, was in town Wednesday and Thursday, taking the steamer Coquille in the afternoon for his hanch home near Lampa.

Born.—At River-ton, Oregon, February 13th, to Mr. and Mrs. Ward Gage, a daughter.

Remember, the Palm is headquarters for fine homemade candy.

For Sale.—A tract of one and one-half acres well and beautifully located in Coquille, with splendid young orchard, eight-room house, lovely garden, etc. Price right. Inquire at the Herald office.

Make your washing easy by using Washing Tablets at Drane's store.

N. J. Magill who has spent a good share of the winter with the Barker Bro. at Fairview, assisting them in their logging operations, was in town Saturday. He expects to return to his home in Eden valley in March.

New Mattresses—All kinds, at C. M. Goodman & Co's Second Hand Store.

Rev. Dan Shannon, the great revivalist, arrived at Marshfield by the last Plant. The big tabernacle for his use is about completed and a long series of very interesting meetings will be begun soon.

All fall goods must move regardless of price, to give room for spring stock at Robinson's Store.

The steamer Romania which is now on the run of the Breakwater while she is taken to San Francisco for repairs, found the Columbia bar rough on Thursday and was a day or more late in reaching the Bay—it being Saturday when she put in her appearance at Marshfield.

Now is the time to have your windows and doors rescreened. Quick & Curry has the galvanized screening.

We now understand that the report given out last week to the effect that the Fifield sustained damages to one of her propellers while going out over the Coquille bar was entirely wrong. Capt. Jensen would like very much for the one giving out reports to do a little better guessing.

Secure a footing on the road to success by depositing your savings in the Farmer's & Merchant's Bank.

J. F. Schroeder, of this city, met an old friend on Monday morning in the person of Chas. Taylor, a former resident of Coos county and one of the members of the original Myrtle Point brass band, whom he had not seen for eighteen years. He tells Mr. Schroeder that his brother-in-law, Will Reed, also a former resident of Myrtle Point, has a good government position on the Columbia river and is doing well.

For Sale—The well-known registered stallion, "Bruce Wilkes." Will take cattle or sheep in part payment. Z. C. Strang, Gravel Ford.

Sheriff Gage arrived in town Thursday of last week with Chas. Neil, accused of forging checks in this county some weeks ago, and who was later apprehended in Idaho, and while en route to this place gave Sheriff Gage the slip while on the cars near Pendleton, Oregon. Mr. Gage offered a reward of a hundred dollars for Mr. Neil, "Coon Skin Charley's" recapture which was soon accomplished at Pocatello, Idaho. Mr. Gage now claims to have paid the largest price for a coon skin of any man in Oregon.

Look out for seed grain—bald barley, beardless barley, red and white oats, seed corn, vetch, peas, Early Sweet and Beauty of Hebrun potatoes, also the best eating potatoes in town. All to be had at Skeels & Son's.

Healthy Horses and Cattle

are as easy to have as any if you only take a little precaution in having them make the best use of their feed. That simply means feed them a dose of the renowned

RUSSIAN STOCK TONIC

It gives them an appetite, it tones their digestive organs, and every ounce of feed they eat counts. You should try it.

Fuhrman's Pharmacy
COQUILLE, OREGON

Robinson's store are closing out their stock of ladies' tailored suits. Andrew Smalley, of the Arago section, was a Coquille business visitor yesterday.

Full stock of garden, grass and field seed at Knowlton's Drug Store.

A new shipment of Pictorial Review patterns just in at Robinson's Store.

The Iles Co. will appear at the Heazlet next Wednesday night, Feb. 16th, in a dramatization of "Dora Thorne."

We buy every thing that has a value. C. M. Goodman & Co. New and Second Hand Goods.

E. E. Young, late of Eastern Oregon, the expert horseshoer at the shop of S. H. McAdams, invites all who have horses with bad feet to bring them to him. He can fix them if it can be done.

Dutchess and oval embroidery hoops, at Robinson's.

N. Plyler, of this city, went to the Bay Tuesday of last week doing duty as deputy sheriff, serving subpoenas for Sheriff Gage. He returned on Thursday and proceeded to Bandon the same day on a like mission.

For Sale.—Grass and grain hay and fine red oats and barley. Inquire of W. H. Thomas, Coquille.

Mr. Cooper, the Myrtle Point dry goods and grocery merchant, was in Coquille Friday for the purpose of seeing the Aasen Bros. in regard to lumber for the construction of a parsonage for the Presbyterian Church in that city.

Tozier's Celebrated Logger Shoes have won popularity with the woods boys. E. L. Tozier maker, Coquille.

A fine new Fairbanks-Morse gasoline engine was received Saturday by the Coquille Electric Supply Co., and it has been put in position and M. D. Sherrard now has something turning beside the wheels in his head. He has his other machinery set up and the lineshafting in place, and as soon as the engine was installed and connected up he was able to start in on the work, a great lot of which he already has on hand, in fact enough to keep him busy for a month has been promised.

For the latest improved gearing you will find it in the White Lily washing-machine at the Second Hand Store.

Died.—At the McLeod place, six miles below Bandon, February 11, 1910, John McKenzie, the well-known Bandon tailor, who has made that place his home the past three years. The deceased had been drinking heavily since Christmas, and had suffered from tremors for several days. He was taken down to the farm of Mr. McLeod to sober up, and as he became a little ugly was put into a room and left alone, and when the room was next visited it was discovered that he had died. The funeral took place at the Bandon cemetery on Sunday. He is survived by a wife and son, the latter of whom is a graduate from a Portland college this month.

Wanted.—The Overland Monthly wants an energetic capable man or woman in Coquille to act as County Manager in Coos County, to conduct a subscription campaign Good pay, permanent employment, experience unnecessary. References required. Outfit and instructions free. Address immediately, "Circulation Manager" Overland Monthly, 773 Market St., San Francisco, Cal.

HATS - HATS

Now is your Chance for a Hat at

Lyons & Jones

FROM
$1 to $3.50

Buy while you have a chance to Double your Money.

Do You Know

that we carry in stock the most beautiful line of Jewelry and Silverware ever brought to the Coquille Valley, and that our prices are right

Give us a Trial and be Convinced.

BILLY SCHROEDER, COQUILLE, ORE

We Repair	We Do
WATCHES	AGATE GRINDING AND
CLOCKS	POLISHING
JEWELRY	STONE SETTING
COMBS	BARRETT'S
PHONOGRAPHS	RING MAKING
	ENGRAVING

All Work Guaranteed

E. C. Barker & Co.

Call and See Us and Hear the Music.

Aretino Talking Machine FREE with $25.00 cash trade and a cash payment of $2.50 on delivery of machine. One 10-inch record FREE with $10.00 in cash trade. One 10-inch record FREE with $5.00 in cash trade every Saturday. Remember the Aretino record fits all kinds of disc talking machines.

P. E. Drane
DEALER IN

Ladies' and Gents' Furnishings, Fancy and Staple Groceries, Flour and Feed.

BASKET BALL

Myrtle Point-High-School

VS.

Coquille High School

AT MYRTLE POINT FRIDAY

the 18th. Boat leaves at 4:30

Remember, This Game will be Played Friday Night

Round trip not including admission to the game 50c

Watch this Ad. Next Week

HOTEL BAXTER

Centrally and Conveniently Located. Table Supplied with the Best the Market Affords. Sample Rooms for Commercial Men. Transfer of Baggage to and from Boats and Trains.

Recently Newly Furnished Throughout

R. HANSEN
Proprietor and Manager