

LOCAL NEWS.

"The Golden Rule."—C. H. Cleaves.

Dr. Wetmore came down from the Point by Monday morning's train. Look at the new lace curtains at Robinson's.

Albert Sneed was up from the Bear creek section on Monday.

The best onion sets at Knowlton's Drug Store.

M. D. Fales, of Bandon, was up to Coquille on business Monday.

Turban pads, switches and turban hair pins at Robinson's.

Ex-Congressman Binger Hermann, of Roseburg, is recovering from a severe spell of sickness.

Telephone for meat to be delivered at any time from Slagle Bros. Phone No. 21.

For seed peas, Early Heburn and American Wander potatoes, call on Ed Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Roberts, of Myrtle Point, drove down to this city Thursday and enjoyed some short visits with friends here.

You will find early seed potatoes at Drane's store.

There will be services at the St. James Episcopal church Sunday, morning and evening, by Archdeacon Horsfall.

Ladies' silk and kid gloves at The Golden Rule.

Married.—At the home of G. F. Dillon in Marshfield, Oregon, May 2nd, 1910, Mr. Jas. E. Edwards and Miss Emma A. Dillon, Rev. H. I. Rutledge officiating.

For Sale.—White Nile and early peas at 3c per pound. Phone 8x7. Nile Miller.

Married.—In Coquille, Oregon, May 1st, at the South Methodist parsonage, Mr. Lee Roberts and Miss Myrtle Maddox, both of Coquille, Rev. C. H. Cleaves officiating.

See E. N. Smith about those 10-acre tracts close in to Bandon at $40 and $50 per acre on easy terms.

William Candlin, the general agent, went to Bandon Monday, and extended his trip down the coast to interview his many customers down that way.

Another shipment of men's spring suits just in at Robinson's Store.

Married.—At the M. E. Parsonage in Marshfield, Oregon, May 3rd, 1910, Mr. Charles F. Lockwood and Miss Lennie Jensen, Rev. H. I. Rutledge officiating.

Wall paper at Laird's.

E. N. Harry was down from the upper river a day or so last week.

New line of men's neckties just in at Robinson's.

Garden seeds at Knowlton's Drug Store.

R. Pomeroy was up from Lampa one day last week.

Garden, grass and flower seeds at Lyons & Jones.

Capt. O. P. Ellingson, of Parkersburg, had business in Coquille Thursday.

Up-to-date line of men's and boys' suits at Robinson's Store.

S. M. Rowan, of Bandon, was a Coquille visitor on Thursday of last week.

You can always find what you want in shoes at Robinson's Store.

H. H. Brownson, of Bridge, had business before the county court the middle of last week.

White Spray Flour $1.70 per sack at Lyons & Jones.

The schooner Advance sailed from Bandon, lumber laden, for San Francisco on Thursday.

New line of Cluett shirts for spring. Robinson's Store.

James Richardson, of Parkersburg, was a business visitor to Coquille on Thursday.

You can always find the latest in ladies' hair goods at The Golden Rule.

Mrs. G. H. Sigaby, of Arago, made our office a pleasant call while in town Thursday.

Yes, Robinson's Store has their new spring suits for ladies.

Married.—At the home of Mrs. S. J. Tuttle, Coquille, Oregon, May 4th, 1910, Mr. Arthur Jenkins and Miss Beulah Walker, Rev. E. C. Holladay officiating.

For Sale.—A good young team. Inquire at Toziers Harness shop.

Miss Bessie Robinson is on her way from Eureka, California, to take her old place as seamstress in the millinery and dressmaking parlors of Mrs. Berkholder.

Silks, Messalines, Pongees, at The Golden Rule.

The result of the late census enumeration just completed shows Portland to have 220,000 inhabitants. These figures show that our metropolis has more than doubled in population in the past ten years, the census of 1900 giving that city 90,426 persons.

Onion sets at Lyons & Jones.

Rev. C. D. Price was down from Bancroft on Thursday.

Look at the new wash suits for ladies at Robinson's Store.

William McKay, of Bandon was a Coquille visitor on Monday.

That's what they all say, "Slagle Bros. for choice meats."

Fred Nosler was down from Bridge a day or so last week.

Ladies' muslin underwear at The Golden Rule.

The Fifield sailed for San Francisco last Wednesday.

Full stock of garden, grass and field seed at Knowlton's Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snow went to Myrtle Point by Saturday's train.

Rolled barley, shorts, bran, wheat and cracked corn at Robinson's Store.

George Mandigo, the North Bend merchant, was a Coquille visitor on Thursday.

John Golden, of Marshfield, was a Coquille business visitor yesterday.

We are receiving new and fresh groceries by every boat. Robinson's Store.

The steamer Elizabeth arrived in the river on Friday with passengers and freight.

Don't Forget—we have tents on hand for sale. C. M. Goodman & Co.

J. N. Roberts, of Myrtle Point, shook hands with Coquille friends yesterday.

Before you buy see the curtain goods at The Golden Rule.

Attorney R. H. Smith, of this city, had business which called him to Portland the last of the week.

Boys, remember Robinson's Store carries the Cluett Shirts.

Arrangements are being made for the Modern Woodmen of America and Royal Neighbors to give a big show at the Scenic in the near future.

Henry Lorenz has just received a full line of Bergman shoes. Call and see them.

Mrs. Masson, of Myrtle Point, went to Bandon Monday to see Mrs. Pat Hanrahan and return her little boy who has been visiting in Myrtle Point for a week.

If you are looking for ribbon we have a new line. Come in. Robinson's Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Danielson, of Bandon, were in town Thursday. Mr. Danielson returned home while Mrs. D. went to Myrtle Point to visit with her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Panter and many friends.

Just received at Knowlton's Drug Store, a full and complete stock of garden seeds, the best that can be grown.

A great deal of interest was manifested in the scenes in Africa given at the Dime on Saturday night, showing Ex-President Roosevelt in that great country among the big game, etc. The house was crowded to its utmost capacity during each performance.

Oro Marsters, of Myrtle Point, was a passenger to the Bay by yesterday's train.

An entertainment is planned to take place at the home of J. M. Nye next Saturday evening. The guests are to be pioneers of Coos county, who have lived here forty years or more, and the entertainment will be under the auspices of the Ladies' Study Club of Coquille.

Mrs. Aiken has opened up her millinery store in the building formerly occupied by Dr. Endicott, and will keep constantly on hand a choice selection of all the latest styles.

Capt. Robert Johnson, of the Bandon life saving crew, passed through town Saturday in response to a summons to appear at the Bay and give testimony at the investigation into the conduct of the Coos Bay life saving crew at the time of the wreck of the Czarina, which is being conducted by Lieutenant Joyney.

Boys if you want to earn some 4th of July money bring your copper, brass and rubber junk to the Second Hand Store. We pay cash.

The steamer Newport arrived at the Coquille dock last Saturday, coming direct from Portland with a fair cargo of freight. She made the round trip in a week, which is better time than was expected she would make. On this occasion she will extend her trip to Eureka, California, carrying a hold load of coal and 150 head of cattle on deck.

Complete stock of shoes

We have our new spring stock of shoes in. We have chosen the best of the good ones and for style, fit and quality they are in a class by themselves. We have taken particular pains in buying our spring footwear, to get what every careful and fastidious dresser must have:

Style, Fit and Quality

Novelties for the young Men and Women. Comfort and ease for the older ones
Tans, Patents, Gun Metal and Oxfords

$3.50, $4 and $5

It will be a pleasure to show you our stock.

LYONS & JONES

Choice onion sets at Knowlton's Drug Store.

Charles and Louis Heller were down from their North Fork farms on Thursday of last week.

Straw Hats, Straw Hats, Straw Hats, for big, little, old and young Robinson's Store.

N. P. Peterson one of Myrtle Point's prominent business men, returned from a trip to the Bay last Friday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Peterson.

A large assortment of new gingham just arrived at The Golden Rule, including Toile Du Nord and Mercerised Zephyrs.

George E. Peoples, manager of the O. K. Co-operative Creamery at this city, informs us that that institution has just closed the largest run for the month of April it has done for several years, and that receipts of milk are increasing rapidly, with the prospects good for this creamery doing the biggest season's business in its history.

Look! Cluett shirts are the ones to wear, new and up-to-date line, Robinson's Store.

Aasen Bros, the lumbermen, received a very large and powerful donkey for logging by Friday's train. This machine was purchased through the agency of A. B. Daly, of Marshfield, and was manufactured by the Willamette Iron and Steel Works of Portland. The engines are 10x15 and the boiler extra large and it is capable of pulling a very heavy load, having power to pull an inch and quarter steel cable in two. A stump under 3 1/2 feet is not in its way at all.

One of the best lines of trunks, suit cases and telescopes that has ever come to the town will be found at the Second Hand Store on the arrival of the next boat.

The Decoration Day committee met Monday evening and made arrangements for a program. The procession will form at the Masonic Hall at 10 a. m., May, 30th, and parade to the cemetery to decorate the graves. An invitation is given to all fraternal orders in the city to be represented in the procession and all friends outside the city are especially requested to assist in the procession. The program will be published next week.

Insure in the Horticultural Fire Relief, of Salem, Strictly mutual, and save 40 to 50 per cent.
T. A. Walker, Coquille Agent.

H. G. Ploeger, the Myrtle Point merchant, had business which called him to the Bay on Friday.

Ladies' muslin and knit underwear at Robinson's Store.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Mehl were up from Prosper visiting relatives and friends Saturday and Sunday.

Call and examine the full line of Men's and Children's clothing—latest styles—at Henry Lorenz's store.

Al Willard, of Prosper, who has been in failing health for some time, went to Myrtle Point Monday to enter the hospital of Dr. Wetmore at that place. His case seems to be a very serious one of lung trouble.

White Spray Flour makes the best and whitest bread of any flour on the market. Lyons & Jones sell it.

R. E. Shine, who recently returned from a visit with his family at Santa Barbara, California, spent a few days in town the last of the week. Mr. Shine has a warm spot in his heart for Coquille, and we would not be surprised if in time he should become a permanent resident of our city.

Call on Lyons & Jones Saturday and get fresh vegetables for your Sunday dinner.

Mrs. Chas. Curtis, of Marshfield, spent several days in Coquille last week securing signatures of voters to an initiative petition, asking that a vote be taken as to whether or not the state shall appropriate money toward the maintenance of the normal school at Monmouth. She had good success, securing nearly all to whom she presented the petition.

Lost.—A black dog with dark brown spots over eyes and lighter brown nose and feet, answers to name of "Sailor, smooth hair. Lost April 10th between Marshfield and Bandon. Finder report to this office.

Mrs. W. H. Lyons, of this city, while splitting kindling with which to start a fire at her home about five o'clock Saturday afternoon, made a mislick with the ax which she was using, striking the index finger of her left hand, inflicting such a severe wound that it was necessary to amputate the injured member. Accidents of this nature are very deplorable, and particularly in this case, as Mrs. Lyons is an accomplished pianist.

R. S. KNOWLTON, President GEO. A. ROBINSON, V. Pres.
R. H. MAST, Cashier

Farmers and Merchants Bank of Coquille

CAPITAL STOCK $25,000
A Reasonable Share of Your Business Solicited
First Class Safety Deposit Boxes For Rent

Portland and Coos Bay S. S. Line BREAKWATER

Sails From Ainsworth Dock, Portland, Wednesday, May 4th

Sails from Coos Bay Monday May 16th, at 5 p. m.

W. F. MILLER, Agent, Marshfield, Oregon
PAUL L. STERLING, AGENT, COQUILLE, PHONE NO. 18

Valuable Timber Lands For Sale

Cruised Four Million feet by a well known cruiser. Two Million feet of which is Port Orford White Cedar. All located in Coos County, Oregon.

FOR FURTHER PARTICULARS WRITE OR CALL ON E. G. D. HOLDEN COQUILLE, OREGON.

DISINFECT AND BE SAFE

There may be billions upon billions of germs about your premises. With the first warm days of spring they'll become active. It may take but one germ to make some member of your family dangerously ill.

Thorough disinfection now will insure health. We have all the most reliable disinfectants and germicides known to science.

We can advise you what to use if you are in doubt.

Fuhrman's Pharmacy

COQUILLE, OREGON

little house-maid says the new couple needs new furniture

mr. and mrs. new couple:-

we know you thought about it a long time before you did it, or if you haven't yet bought the license, that you are wondering whether or not two can live as cheaply as one.

two times one will come closer to being one if you buy that furniture from us.

yours truly.

W. C. LAIRD

COMPLETE HOUSE FURNISHER