White Spray Flour makes the best and whitest bread of any flour on the market. Lyons & Jones sell it.

All Hite came in from Roseburg one day last week in five and one-half hours with his Automobile. What a pity it is that this cannot be done at all times of the year. With a road over which good time could be made with large and comfortable autos there would be a large number of valley people visit the coast section frequently, and no doubt but it would be a great incentive to newcomers to locate, as we would not be so tightly bottled up as at present.

For Sale.—One lot, neat home of 4 rooms, woodshed and chicken house. Good location. Enquire at Herald Office.

Major L. D. Kinney, the promoter of the Bay Rapid Transit Company, it appears, has left Coos Bay. He is not to be found at North Bend or plat B, and it is stated that he has been away for several days. One report was that he was seen at Myrtle Point, presumably on his way out overland; but at any rate, he is not to be found here, and the general impression is that he has gone away. Dr. Brownlee and Rev. Westwood, both of whom were associated with Kinney in the Rapid Transit deal, are also reported to have left the country.—Coos Bay Times.

Go to Skeels & Son for your Snow Drift flour, Vim flour and De-ment's Best flour. $1.60 per sack. Every sack guaranteed.

The first Gravenstein apples of the season to be shown here were brought to the Chamber of Commerce rooms this morning by A. E. Seaman. They were windfalls from Mr. Seaman's Coos River ranch. They made a nice looking box of apples, and had not been in the Chamber of Commerce room window more than an hour when Mr. Seaman agreed to sell the box for $2. Mr. Seaman says that the Gravenstein crop will not be especially large this year, but that he looks for an average yield. Last year the Gravensteins were scarce.
