Big Union Meeting

The Union revival Meetings began last Thursday night at the Masonic Hall, and interest has grown steadily since. Sunday was a great day, and large crowds were present. Sunday a. m. the singer, Mr. Hadley of Roseburg, sang the words of the 23rd Psalm. It was a splendid rendition, and touched the hearts of all present. Mr. Hadley has a splendid voice, and is training a successful chorus. He has much experience, having studied extensively in the East. Evangelist C. M. Van Marter is a great success. He is fire from the word—"Go." He is earnest and consecrated; not abusive in the least, but preaches a straightforward doctrine of Repentance and Faith. Doubtless, he can say more words in a given time than any other man this side the Atlantic seaboard. Sunday night his sermon was especially great, the subject being "False Refuges." Van's Preaching is thoughtful, interesting and helpful. Come and hear him.

Fish's Box Factory for apple boxes.

Mrs. Frank Burkholder has returned from Portland whither she went for a new stock of millinery which she will proceed to open up in the new First National Bank building.

Fruit boxes of all kinds at Fish's Box Factory.

The proprietors of the Coquille Steam Laundry have started the work on a new building, having concluded that a place for all the work on one floor, including the ice plant, more desirable. The new building will be 36x100 feet, and the walls will be constructed of 2x4, scantling spiked one on top of the other, making a four inch solid wall. This style of wall does not burn like the hollow wall, a fire being much easier to handle in such a structure.

Try the New Catchem Fly Trap. Drane has them on sale, at 15c or two for 25c.

Mayor Quick, of Coquille, went to Marshfield Monday to confer with Mayor Straw, of that city, in regard to the move which is on foot among the cities of the county—in fact these of the entire state—favoring uniformity of city ordinances and laws for the government of incorporated cities and towns, which is certainly a good thing and one that will be followed up. There is to be a conference of all the mayors in the county in a short time when further steps in this direction will be taken.

Apple boxes always on sale at the Fish Box Factory or Skeels' Store.

The sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Oddy who were recently married are becoming pleasantly domiciled in their new homes with their brides. L. W. Oddy, who was married to Miss Sylvia Neita Smith, at Myrtle Creek, Douglas county, on July 26th, of whose wedding a nice mention was made in the Portland Oregonian, accompanied by splendid half-tone engravings of the young couple, now occupy their neat cottage recently erected by Mr. Oddy on Spurgeon Hill, while Willis Oddy who took to himself as a lifelong helpmeet through life, Miss Edie Tension, a few days previously, has purchased the Ed Gillespie place near the academy and is now pleasantly located in his own home. These young men have started life right and their examples of industry and sobriety should be followed by many of our young men.

Ladies if we cannot fit you with a tailored suit from stock, we will take your measure and have one made to order. Robinson's Store.

For County Surveyor.

E. H. Kern, hereby announces himself as a candidate for County Surveyor for Coos County Oregon, subject to the will of the Republican voters of said county at the coming primary. He has been actively engaged in public work for over a quarter of a century, in railroad location and constructive and irrigation and drainage work. If nominated and elected he pledges himself to use his entire ability to construct and maintain better public roads.

You Expect Your Watch to do thus and so for You

But what about your side of the question? Do you give it the attention it deserves?

It isn't as though this watch care would cost you much, because it wouldn't.

Just the other way, in fact—one of the wisest strokes of economy that anyone can practice is to let a competent man take a peep into his or her watch occasionally.

You ask how frequently.

Once a year, anyway—oftener wouldn't hurt.

We are well fixed to look after all your repairing needs.
