The Arab Deputy Game Warden, whose removal from office was requested by the citizens of Josephine county, came up the coast Friday and has enjoyed himself in town several days playing solo, drinking near-beer and demanding, occasionally, of some of the citizens to show their hunting license.

Just at the time when the hills are full of hunters, and more coming in every day, when the Game Department should have the hunting grounds patrolled by competent men, this exponent of the Oregon Game Law comes leisurely up the county road, has a good time in town several days, goes on up the county road to Bandon to confer with Mr. Morgan, and probably discuss and compare the solo players and near-beer of Gold Beach to the solo players and genuine old lager of Bandon.

This efficient game warden is very familiar with the county road, having tramped it repeatedly when a boy, with his father peddling needles and pins and punk jewelry. Is it any wonder that the bonafide citizens of the state are disgusted with the game law, when men who cannot speak the English language and are otherwise wholly incompetent are made executive officers to enforce the law? It is simply an insult to American citizenship to have such an element, clothed with authority, dominate over American citizens that have, by their hard labor and privation, made the country what it is to-day.

There are competent men, good citizens and tax payers of Curry, that would accept the office of Deputy and patrol the hunting grounds while they are infested with the red necktie sporting class, and save the lives of more deer during open season than all the Arabs that ever sold a thimble in Oregon could during the entire year; but such men, for some reason, cannot get the appointment. A strong petition asking the appointment of E. R. Miller was, for some reason best known to the master Warden, turned down. The appointment of other citizens of Curry has been requested but they, likewise, met the same fate.—Gold Beach Globe.

Fire is raging in the Crater Lake National Forest and while there are many scattered conflagrations, the worst fire is at Big Butte, between Medford and Crater Lake. In that section are a number of prominent Portland people who are on automobile trips to the wonderful Crater Lake. Among them are ex-United States Senator and Mrs. Charles W. Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Boise, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Runyon, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jennings, Jr., and W. A. Illidge and his mother. None of these people is in danger, it is believed, for with the exception of the Jennings and Illidges, they can get out in their motors. The Jennings and Illidges, however, had their machine wrecked hauling water for the fires.

Rangers, soldiers, ranchers, laborers and lumbermen are uniting in fighting the flames in the Crater country. This is the most serious of all the fires on the Pacific Coast at present, the next fire of importance being in Northeastern Oregon in the Wallowa country, where 50 soldiers are on the scene. Scores of smaller fires are eating their way through the timber belt, but, fortunately, nearly all the fires are "ground" fires, as distinguished from "crown" fires. The former burn the under growth and small trees, while the latter sweep along the top of the forest, destroying mature timber, and these are generally accompanied by ground fires as well.
