PERKINS' BODY FOUND IN RIVER

Shot Through the Heart. Frank Garrison Indicted by Grand Jury As His Murderer.

Weighted down by two big stones, the body of Roy Perkins was found in the water this morning and Frank Garrison will be held for murder. That Garrison is guilty of a cold blooded murder as ever was committed in the county is no longer in doubt. He deliberately shot Perkins and then towed the body out into the bay and sank it. In fact, the officers have known for several days that Garrison was guilty as he had admitted that he tied rocks to the body and threw it into the bay.

The discovery was made by Donald Charleson, the government engineer, who in company with Ralph Young was starting up Coos river to inspect the work the dredge is doing. Mr. Giles was handling the boat. Up the Coos river channel some distance the body was found. The blue overall coat which Perkins wore was seen by Mr. Charleson and an investigation revealed the fact that it was the body. Mr. Charleson and others in the boat tied a rope to the body and towed it to Marshfield, and when the Coroner and Marshal Carter removed it from the water it was found that two heavy rocks had been attached to the ends of two ropes and these to the body. One rope was around the upper part of the body and the other was around the feet. The murderer had left four or five feet of rope between the body and the rocks so that the body had a chance to rise and float on the water. It was in a shallow place and the tide this morning was low.

The flesh was gone from the head and the face had been eaten away but the clothing was intact. A hurried examination of the body revealed the fact that Perkins had been shot once through the heart, evidently with a 32 calibre bullet. The 32 special which Garrison had is the gun with which he killed the man. A more thorough examination of the body will, of course be made.

The body was found just about where it was thought it would be. Garrison had told Marshal Carter that he had thrown the body overboard and had tied two rocks to it. However, he could not describe just where he dropped the body as it was night and dark when he went out on the water in the boat which he stole. Garrison some days ago wrote a letter to Mayor Straw in which he practically admitted his guilt. The fact that Garrison admitted to Carter that he was guilty and the matter of the letter to Mayor Straw it was deemed advisable to keep quiet until the body could be found.

D. Golden, the Coroner, has taken charge of the remains and will hold an inquest. The case will immediately be presented to the Grand Jury and Garrison will be indicted for murder. There appears to have been no motive for the murder further than that Garrison owed Perkins money and was angry with him and killed him to get him out of the way.

Perkins left Sumner to come to Marshfield on the evening of August 31st. The murder occurred early in the morning of September 1st. Several persons heard three shots at 2 a. m. There were shots, but they were not made by Garrison. He says that he also heard them. He, however, shot just the once. Garrison will now probably confess all of the details of the murder. —Coos Bay Times.

Queues Must Go.

New York, Sept. 16.—The celebration in New York's Chinatown next Saturday of the annual festival of the full moon will have at least one unique feature this year. While the celebration is at its height, China Pah Chow, president of the Chinese public chamber, and other leading Chinese merchants of this city, will cut off their queues and thus sever the last sign of superstition attached to their persons. When Prince Tsai Tao was here several months ago, on his tour around the world, to study army organization and problems, a delegation of Chinese merchants recommended to him that the soldiers should wear no queues and should dress like Europeans. The Prince thought so well of the suggestion that he cut his own off while traveling in Europe.

The Prince has also recommended to the throne that the cutting off of the queues should be uniform throughout the Chinese Empire, and has received a favorable reply from the Prince Regent, who is expected to direct all men and officers to discard the "pig-tails" they have worn from childhood. Now the already queueless members of the Chinese public chamber here insist that the rest of the members of the chamber should no longer carry their unsanitary "tails" behind them. The queues will all go on Saturday next.

The Portland Oregonian says: "The United States won a sweeping victory in the United States Court yesterday when Judge Robert S. Bean ordered the cancellation of patents to 37 timber claims in Linn and Lane counties, owned by Charles A. Smith, the Minneapolis millionaire. The value of the timber recovered to the public domain is said to be $592,000. The case will no doubt be appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court."

Good For Biliousness

"I took two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets last night, I feel fifty per cent. better than I have for weeks, says J. J. Firestone of Allegany, Mich. "They are certainly a fine article for biliousness." For sale by R. S. Knowlton Samples free.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Ore., operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details.

NOTICE

Is hereby given that all dog's running at large without a license tag after Sept. 10, 1910 will be impounded and disposed of according to law.

JOHN HICKAM,
City Marshal.

Wanted—A lot of young hens, white or brown Leghorns preferred.

MAINE IS WON BY DEMOCRATS

Gain Control of Legislature, Also Win Congressmen and Governor.

Portland, Me., Sept. 13.—Late returns received today from yesterday's state election only emphasized the extent of the Democratic victory. The figures showed that besides electing Frederick W. Plaistod, of Augusta, to the Governorship by about 8500 plurality over Governor Bert M. Fernald, of Portland, choosing Congressmen in the Second and Third Districts and a good majority in the Legislature, as indicated by earlier tabulation, the Democrats had carried a whole or part of 13 out of 16 counties for county officers.

Control of the Legislature gives the party the chance to elect a United States Senator and the more important state officers, while Governor Plaistod will have the appointment of several Justices and members of commissioners.

Complete returns give Asher C. Hinds, Republican, a plurality of 734 in the First District. A recount may be held.

Governor Fernald carried but three of the 20 cities in the state. With 21 out of 31 State Senators and 86 out of 151 Representatives, the Democrats control both branches of the Legislature and are within 15 votes of a two-thirds majority in joint convention. The Republicans have elected 63 Representatives. Four districts remain to be heard from. Control of the legislature is of more importance than in some of the other states, under the constitution, a number of the highest state officers are appointed by that body. These are Treasurer, Attorney-General, Secretary and Commissioner of Agriculture.

Among the appointments which rest with the new Governor are as follows:

A Judge of the Kennebec Superior Court, a state commissioner of State Industrial and Labor Statistics, a State Commissioner of Highways and a Warden of the State Prison. All these offices are now filled by Republicans.

The Democratic overturn of yesterday extends even to minor state offices. Today's figures show that the Republicans elected their shrewdly candidates in Aroostook, Franklin and Washington Counties only. In five counties Democratic Sheriffs were reelected; in eight others the Democrats gained the office.

Revised returns shows the election of Asher C. Hinds, Republican, in the First District, by 734; of Daniel J. McGillicuddy Democrat, in the Second, by 2000; of Samuel W. Gould, Democrat, in the Third, by 2200, and Frank E. Guernsey, Republican, in the Fourth, by 300.

With the Legislature captured by the Democrats it probably will mean the resubmission to the people of the vexed prohibitory liquor law and a choice for local option in the sale of intoxicating liquors. The Sturgis act, which has proved so obnoxious to many and was denounced in the Democratic party platform, can be repealed. Certainly the act can be made inoperative by Plaistod withdrawing the present commission and neglecting to appoint their successors.

Such a legislature can also choose a successor to United States Senator Eugene Hale and give Maine her first Democratic Senator since 1863 and New England the first since the selection of William D. Eaton in Connecticut in the late 70s.

Best Treatment a Burn
If for no other reason, Chamberlain's Salve should be kept in every household on account of its great value in the treatment of burns. It allays the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a severe one, heals the parts without leaving a scar. This salve is also unequalled for chapped hands, sore nipples and diseases of the skin. Price, 25 cts. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

A fresh supply of sweet and sour pickles at Robinson's store.

New Road is Opened.

The new road which extends from Allegany to Scottsburg has been completed. Work on this road has been in progress for over a year and the road in places was built with great difficulty. In some places it was necessary to blast through rock. Formerly there was only a trail from the Allegany road across the mountains to Loon Lake and Scottsburg. The trail has been converted into a good wagon road and it makes a short cut out of the Coos Bay country. The owners of the auto line on the Drain route are planning to put two autos on the new road next year. Passengers can be taken from here to Allegany and the new road is the shortest cut to the railroad.

Not only will the new road make a good route out of Coos Bay, but it will be of vast benefit to many ranchers. In the Loon Lake country there is fine farming land, but heretofore it was only reached by a trail and the farmers had no means of getting their produce to market. The road puts all those farms in close touch with the markets and the creameries.

Capt. C. E. Edwards of Allegany, who has long been advocating the construction of the road, is greatly pleased over its completion as it opens up the rich Loon Lake country to Coos Bay. Capt. Edwards is now desirous of having a road built from Loon Lake to Elkton, a distance of eleven miles. This road would reduce the distance between Allegany and Drain to fifty-three miles, thirteen miles less than the Scottsburg road. Residents along the route favor it and will probably vote a tax for its construction and also petition the Douglas county commissioners to make an appropriation for it. —Coos Bay Times.

Why?

From a small beginning the sale and use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has extended to all parts of the United States and to many foreign countries. Why? Because it has proved especially valuable for coughs and colds. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

For County Surveyor.

E. H. Kern, hereby announces himself as a candidate for County Surveyor for Coos County Oregon, subject to the will of the Republican voters of said county at the coming primary. He has been actively engaged in public work for over a quarter of a century, in railroad location and constructive and irrigation and drainage work. If nominated and elected he pledges himself to use his entire ability to construct and maintain better public roads.

Why Druggists Recommend Chamberlain's Colic and Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

Mr. Frank C. Hanrahan, a prominent druggist of Portsmouth, Va., says: "For the past six years I have sold and recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a great remedy and one of the best patent medicines on the market. I handle some others for the same purposes that pay me a larger profit but this remedy is so sure to effect, a cure, and my customers so certain to appreciate my recommending it to him that I give it the preference." For sale by R. S. Knowlton.
