Six People Wed.

With three weddings in one week and the prospect for more. Rev. Thos. Barklow thinks that the fall matrimonial season is opening with a prospect that the regular standard of such events will be attained. The following are the weddings he has reported this week:

On Wednesday evening, the 14th, at the home of the officiating clergyman, Mr. Zeno Gatchell and Miss Eva Lee, were united in marriage in the presence of only a few friends as witnesses. Both of these young people are popular, the groom being a member of the firm of Gatchell Brothers, draymen, and the bride a daughter of M. R. Lee. They will make their home with Mrs. J. B. D. Lee, the bride's grandmother, with whom she has lived since early childhood.

Mr. Emery Goble, brother of Mrs. Bert Davenport, and Miss Francina Knight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Knight of the Catching creek valley were married at the home of the bride's parents on Saturday, the 17th in the presence of friends. The house was prettily decorated and a splendid dinner was served after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Goble will reside in this vicinity for a short time, but expect to make their home elsewhere, probably on California.

Mr. Charles A. Holverstott and Miss Myrtle Irene Benham were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Benham two miles above Fairview on Sunday, the 18th, at noon, in the presence of immediate relatives. Mr. Holverstott has a fine house on his ranch awaiting his bride, where they will begin house-keeping at once.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.
