

LOCAL NEWS.

"The Golden Rule."—C. H. Cleaves. Grass Seeds at Knowlton's Drug Store.

J. P. Tupper went to the Bay Monday.

"Reddisode" cotton bato at The Golden Rule, Mrs. D. Mathers was up from Riverton Monday.

Mrs. Ralph Hunt was here from Empire Monday.

Mrs. D. S. Rouse was up from Riverton yesterday.

J. H. James returned from a trip to the Bay Monday.

William Norris went to Bandon for a trip on Friday.

W. H. Hunt, of Bandon, went to Myrtle Point Monday.

Mayor Quick had business at the Bay, returning Monday morning.

John Donaldson, of Prosper, was a business visitor to Coquille on Monday.

Henry Sengstacken' of Marshfield, was a county seat visitor on Thursday.

A. E. Tyrrell was up from the Randolph Lumber Co's mill the last of the week.

J. H. Shields, of Bandon, was in town Monday on his return from San Francisco.

Fruit boxes of all kinds at Fish' Box Factory.

Hugh Hastings and sister, Miss Maud, were passengers to Bandon by Friday's Dispatch.

Oh that Fly Catchum at Drone's Store Catchum.

Born.—At Brawley, California, September 26, 1910, to Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Nosler, a daughter.

S. E. Appleton was down from the upper river last Wednesday and shook hands with old friends.

Wanted—Two girls at the Coquille Steam Laundry.

Will Anderson, the violinist, returned from Port Orford Friday whither he had been to play for a dance.

Robinson Store has received a new line of Ladies skirts.

Jud Mills was over from the Bay on Friday. He shook hands with a number of old friends while in town.

Best values in school tablets at Knowlton's Drug Store.

The funeral of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, of Bandon, took place at the Fishtrap yesterday.

L. J. Cody, the lumberman, was up from Bandon Friday.

V. L. Arrington, of Myrtle Point, went to Bandon last week to see his new grandson, that of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Hancock, of that place.

After finishing its part of the work of making the fill for the railroad where the Johnson mill trestle was burned out the steam shovel was taken through this place to Marshfield Friday.

J. M. Elwood whom we reported moving to the Bay last week, had leased the dairy farm of Mrs. Jane Gilman near town and will not move to the Bay. Mrs. Gilman and son George, and daughter, Miss Florence, will go to Arizona.

Lyons & Jones have the pure pineapple juice at 25 cents per bottle. A nice cool drink.

Jno. S. Jackson, of the city Restaurant, started on Saturday for Van Couver, Washington, where he goes on a business mission, and will be absent for a shot time, after which it is his purpose to visit the south, going first to southern California and Mexico.

Something new—Kaola at Lyons & Jones. Cheaper and better than lard. 25 cents per can.

Mrs. J. T. Jenkins and daughter, of Bandon, passed through town Thursday en route to Myrtle Point and vicinity to see relatives and friends. They tell us that Mr. Jenkins and son Stanley, are in California, and that if they find a location to suit them the family will probably move down later.

Ten choice Banded Plymouth Rock roosters for sale at one dollar and 50 cents each, 4 at $1.25 each. Must be sold this month. First come first served. J. Quick, Coquille, Ore.

Mark Morris returned yesterday from the Bay where he has been with his mother since her operation. It will be remembered that the old lady suffered the loss of one foot by amputation for gangrene some weeks ago. He reports her getting along nicely, and that the limb is almost healed up, and that she will be able to return home about the last of this week.

Houseling at Laird's. School supplies at Knowlton's Drug Store.

Andrew Smalley was down from Arago on Monday.

William Franzenbach, the sculptor, was in this city Monday.

FOR SALE—Black breasted red games, inquire at this office.

County Clerk James Watson has gone to Portland for a few days.

Get your patterns at The Golden Rule. They are the Standard.

Scarfs in silk and wool all colors for ladies at Roses Cash Store.

Judge Hall came over Monday to look after duties at the county seat.

J. P. Tupper was a passenger to the Bay by Saturday's morning train.

Fruit jars at Laird's, the House Furnisher.

Robert Wagner, of Bandon, returned Thursday from a business trip to Portland.

Beautiful scarfs in the latest designs at Robinson's.

W. B. Anderson, of the Myrtle Point section, was a Coquille visitor on Monday.

Fish's box factory or Skeels' store or apple boxes.

W. O. Cooper, the Myrtle Point merchant, passed through this city en route home from the Bay on Friday.

Ask to see the silk waist pattern at Robinson's.

A number of large flight of geese are passing over, which reminds us that the raining season is drawing near.

New silks of every description at The White House.

James Hervey had business at the County seat yesterday. He reports everything nicely at Gravel Ford.

Fall millinery now on display at The White House.

Mrs. A. J. Lamb, of this city, who has been visiting at her old home at Medford, is expected home in a few days.

Everything in the line of groceries at Drains Store.

Al Hite got in from Roseburg Saturday with his automobile, and on Sunday had a breakdown near the McAdams place.

Up-to-date assortments of allover lace at Robinson's.

Miss Gertrude Miller, the stenographer, returned to Marshfield Friday after a visit of a few days with relatives and friends.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Lane is quite ill, and Mr. Lane is on his way from Gardiner, where he has been working for some time.

W. S. Jess returned from North Bend yesterday and reports his wife as getting along nicely, and that she will be able to return home the last of the week.

For Sale.—Thoroughbred Shropshire rams. Address C. H. Nosler & Son, Bridge, Oregon.

Miss Jeanett Dollar, a niece of D. H. Dollar of this city, arrived from Portland Thursday to be with Mrs. Dollar who has been quite ill for several days, but who is improving at present.

Gentlemen, do you want a new tie? Robinson's Store is the place to find the stock to select from.

J. B. Davis was down from Norway a day or so last week. The old gentleman returned recently from a trip to Portland and Salem, attending the state fair at the latter place, which he reported very good.

For Sale.—Registered Jersey bull, three year old—$50. Inquire of Fred Lowry, Coquille, Or.

H. T. Smith, wife and son, of Bandon, made Coquille a visit the latter part of the week to acquaint themselves with this city and its locality, with which they were highly pleased. Mr. Smith made our sanctum a friendly business call while in town.

Wanted—Men and women to have clothes cleaned, pressed and repaired. Stagle the tailor.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Peterson, of Riverton, passed through this city last week, the former on his way to Eureka, California, whether he goes to consult with the owners of the coal mine, of which he is at present manager. Mrs. Peterson goes to Edgewood, California, where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Parce, formerly of Riverton, who have been located at that place the past four or five years.

Prepare—the time is here. Robinson's Store has opened up their rubber and aquapelle goods. Get your size while the stock is complete.

If you want photographs call at Deans' Studio.

W. B. Neathery and family have moved to Arago.

Fancy work Materials at The White House.

G. C. Welch, of Lampa, was a Coquille business visitor yesterday.

Amos Corson was up from Bandon Monday and extended his visit to Myrtle Point.

Pat Rooney came over from the Bay Monday and proceeded to Bandon for a visit.

For Sale—A complete 6 1/2 X 8 1/2 view camera. Good as new. Call at Deans' Studio.

Some of Robinson's fall dress goods have arrived.

Mrs. V. R. Wilson and children started for Haywards, California, on Sunday on an extended visit.

Look at the New overcoats for men at Robinson's.

The steamers Fifield, Elizabeth and Washcalore, and the schooner Ruby sailed from Bandon Friday.

Albert Barklow was down from Myrtle Point Monday.

W. W. Faust was over from Coaledo Monday. He was accompanied by E. B. McLeod, a stepson, from Hoquiam, Washington, who is down to see his mother.

Long and short white kimonos just in at Robinson's.

The ferry boat at this city was found swamped on Friday morning, and the people over the river was made to realize the convenience of the ferry, as well as to emphasize the greater convenience that a good bridge would be.

First Class photographs made at Deans' studio. Old Tollman stand Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dreishbach, of San Francisco, who had been visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lundy, of Myrtle Point, started for their home last week. They were accompanied to Bandon by Mr. and Mrs. Lundy.

For a good second-hand Singer sewing machine, call at the Herald office.

L. E. Tetter was in from Fairview one day last week and was offering for sale a very fine bear hide. With the assistance of Mr. C. O. Crosby's varmint dogs he had succeeded in capturing a large bear in that vicinity, the coat of fur of which was very nice.

Have you tried a pair of those Newport hose? 25c a pair at Lyons & Jones'.

Carl Walker who is recovering from a hurt while braking on the S. P. at Drain, and who had an attack of typhoid afterward, was here yesterday for a visit with his folks and friends. He is still weak but expects to be able to return to work in a week or so.

You can get pictures in any finish of style at Deans' Studio. All work guaranteed.

William Franzenbach, the sculptor, has the foundation laid at Bandon for a new shop and headquarters. Mr. Franzenbach is a first-class workman in concrete as well as in marble and granite, and will figure with you on foundations or any work in that line you may require.

Orchestra music furnished for all occasions. For terms see E. D. Busby at O. K. Barbershop.

The Bandon Recorder is keeping pace with the general growth and forward movement of the lower river by increasing its issue by coming out as a semi-weekly. This is showing the true spirit of the enterprise of the town and its efforts will be appreciated by its many readers and patrons.

S. L. Lafferty will deliver good dry wood in Coquille for $1.75 per tier Phone 111 Farmers exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Radabaugh, of West Milton, Ohio, who had been here several weeks visiting their cousins, Joe, Andrew and Henry Radabaugh, started for their home last Wednesday. They go by way of California, in which state they will visit a week or so.

If you want summer goods, now is the time to get them. G. A. Robinson's fall goods are arriving and he has to make room for them.

Mrs. Joe Bledsoe, of this city, went to Myrtle Point Friday afternoon to catch the auto stage for Roseburg on her way to San Francisco, where she will join her husband who has been in that city for a month past, after which they will visit Mexico for a short time It will be several weeks before they return.

Methodist Episcopal Church

Autumnal Day, next Sunday Oct. 16. All Day.

The First Quarterly Conference and meeting Oct. 22 and 23. The new District Superintendent will preach Sunday morning the 23rd. Installation of League Officers Oct. 23rd.

Married by the Pastor at the Wickham Hotel Monday the 10th, Mr. Vivian Sanford and Miss Minnie Myers. A number of friends of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony.

The Methodist Episcopal marriage ceremony is both beautiful and solemn.

At the Autumnal service next Sunday in the morning the pastor will preach on the subject A Basket of Summer Fruit.

There will be other features such as special music, The Presentation of Promotion certificate from Cradle Roll to Beginners Department. One or two recitations by some children.

A pretty and permanent souvenir of the day to each one present.

At night there will also be a most interesting service. Mrs. Bandon, Miss Ullmann, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Mace and others will take part.

This is the great meet. You are invited.

My stranger friend, come and meet with us that day.

If the Pastor can be of any service in anyway come and see him. He is here to help.

The babies of our Cradle Roll are invited to service next Sunday something for each of them. What could we do without the babies.

E. SUTTON MACE, PASTOR.

DIED.

In Coquille, Oregon, October 10, 1910, Mrs. J. F. Schroeder, of paralysis, at the age of 66 years. 11 months 25 days Obituary next week.

Grandma Tenneson who has been ill for some time remains very low.

First-Class Service.

AT THE Skookum Restaurant,

C. A. HARRINGTON, Proprietor. We Make Rates to regular Boarders. Special Attention Given to Commercial Men

NEW FALL GOODS

Our fall line of Gents Shoes are arriving on every boat and the Ladies line will be in in a few days.

We are sole agents for the Florsheim Shoes for Men and the Utz and Dunn shoes for the Ladies. These two lines will give us the strongest shoe line in the county.

Dry Goods and Groceries ..Flour and Feed..

Give us a trial order and we will do our best to please you.

LYONS & JONES

Phone 251.

Second Street, Coquille

THE Notley Addition IS NOW On The Market

Lying Just East of the School House and is the Finest Addition ever platted

$ 5 0

PER LOT AND UP

GOOD TERMS B. FOLSOM COQUILLE, OREGON

J. H. OERDING

MANUFACTURER AND DEALER IN LUMBER, LATHS, SHINGLES MOULDING, CEMENT BRICKS AND BLOCKS, SAND AND GRRVEL. COQUILLE, - - OREGON