Fishtrap and Vicinity.

Fishtrap, October 3, 1910
Mr. William Hickam and family from Missouri are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tex Robison. Rev. Mr. Lyon returned home from conference one day last week. He brought with him from Roseburg Grandma Henninger, who has been visiting her son at Oakland, Oregon, for the past three months, and Mrs. McCausland, wife of ex-President Elder McCausland, who is here in the interest of the Home Mission work. Mr. Lyon has been assigned the same charge for another year, and will occupy the pulpit in the Fishtrap church one Sunday in each month. We are pleased to have you with us for another year, Mr. Lyon.

Mrs. Bert Fish went to Prosper one day last week to stay a few days with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Smith, whose baby is very ill.

We were pleased to learn that butter made in Coos county took first premium at the Oregon State fair, and more pleased to learn that it was made in the Coquille valley, and still more pleased to know that it was made at Norway, where Fishtrap contributes a large amount of cream to its making.

Mr. Riebe, of Marshfield, met with the farmers at the schoolhouse recently and made them a very interesting talk on the co-operative store question.

George Henninger returned lately from a trip in the valley, where he went to look after his ranch at Canby, Oregon. He also made a business trip to the metropolis.

Threshing is all done in this vicinity and the farmers are all well pleased with the weather.

The dairyman are all wearing broad smiles to see the rain.

Mrs. John Hale has been somewhat indisposed the past week.

Elton Stephens will leave for Portland by the Breakwater Saturday, the fifteenth, where he will resume his studies at the Behrke Walker Business College.

Geo. Henninger has been somewhat under the weather, since his return from the Willamette valley but is feeling some better at the present.

JOHN DOE.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Ore., operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details.

Fresh Fish.

For a nice fresh Salmon, right from the river, call at the Ferry. They are to be had each morning. Ed. McADAMS.

Jack Blanton in Paris Appeal: The reason that parable dealt with a prodigal son instead of a prodigal daughter, Josia, was probably due to the fact that it would not have been true to life had it been otherwise. No matter how deep in sin the young man goes—no matter how many girls he may debauch, how many hearts he may break, how many gray heads he may bring in sorrow to the grave—an enthusiastic welcome awaits him in his home, in his church and in his community when he comes back. It is not so with the prodigal daughter. She may have gone out but a few steps into sin—may have been beguiled into the wrong path by some crafty devil who took advantage of her innocence or inexperience, or may have gone astray because there was more of hell than of heaven in her home—but no matter what the circumstances, no matter how quickly repentance may come nor how sincere it may be, there is no bringing forth of rich robes, no slaughter of the fatted calf, no rejoicing or making merry when she comes home. It has ever been thus. It will continue to be so until Christians people emulate the example of the Master who was so courteous and tender with erring women. He reclaimed them every time. His followers drive them to lives behind closed curtains by denying them sympathy, society and helping hands. The demoralization they are working in towns and cities should arouse us to a saner way—the Christ way—of winning them back to a right path.—Oakdale (Cal.) Graphic.
