WHAT GOVERNOR-ELECT WEST SAID

Oregon's Newly Elected Governor Makes Some Plain, Terse Statements.

Oswald West, Oregon's Governor-elect, upon receiving the news of his election, said in part: My election is not a personal victory for me, but a triumph of the direct primary. Statement One and rule by the people. Thousands of Republican votes were given to me on this issue and as a protest against assemblyism. Along with my public record, I made opposition to the assembly and to corporation domination in politics, the chief issues in my campaign. The indorsement that the people have given me is their seal of approval of things I stood and stand for. I thank them and all my friends for it, and assure them that so far as in my power lies they will not have cause to regret the choice they have made.

Oregon is a splendid commonwealth. Its system of government is an inspiration to the country, and one of the state's greatest public assets. To overthrow or mutilate that system would, in my judgment, be a crime, not only against Oregon and its people, but against the people of the whole country. It is a system that is progress, that is government by conscience in public affairs, and that should stand unharmed and unchanged.

As governor, I shall not be the representative to any class, faction or clique, but shall be the public servant and active agent of all the people, and shall, in co-operation with all our citizens, work for a developed, a greater, and a united Oregon.

Coaster has Narrow Escape.

In crossing the Rogue River bay last Friday, with a number of passengers on board, the Coaster had a narrow escape from being wrecked. A heavy swell was running and she grounded on the roughest part of the bar, where she was swept by five heavy seas before she finally floated off. A logger from Coos Bay named Tom Williams, who had been fishing on Rogue River this fall, had his leg broken and badly smashed by a tierce of salmon falling on it. He was not suffering greatly when the boat reached this port and was taken on to Coos Bay for medical treatment. James Crew, Mrs. Strahn and a gentleman whose name we did not learn, landed at this place which was the former's destination but the latter had a sufficiency of the briny deep for one time and preferred to take the stage north.—Tribune.

An apple grower in the Hood River district hauled 135 boxes of fancy Spitzenburg apples from his orchard into that town recently, the total weight being 6750 pounds. Two horses only were required to transport the load seven miles from the farm to warehouse, which is an indication that the highways in that famous valley are as good as anywhere and in keeping with the wonderful excellence for the fruit there produced.—Homestead.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets do not sicken or gripe, and may be taken with perfect safety by the most delicate woman or the youngest child. The old and feeble will also find them a most suitable remedy for aiding and strengthening their weakened digestion and for regulating the bowels. For sale by all dealers.

It takes a smart man to wait patiently for dinner when the hour comes. His wife can wait for him a month of Sundays; but if she is not right on the tick when he comes in, there will be trouble right along. Most things have two sides to them. Isn't this one of them?

Gentlemen, do you want a new tie? Robinson's Store is the place to tie the stock to select from.

New York Democratic.

New York, Nov. 9.—With 166 districts missing, Dix, Democrat, for governor, 229,078, and Stimson, Republican, 194,618, Dix's plurality in the entire state will be about 67,000. Dix carried the entire ticket with him.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 9.—John K. Tener, republican, won for governor by 25,000.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 9.—Eugene Foss, democrat, won for governor by 25,000.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 9.—B. W. Hooper, republican and fusionist, won for governor by 15,000.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 9.—The democrats claim the election of the whole state ticket from Governor Harmon down.

Editor Marsters and the Arab.

What better evidence does any one want to convince them that the Master Game Warden and his traveling deputies are standing in with the class of people as the Brownville gang just convicted and fined in Justice Miller's court for violating the game law? This crowd has been in the hills all summer as have other just such crowds, killing does and fawns and was never molested by either Morgan or the Arab. The latter while here last summer was told of several parties in the hills who were violating the law, but not a step did he take to apprehend them, but has put in his time between Gold Beach and Grants Pass via Crescent City, inquiring of the settlers along the road if any of their neighbors had killed a deer without license. Curry's portion of the state tax has increased almost if not one half more than it was before the enactment of the game law. Where does it go? Why to pay the Master Game Warden incompetent deputies, to harass the settlers and protect such men as the crowd, as they lazily lay around camp and smoke the hams of little fawns.—Globe.

The Pacific Monthly's Special Introductory Offer

The Pacific Monthly, of Portland, Oregon, is a beautifully illustrated, monthly magazine which gives very full information about the resources and opportunities of the country lying West of the Rockies. It tells all about the Government Reclamation Projects, free Government land and tells about the district adapted in fruit raising, dairying, poultry raising, etc. It has splendid stories by Jack London and other noted authors.

The price is $1.50 a year, but to introduce it we will send six months for fifty cents. This offer must be accepted on or before the February 1, 1911. Send your name and address accompanied by fifty cents in stamps and learn all about Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and California. Address, The Pacific Monthly, Portland Oregon.

When in Bandon recently Dick Buell got some samples of brick made there by B. L. Tracy, a brother of W. A. Tracy of this city. The samples show a firm, hard quality of brick and those who have examined them declare that they are very much better for any purpose than the brick that have been shipped up, from San Francisco. If this is true, the people here should assuredly patronize the Bandon yards, serving two purposes by getting good brick and supporting a local industry.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

"I do not believe there is any other medicine so good as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. Francis Turpin, Junction City, Ore. This remedy is also unsurpassed for colds and croup. For sale by all dealers.

Be thankful every day; don't pick your gratitude all on to one day. The man who is thankful only when the Governor says he must never is very thankful any day.

BIG VICTORY FOR PORT OF COOS BAY

Citizens Highly Gratified Over the Large Majority Given at Tuesday's Election.

The decisive majority by which the Port of Coos Bay won out in yesterday's election is the cause of much rejoicing today on the Bay. While all the figures are not exactly obtainable, the indications are that the Bennett amendment was defeated by about two to one while the $300,000 bonding proposition carried by about five to one.

While nearly everyone was certain that the port question would carry as it did, much interest centered in the size of the majority. In consequence of it being large enough to be thoroughly decisive, everyone is satisfied.

Messrs. L. J. Simpson and C. S. Winsor of North Bend, the two new commissioners who fill the places of W. P. Evans and J. C. Gray, will take office the first of the year.

As soon as the supreme court disposes of the pending litigation, which the Port Commission is confident will be to uphold the lower court, arrangements for disposing of the amount of bonds to carry out the present projects will be made.

The dredge Oregon is today arranging to start work in the Lone Tree shoal between the mouths of Pony Inlet and North Inlet.

E. Mingus—The election results on the Port election measures is a splendid pronouncement made on behalf of the principles of progressive development and a fitting rebuke to personal spite and freezing policies.—Coos Bay Times.

"I am pleased to recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as the best thing I know of and safest remedy for coughs, cold and bronchial trouble," writes Mrs. L. B. Arnold of Denver, Colo. "We have used it repeatedly and it has never failed to give relief." For sale by all dealers.

Missouri claims that her hens lay more eggs than those of any other state and tries to prove it by showing that 114 counties of the state produced and sold $45,002,655 worth of poultry, eggs, and feathers during 1909. This causes editorial comment by one of the largest city dailies as follows: "The good prices paid for poultry products at the time of the world's fair caused the farmers to realize the profits in this line of farming, and since then the value of chickens, poultry, eggs, and feathers has more than tripped. More attention has been paid to the raising of poultry all over the country and statistics on this feature of farming would probably show that in nearly any of the states farmers have devoted more time to it.—Homestead.

Nate Moore, one of upper Chetco's prominent stockmen, brought to town last week, ten panther skins and secured the bounty on them. Aside from these ten panthers Mr. Moore killed twenty-four bears since August. This is a fair sample of what stockmen in the mountains have to contend with, in order to protect their flock.—Gold Beach Globe.

With the present prices of beef, which all authorities agree can not be lowered, the production of fat cattle on farms where the work has long been forgotten will be found profitable.

For pains in the side or chest dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Liniment and bind it over the seat of pain. There is nothing better. For sale by all dealers.

Quick & Curry make the galvanized screen door; standard sizes on hand; special sizes made in short order. Also handy, adjustable window screens, ironing boards, sleeve boards, bread boards, drain boards and meat safes.

For sale—Black breasted red games, inquire at this office.

What the World Gets from the Farm.

When the world wants good cows, horses, sheep, hens and hogs it sends out to the farm and gets them.

When it wants good things to eat it writes a letter to the farmers and is never disappointed in getting just what it orders.

When it wants the choicest fruits our farms have it. If fruit is not plentiful in the East; there is the great West to draw from.

When it is looking for homes for the thousands in other lands who never knew what home really is, it sends to this great country of ours.

When the world feels the need of men to do great things, it reaches out its hand to the farm, and says: "You have just the ones we want. Send them to us! It is a time of sore stress; do not fail us!"

And from the farms a steady stream of men goes to answer the call. You find them in the offices, in the factories, in the stores of the great cities. They are doing much of the world's work today, and they will always be doing it; or the farm grows just that kind of men.

The world gets its best from the farm; and there is a plenty left. Let's be thankful for that!—From November Farm Journal.

So far, a news item states, 48 places have been selected at which postal savings banks will be opened one in each state and territory. The town selected in Oregon is Klamath Falls; in Washington, Olympia; in Idaho, Coeur d'Alene and in California, Oroville. It is to be expected that the system will be put into operation in these places next January. It is supposed that these are only the beginning, and that later postal saving banks will be provided in every county and perhaps in most towns. That is what the people desire and expect. Not all the bankers are opposed to them. The National City bank of New York, in its November circular says: "It is within the probabilities that a large accumulation of postal deposits may obviate the necessity for an issue of Panama bonds. If this should prove to be the case, one of the most serious complications of recent times, so far as the government bond situation is concerned, will have been solved."—Portland Journal.

Washington, Nov. 8.—No more re-enumerations of populations will be made in connection with the thirteenth census unless on account of fraud. This announcement was made today by Director Durand, of the Census Bureau. He was speaking of the demand of Baltimore for a recount, but the statement was made as of general as well as of special application.

Charleston, Nov. 10.—President Taft sailed today for the Isthmus of Panama to get in personal touch with conditions on the big canal. He sailed on the cruiser Tennessee with the cruiser Montana as a convoy. He expects to be back in Charleston Nov. 22.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Ore., operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details.

Ten-minutes walk from Mill, Store and Schoolhouse. These acres are to be had at a very low figure, if sold soon.
