TEN MILLIONS FOR PEACE

Andrew Carnegie Gives that Sum for the Permanent Establishment of Peace.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Andrew Carnegie today donated $10,000,000 in five per cent bonds to the new Peace Foundation and the income derived will be used to effect international peace. President Taft was made honorary president of the foundation and Senator Elihu Root active president. The foundation will make perpetual disposition annually of $500,000 for the purposes of peace. Should the aims of the foundation be successful, the funds are then to be devoted to the abolition of "The next most degrading evil of evils."

In the deed of trust Carnegie says: "Although we no longer eat our fellow men, sack cities and kill their inhabitants, we still kill each other in war, like barbarians. Only wild beasts are excusable in doing that in this, the twentieth century of the Christian era, for the crime of war is inherent, since it decides not in favor of the right, but always in favor of the strong. That nation is criminal which refuses arbitration and drives its adversary; it is a criminal nation that knows nothing of righteous judgment."

"I believe the shortest and easiest path to peace lies in adopting President Taft's platform, put before the peace arbitration society, March 22, 1910."

"I have noticed," continues Carnegie in the deed, "exceptions to our arbitration treaty as to the referencences of questions of national honor to courts of arbitration. Personally, I do not see any more reason why matters of national honor should not be referred to a court of arbitration than matters of property. I know this is going farther than most men are willing to go, but I do not see why questions of honor should not be submitted to a tribunal composed of men of honor and their decision stand as well as in other questions of difference among nations. Honor is the most dishonored word in our language. No man ever touches another's honor and no nation ever dishonored another. All honor's wounds are self-inflicted."

The trustees named by Carnegie are Elihu Root, Nicholas Murray Butler, Henry Pritchett, president of the Carnegie foundation for the advancement of teaching; Joseph Choate, Albert K. Smilay, an educator; former President Elliot of Harvard; James Brown Scott, solicitor for the state department; John W. Foster, former secretary of state; former Governor Montague of Virginia; Congressman Howard of Georgia; Judge Thomas Burke of Seattle; Congressman Slayden of Texas; Andrew D. White, former ambassador to Germany; Robert Brookins of St. Louis; Samuel Mather of Cleveland; J. G. Schmidlapp of Cincinnati; Arthur W. Foster, regent of the University of California; R. A. Franks of Hoboken, N. J.; Charlemagne Tower, Oscar Straus, Austin Fox of New York; John Cadwalader, an attorney of New York; John Sharp Williams of Mississippi; T. L. Taylor, chairman of the Carnegie Hero commission, and George W. Perkins of New York.

Church of Christ.

The Bible School had an enjoyable program Christmas eve. Santa Claus was present and helped much in the good cheer. Evangelist Williams and wife, together with his singer, Miss Roy, will begin a series of meetings at the Christian Church, Sunday. Come and enjoy these services. It will be a liberal education in bible knowledge.

A little boy in town was given the stunt by his father to write an essay on Editors, and here is the result: "I don't know how newspapers come to be in the world. I don't think God does for he haint got nothing to say about them in the Bible. I think the editor is one of the missing links you read of and stayed in the business until after the flood; and then come out and wrote the thing up and has been here ever since. I don't think he ever dies, I never saw a dead one and never heard of one getting licked. Our paper is a mighty good one; but the editor goes without underclothes all winter and don't wear any socks and pa ain't paid his subscription since the paper started. I ast pa if that was why the editor had to suck the juice out of snowballs in winter and go to bed when he had his shirt washed in the summer. And then paw took me out in the woodshed and he licked me awful hard. If the editor makes a mistake folks say he ought to be hung and if a doctor makes a mistake he buries them and people dassent say nothing because doctors can read and write latin. When the editor makes a mistake there is lawsuits and a doctor makes one there is a funeral. Only flowers and perfect silence. A doctor can use a word a yard long without him or anybody else knowing what it means; but if the editor uses one he has to spell it. If the doctor goes to see another man's wife he charges for the visit; but if the editor goes he gets a charge of buckshot.—Ex.

Died.

At Grants Pass, Oregon, Dec. 15th, 1910, C. R. Hammond, age about 70 years.

Deceased formerly lived near Bridge, this county, but left here about twelve years ago, going to Josephine County where he since resided.

He leaves a wife and six children. His children are as follows: Alva and Loren of Grants Pass; Warren, of Harrington, Washington; Mrs. John Williams, of Bayfield, Colorado; Mrs. Richard Stubbs, of Roseburg, Oregon and Mrs. Joseph Williams, of Myrtle Point, Oregon.

Mr. Hammond had been in poor health for the past year, but heart failure was the immediate cause of his death.

Mr. Hammond was an honorable and upright citizen and his loss will be felt by all that knew him.

Mr. Williams left Myrtle Point December 9th, to be at her father's bedside.

F. T. Crewe the cigar man, returned from a business trip to San Francisco by the last Elizabeth, having gone to confer with his son, Clifford Crewe, who is preparing to take charge of a large cigar factory in Salt Lake, upon which they have had an option for some time. Mr. Crewe was accompanied home by another son, Ed Crewe, who had been in California some weeks for his health.

Have you tried a pair of those Newport hose? 25c a pair at Lyons & Jones.

S. M. Nosler is again agent for the old reliable De Laval Separators. Sample machine and extra parts always on hand. Call in and see the new improvements on them.

Quick & Curry make the galvanized screen door; standard sizes on hand; special sizes made in short order. Also handy, adjustable window screens, ironing boards, sleeve boards, bread boards, drain boards and meat safes.

A late letter from T. W. Shuck who recently left here with his family and also his parents, informs us that they have located for the present at Pomona, California. He also reports all very well, though he has been indisposed most all the time since they arrived there.

When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.
