The Fishtrap boys came home from the ball game at Norway Sunday feeling pretty blue, the game going 7 to 2 in favor of Norway.

The game before went 8 to 2 in favor of Fishtrap. The Fishtrap boys are still game and say wait till after the next game.

E. A. Wimer is feeling considerably better at present and has been out driving some.

(Too late for last week.)

"April showers bring forth May flowers." Yes, and plenty of weeds too.

E. A. Wimer went to Coquille Saturday to consult a physician in regard to his health, and hasn't been able to return home yet.

Married, at the home of the bride's parents on Thursday, April 6, Mr. Andrew Patrick and Miss Mary Cornwell, Rev. Thomas Barklow officiating.

The weather was not suitable for the Fishtrap boys to wallop Norway, so the ball game was postponed till next Sunday, when they expect to do the job up right.

There will be Sunday school next Sunday at the Fishtrap church at 10 a. m. and preaching at the usual hour.

The baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Halter died at 6 p. m. Monday. The funeral sermon will be preached at the Fishtrap church Tuesday at 11 a. m. and the remains will be taken to Fairview for burial Thursday morning.

The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their affliction, and may they take comfort in knowing that the darling of their hearts is now safe in the arms of Jesus, where there can be no more sickness or sorrow, and all is peace and joy forever. God has seen fit to take away the one ewe lamb of their little flock, but may He send a comforter instead to occupy the vacancy in their hearts, that they may be able to say, "Thy will be done."

CARD OF THANKS.

The undersigned wish to extend their heartfelt thanks to their many friends who donated flowers, the choir who sang, and especially those who furnished automobiles, the G. A. R., and the people of Coquille city for their kindness and sympathy during their recent bereavement.
