DREDGE OREGON COMING HERE IN JUNE

Guy C. Lattin who has managed the pipe line for the dredge Oregon most of the time during her operations on Coos Bay, passed through Tuesday on way to the lower river where he will make preparations for the work there. The dredge will be brought around to the river the first of June and will begin work near Cody's mill where a bulkhead has been driven and preparations begun for her work. The shoal where she is to begin is about 3000 feet in length, and according to the estimate of the engineers, the removal of something like 75,000 yards of sand will be required to put the channel in the form desired.

It has been ascertained beyond a doubt that there are a great many sunken logs in the shoals to be dredged and the snag boat is now there held in readiness to take care of the obstacles of this nature as the sand is removed efficiently from them.

It is the purpose of the management to keep the dredge on the Coquille during the summer months which will exhaust appropriation for that purpose, and before the winter storms come she will be returned to Coos Bay where a sufficient fund is available to keep her going for a year.

New York, May 6.—"I have been all around your stores 20 times and have found two girls in them that would give me a smile," said Miss Marine Rasmussen of San Francisco, discussing her impressions of New York.

"A Pacific Coast girl," she continued, "when she walks or drives looks around, and if she sees anything funny she smiles."

Miss Rasmussen, selected by Harrison Fisher from thousands of applications as the new American beauty, has been in New York two weeks. She has nothing but praise for the grandeur of the west. "I think New York women are beautiful," she said, "but why don't their faces wake up once in a while? When you see them in carriages or walking on Fifth Avenue, or behind the counter in a department store they all look as if they were in a coma in the morning and never moved a muscle till they got to bed at night. There is no use in being like a plaster cast when you are a human being."

New York, May 10.—Perhaps the most unusual document ever presented to the Interstate Commerce Commission, according to Special Examiner Mackley, who is conducting the hearing in the rate discrimination cases brought by the Alpha Cement Company, is a chart submitted by the company's counsel in an effort to show the vast influence exerted by the United States Steel Corporation and J. P. Morgan & Co. in the railroad and industrial affairs of the Nation.

The chart purports to show that the total capitalization of the companies and corporations on whose boards the steel directors and J. P. Morgan & Co. partners appear amounts to $15,857,629,339. The chart also shows that the total gross income of the companies is $4,640,508,502.

The names of 25 men of wealth are given in the list. Opposite each name is the total amount of the capital of the companies of which he is a director. In order to avoid duplications, suitable reductions were made in cases where more than one member of the group of 25 appeared on any single directorate.

Portland, Or., May 10.—Lafayette F. Grover, fourth Governor of Oregon, died in his home, 717 Irving street, this morning, a few minutes after he had come downstairs in apparent health to breakfast. The venerable statesman and business man passed away at the age of 88 years and six months.

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You will find Chamberlain's Liniment wonderfully effective. One application will convince you of its merits. Try it. For sale by all dealers.

BANDON MARSHALL HAS EXCITING TIME WITH THIEF

An exciting time was experienced last night by Marshal Holman and Deputy Sheriff Blackerby in chasing a young fellow by the name of Dedman, who had broken into the Woolen Mill, the old Shingle Mill and Bingham's Store Wednesday night, and had taken a number of articles which he had hidden under a boat near the old shingle mill. The robber had taken a paint brush from Philpott's paint shop and the paint having dripped on to the plank walk served as a trail by which the stolen goods were found. Marshal Holman and Mr. Blackerby were then on the lookout for the thief with the intention of getting him last night, as it was thought he would probably be after the goods after dark; however, he came about 7:00 o'clock in the evening before they were expecting him. Marshal Holman saw some one coming but supposed it was Mr. Blackerby until he found himself face to face with Dedman who had a chisel in his hand which Holman grabbed, and then Dedman stuck a gun in his face; this Holman also grabbed and then the tussle began until the men came to the edge of the wharf, where Dedman jumped off. Holman then pulled his gun and ordered Dedman to stop, but that gentleman kept right on going; Holman then fired, the first time rather to scare him; and then fired two more shots at his legs, neither of which took effect. Dedman kept on running until he got into the woods and may be at Roseburg by this time. Marshal Holman says he had every opportunity to kill Dedman, but did not feel justified in doing so under the circumstances, in which belief he will not doubt be supported by all cool-headed thinkers, as he proved himself to be. After Holman fired the third shot Dedman dropped his gun and when it was picked up it was found to be empty, but of course Holman had no way of knowing that when the muzzle was sticking in his face, and it looked just as big as if it had been "loaded to the muzzle."—Bandon Recorder.

BANDON HIGH COOS COUNTY CHAMPIONS

The Bandon High school again carried off the field honors, taking first place in 10 events and totaling in all 52 points at the Coos County Field Meet here yesterday. North Bend was second with 31 points, and Coquille third with 16 points.

Most of the events were hard fought for, and the finishes were all close. In the 100 and 220 yards dashes, Gallier of Bandon was hard pressed by both Newkirk and Hodson of North Bend. Tom Laird again took the mile, and standing broad jump as well as the pole vault and high jump. In the two latter he showed excellent form but in the mile run his brother, Roy of Coquille, was not far behind. Bowman of Bandon beat his last year's record in the 440 by one second, and also took the 140 by one second. In the shot put, Oerding of Coquille made the best and stepped out of the ring three times successively and was disqualified.

The hurdle race was called off after three trials as the hurdles brought over by the different teams were not standard and so no fair decision could be made. The mile relay was one of the most exciting events of the day. Coquille started out strong, leading by a big margin on the first two laps but the third man missed his flag and lost so much ground in recovering it that his team was out of the running. On the last lap Bowman and Newkirk finished close together, the Bandon man winning out by a couple of strides.

As a whole, this year's records do not equal those of last, due to the fact that the track was heavy on account of the rain. There was a fair crowd out, but it lacked the spirit that would have been manifested and had the weather man carried a little sunshine on his countenance.

Following is a summary of the events: 100 yd. dash—Gallier, Bandon; Newkirk of North Bend, Hodson of North Bend—Time given as 1 1/2 seconds but not officially.

Pole vault—Laird of Bandon, Dewey of North Bend, Gay of North Bend—Height 37 feet.

220 yd. dash—Gallier of Bandon, Newkirk of North Bend, Hodson of North Bend—Time 25 1/2 seconds.

Shot-put—Bowman of Bandon, Kern of Coquille, Hodson of North Bend—Distance 37 feet 10 inches.

High jump—Tom Laird of Bandon, Roy Laird of Coquille, Smith of North Bend—Time 2:32.

440 dash—Bowman of Bandon, Newkirk of North Bend, Watkins of Bandon—58 2/5.

Running broad jump—Hodson of North Bend, Knowlton of Coquille, Gallier of Bandon—Distance 17 feet 9 1/2 inches.

Standing broad jump—Laird of Bandon, Van Zile of North Bend, Hodson of North Bend—Distance 9 feet 4 inches.

High jump—Laird of Bandon, Knowlton of Coquille, Gay of North Bend—Height 4 ft. 11.

880 yd. dash—Bowman of Bandon, Roy Laird of Coquille, Smith of North Bend—Time 2:32.

Mile Relay—Bandon team consisting of T. Laird, Bowman and E. Gallier and E. Watkins; North Bend team consisting of Kibbler, Van Zile, Hodson and Newkirk; Coquille team consisting of Kerrigan, Knowlton, R. Laird, and Custer. Won by Bandon, North Bend second and Coquille third.

Officials—H. Hewitt, starter and referee; Maule, starter; O. Knowlton, Moore and Prof. Tiedgen, judges of finish. Timekeepers—Prof. Hockett, Prof. Ostein and Prof. Beaumont.

The Myrtle Point high school decided not to participate in the contests this year and was not represented here yesterday.

The reception given by the students of Marshfield High school to their friends in the city and to visiting friends from the other schools of Coos County was a fine success both from the standpoint of numbers and from the standpoint of sociability.

Impromptu talks were made by Dr. J. T. McCormack, Supt. Tiedgen, Supt. Ostein of Bandon and Principal S. D. Hockett of Coquille. Following this, cards, dancing and music and other diversions were enjoyed until after 11 o'clock. There was a large attendance of Marshfield students and many of the parents of the latter, including a number of ladies who acted as patronesses of the affair.

A few of the out of town guests were: From North Bend—Joe Winsor, Glen Groat, Harry Conro, Vesta McCulloch, Edith Thomas, Ruby Watkins, Inez Puley, Lola Rithey, Francis Golden, Lloyd Conn, George Denley, Edward Thomas, Frank Newdick, Charley VanZile, Clyde Smith, Naomi Smith, Miss Josephine, PORTLAND LETTER Activity of Portland Boosters for Greater Oregon.

Portland, May 16 (Special)—Tom Richardson has returned from Baltimore where he carried on a short publicity campaign and organized the commercial interests so they will boost their city. Mr. Richardson reports a great movement has been started there to induce Americans to see their country before going to Europe. A big convention will be held there January 22-27 next to further this idea.

"Oregon should be deeply interested in this convention," said Mr. Richardson; "If Oregon could secure one percent of the people of the congested cities of the East who should move, it would more than double the population of the state. The old East has no patriotism. The people talk about travel in and know only Europe and other far countries, and European travel drains this country of $400,000,000.01 every year. Every community in the West should strive to make this convention one of the greatest ever held. We must arrest foreign sentiment and at least make our national capital an American city."

War has been declared upon the pine beetle, that is causing ravages in the forests of Eastern Oregon. State Forester Elliot and his deputies will work in conjunction with the federal officers in the attempt to best the beetle.

Bend has started a contest between its citizens that will add to the attractiveness of that place. To the householder growing the best lawn will be paid a prize of $50. Another award of $25 will be paid to the one keeping the best looking back yard from this time until the distribution of the awards, which will be held in connection with the Railroad Day celebration that will mark the advent of the new lines to Bend, some time in July.

California business men will invade Southern Oregon on a trade-getting trip, leaving San Francisco May 16. They will visit the Klamath country and other Southern Oregon sections, besides getting better acquainted with merchants of Northern California.

President Louis W. Hill of the Great Northern is anxious to have a line from Portland to the ocean at Tillamook and says as soon as financial conditions warrant, the United Railways will be extended to the Coast. He expects this will be done within the next few years and the project is foremost in the Hill plans.

A feature of the annual convention of the Pacific Northwest Music Teachers' Association at Portland June 7-10, will be an organ recital at the White Temple on the afternoon of Thursday, June 8, by Dr. Frank Wilbur Chase, organist of the First Presbyterian Church of Seattle. Dr. Chase is reorganized as among the foremost organists of the present day. This will be only one attraction for music lovers among many that have been arranged for the convention. A manuscript concert by Northwest composers is another feature arranged for the following afternoon that is attracting much attention.

A prize contest for poster designs for the Oregon delegation at the National Educational Association convention at San Francisco is announced by the Portland Commercial Club for school children of the state. The posters will be 18x25 inches, in two colors, and one set of prizes of $5, $3 and $2 will be offered for the three best designs submitted by pupils of Portland schools and similar prizes will go to pupils outside this city. The posters should be on heavy cover paper and any legend may be used to boost Oregon. Contest will close June 15.

Baxter Reopens.

The Baxter Hotel is again in new hands, J. F. Steinman, late of San Francisco having retired. Our townsman and former O. K. creamery operator, George E. Peoples, is now in charge and is doing the landlord stunt in good shape. The house has been put in fine condition and everything is in first-class shape. Mr. Peoples is well enough acquainted through this section that he will require no introduction or recommendation at our hands. Suffice to say that the Baxter will be conducted in the manner of an up-to-date hostelry worthy any patronage that may be given him. A chef well up in his profession, having had wide experience in the leading eastern cities, is in charge of the culinary department, while Mr. Peoples has a general supervision over the entire house. Courteous treatment and service equal to the best are guaranteed.

Griffin, Ralph Clinkenbeard and John Hanson.

From Bandon—Supt. H. C. Ostein, C. R. Moore, Geo. Strang, Dorothy Gibson, Zetta Gibson, Sylvia Rackieff, Lena Langlois, Archie Rosa, Tom Ostein, Lentner Gallier, Carl Bowman, Thomas Laird, Edmund Gallier, Ernest Watkins and Eldon Langlois.

From Coquille—Principal S. D. Hockett, Melvin Kern, Clay Knowlton, Owen Knowlton, Geo. Oerding, Ray Laird, Walter Oerding, Matt Kerrigan and Irvin Custer.

FISH IS WINNER IN THEIR SIXTH ROUND

After six lively rounds, Art Fish was declared the victor of the Fish-Nosler fight last evening, Nosler being compelled to quit in the first of the seventh owing to a broken hand.

The abrupt ending of the match was regretted by the crowd as the indications were that the match would either go to the limit of twenty rounds or there would be a knockout as both appeared in good condition and each was trying for a decisive victory.

Both showed up pretty even, Nosler being a little the fanciest boxer but Fish indicating better training, a trifle quicker in swinging and forcing the fighting most of the time.

The men were to have gone twenty rounds, Marquis of Queensbury rules and break clean. However, they did not break clean but kept slugging in nearly every clinch, resulting in the supporters of both protesting loudly against Referee Rau for not breaking them more quickly.

Few clean swings were landed by either and hence the surprise of the crowd when Nosler's seconds announced that he had to quit on account of a broken hand. He has had a weak hand, having lost one previous match with Fish on the same account.

The preliminary between Will Gaffney of North Bend and Shorty Hall was a good one. The men were pretty evenly matched with the exception that Gaffney had the best of it in reach and height. Hall forced the fighting nearly all the time and Gaffney relied on his footwork more than anything else to escape punishment. In nearly every round, Hall rushed Gaffney into a corner and landed a few pretty good ones but his blows lacked the steam to make an effective showing. Gaffney did not have good right but reached Hall's face with his left a few times, having the latter's nose bleeding pretty profusely. It was declared a draw at the end of the ten rounds by Tommy Smith.

There was a pretty good turnout for the event, the crowd exceeding the attendance at most of the bouts. However, the attendance from the Coquille valley far exceeded that from there at any previous match here, the special train bringing over quite a bunch of friends of Nosler and Fish, both of whom live in Coquille.—Times.
