July Fourth.

The glorious Fourth has come and gone. Three grand celebrations took place in Coos county all being successes in every particular.

The Coquille band went to Bandon on the third which was their big day, coming home the morning of the 4th. The weather was all that could be desired, and everyone looked pleasant. The parade at Coquille was fine. The Liberty Car, etc., were grand and were followed by line of twenty-odd automobiles decorated in beautiful style.

The oration at the grove was delivered by Hon. Charles I. Rigard of the Bay, and was pronounced a masterly effort. The songs were good and the program was highly appreciated. The sports, while not elaborate were lively and greatly enjoyed. The automobiles played a great part in the entertainment of the crowd. A large number were kept busy making short excursions with jolly parties.

The crowd in this city was very orderly. It was not necessary that an arrest be made during the whole day and night, and there was no serious accidents. The nearest approach to one was experienced by M. H. Hersey. He got a badly burned hand from a large firecracker. The barbecue dinner was extra fine and abundant.

At Marshfield a grand time was had. All will look forward to the one a year hence with a fond recollection of the one just passed so enjoyably.

In this town needs watching! Is he your husband, your brother or your son? We have noticed him gazing longingly at the good watches in our window as he thought of the poor time-piece in his pocket.
