Change in Leader Management.

With this issue the business and plant of the Leader is transferred to D. F. Dean, of Coquille, and C. O. Dryden, of Portland, who will hereafter publish the Leader under the firm name of Dean & Dryden.

Mr. Dean has held a position in a large Portland printing establishment since leaving the Coquille Herald a year ago, and he is a first class printer and a very genial and obliging young man.

Mr. Dryden has held a position in a large Portland printing establishment since leaving the Coquille Herald a year ago, and he is a first class printer and a very genial and obliging young man.

The writer has been connected with the Leader more or less for the past 22 years, having learned the printers trade in this office, and naturally regrets severing his business relations with the paper and the genial and enterprising business men of this city, who have always accorded us their loyal support and liberal patronage.

Cuts and bruises may be healed in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. It is an antiseptic and causes such injuries to heal without maturation.

The HERALD is to have a new editor and manager next week. W. C. Conner, founder of the Myrtle Point Enterprise, and for seven or eight years editor and manager of the Roseburg Plaindealer, and for about the same length of time that of the Cottage Grove Leader, has swapped the latter paper for the HERALD and is due here in a few days to take charge.

C. O. Dryden, for a number of years the job man in this office, is now at Cottage Grove looking after the interests of the Leader, and it is our purpose to join him this week to take up our duties in that city.

While we regret to leave Coos county at this time, its prospects just now being the brightest in its history, we feel it is for the best interests of our family to make a change. We will watch with deepest interest the movements along the lines of general improvement, development and enterprise we hope to be able to come in by rail when returning on a visit to see old friends and get a breath of salt air.

Mr. Conner, the new manager of the HERALD is a man of ability and sterling qualities and will merit a generous and liberal patronage at the hands of our business men and citizens generally.

Mrs. Fannie L. Countryman of Chicago who has been visiting her cousin Mrs. R. B. Rogers the past six weeks departed Thursday for Cal. Mrs. Countryman will visit friends in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Salt Lake City and Denver and expects to reach home some time in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Dement of Myrtle Point, were in town Monday and extended their trip to Bandon.
