Fred K. Gettins is a Republican candidate for State Senator from Coos and Curry counties. His announcement appears in this issue and is indicative of policies that will merit the approbation of all voters who desire progression in political affairs. Those who are acquainted with Mr. Gettins are firm in the belief that he will, if elected, labor assiduously for measures that will not only be condusive to the well being of the district he represents but the state at large.

SCHOOL NOTES

Rev. Frank Adams is to speak to the students of the high school tomorrow morning. Special exercises have been given on Friday mornings during the past few weeks. Miss Lucia Sperry and Mrs Tyrrell have both appeared before the school.

The members of the senior class, assisted by students of other classes, are to give a play "Esmeralda" sometime before the close of school. This is a good strong play and well worth the work the students will put upon it.

Alice Culin will represent the local high school in the County Oratorial contest to be held in Coquille on April 26 Miss Culin was selected at a tryout last Friday afternoon in which two contestants besides he self took part. Mae Lunddelivered an oration on Joan of Arc. Geneva Bither spoke on Florence Nightingale and the winning oration dealt with the wrongs of Mary, Queen of Scots. The Judges were Rev. H. C. Cleaves, Mrs. H. O. Anderson and J. J. Stanley.

On account of sickness, Mrs Lorenz was unable to teach her class Tuesday. Mrs Howard substituted

A large number of pupils in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades are hard at work on declamations in an effort to secure a place in the gold medal contest to be held during commencement week.

Pupils from the various rooms are planning to make exhibits in the children's industrial department of the county fair. As soon as a prize list is published it is believed the interest will be greatly increased.
