Born—To the wife of William B. Neathery a boy, April 4.

Council meeting next Monday evening.

W. B. Clark, wife and daughter were visiting in Bandon a few days during the first of the week.

The removing of awnings in front of business places on First street is regarded by many as a decided improvement.

Ray Hyde and wife of McKinley were transacting business in the county seat Tuesday. They are makers of excellent ranch butter.

Seventy tons of steel rails are on the ground for a street railway in Marshfield, and the work of laying track is under way.

In the absence of Mayor Quick to the Socialist Convention at Portland J. H. Oerding will be the official head of our city government.

E. C. Barker established himself in the jewelry business at Marshfield Monday last. His many friends in Coquille join the Herald in wishing him success.

George E. Peoples has been much on the "go" during the past week and to trace his meanings upon the map of Coos county would embrace all places of importance.

J. A. Brockman has bought out Harry Flanders and is now prepared to do general hauling, moving, etc. All orders will receive careful attention.

For Sale—Small Burbank potatoes for seed at one and one-quarter cents per pound. M. Edwards, Parkersburg, Oregon.

C. A. Pendleton has left at the Farmers' Union Store, this city, choice varieties of rhubarb roots and strawberry plants for sale. Prices are reasonable.

Genevieve, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Chase, has sufficiently recovered from her recent illness to be enabled to be out occasionally and enjoy the sunshine.

Married:—In this city April 4, 1912, at the judge's office, Mr. Brack Griffin and Miss May Culbertson, both of Prosper, Coos County, Oregon, Judge E. G. D. Holden officiating.

P. C. Levar, an old-time printer of the Bay, and until recently an employe of the Record at Marshfield, paid the Herald a call Tuesday. Mr. Levar was one of the founders of the first daily paper in the Bay city.

C. S. Jackson, who has been in this locality for some time past in the interest of his candidacy for prosecuting attorney, is homeward bound by way of Marshfield and the Umpqua river. Mr. Jackson is confident of success.

An action at law was filed in the circuit court Wednesday against the Coquille Lumber company by W. H. Boyle for the sum of $15,250 for injuries received while assisting in the construction of their mill last fall. The attorneys for the plaintiff are J. J. Stanley and C. R. Barrow.

The meeting of the Educational League which was held at the High School last Friday afternoon had the usual large attendance. The able paper read by Miss Hopkins upon "Personality—How to Develop it," was introduced by a very interesting literary and musical program. The next and last meeting this year will occur May 5.

The Misses Seymour and Smith of Gardiner are visiting with Mrs. C. R. Barrow this week. The ladies formed the acquaintance of their hostess some years ago when the Sunday School Convention of the M. E. Church was held in this city. They are delegates to the convention of that church which will be held in Marshfield next Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

We are informed that the managers of the Scenic Theatre have in contemplation the giving of vaudeville entertainments in conjunction with their photoplays. A man is now in San Francisco making arrangements with high-class fun makers that will cause wrinkles of mirth to appear upon the physiognomy of the most morose personage.

Two small horses for sale cheap for cash. Inquire of A. McAdams, Coquille, Oregon.

The W. H. M. S. of the M. E. Church South will have an apron and cooked food sale Saturday, April 20, at Lyons & Jones store. Don't forget.

A. J. Howard, a traveling salesman, called on us today. He was formerly engaged in printing, and the aroma arising from the printing office towel and a sight of the printer's devil still charm him.

W. Thomas and wife of Portland, Oregon, are touring this section by automobile. They arrived in Coquille from Marshfield Friday last with their car and found the roads very good for this time of the year, no chains upon the wheels being required. H. W. Lemecke is the chauffeur. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas are not upon a trip of pleasure, but have in view a location for a permanent abiding place. They are well pleased with Coos County and we predict ere long they will be enrolled as our citizens.

O. O. Lund, candidate for sheriff, was in the city over Sunday, leaving here Tuesday for Myrtle Point, Bridge and neighboring localities in order that voters may have an opportunity to "size him up." Herald readers have become familiar with his face through his picture being printed in the paper, and many strangers recognize the coming sheriff at first sight. To give his full dimensions would require the lengthening of our columns, hence we must be content in showing only the upper story.

Children's straw hats and babies' straw bonnets at special bargains. The Fair Store.

H. F. Oakes, an expert at overhauling and repairing automobiles, has been secured by J. C. Walling of the Coquille Garage to adjust difficulties of every phase accruing to cars. Mr. Oakes has had charge of some of the best auto establishments in the east; has also delved into the "racing game" and thoroughly understands his chosen calling. Mr. Walling, as well as auto owners, should be congratulated on the acquisition of so capable a man in our community. Mr. Oakes expects his family to join him within two weeks.

In digging the sewer on First street clay has been encountered that would, experts assert, make most excellent brick. With the rapid strides the cities of Coos county are making, and with abundance of clay such as is known to exist in this section, the industry of making brick would prove profitable. Coquille is admirably situated geographically for shipment of brick to the various places, and we predict ere long some enterprising brick maker will avail himself of the opportunity presented and inaugurate the needed industry, and be richly rewarded thereby.

JURORS FOR NEXT TERM OF COURT

The following are the names and places of residence of the jurors drawn for the April term of court which convenes in this city on the 22nd:

S. D. Clark, M. M. Young, Prosper; A. P. Miller, Coquille; J. C. Logan, Parkersburg; W. S. Hall, Myrtle Pt.; Ike Chandler, Fairview; L. F. Miller, Dora; Pat Hourahan, Bandon; Julius Larson, Marshfield; Geo. Cox, Bandon; Herman Hillier, F. A. Golden, Marshfield; J. W. Briggs, J. H. Oerding, A. O. White, E. F. Davenport, J. W. O'Brien, Coquille; J. W. Gardiner, H. G. Kern, North Bend; L. A. White, Lewis Stone, John Hayden, F. L. Lowe, J. J. Clinkenbeard, W. M. Humbert, Marshfield; C. A. Goodman, Prosper; Ed Lewellyn, Myrtle Point; M. J. Krantz, Gravel Ford; Jas. Stock, Sumner; Fred Nosler, T. S. Evernden, Bridge.

There are a large number of cases on the docket for trial and with the Foote and Bestcott incidents to be disposed of, the term bids fair for long duration.

You will look a good while before you find a better medicine for coughs and colds than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only gives relief—it cures. Try it when you have a cough or cold, and you are certain to be pleased with the prompt cure which it will effect. For sale by all druggists.

A LOCAL INSTITUTION VERY ABLY CONDUCTED

The reportorial force of the Herald paid the O. K. Creamery a visit recently and found the manager absent, but nevertheless admission was gained. Luscious gold-colored and lucre-producing butter was piled high on the receiving tables, and everything about the premises indicated prosperity and cleanliness to a commendable degree. The dairy and food commissioner on his tour of inspection will find no disease producing germs about the O. K. Creamery—a very suitable name particularly under the present management. M. P. Long, the man at the helm, does veterinary work for farmers in the territory contiguous to his creamery, gratis, in order to do his part toward keeping cows in healthy condition. He may have been on a mission of this kind at the time of our visit. Dairymen, as well as everyone interested in the progress of Coquille, should congratulate themselves upon the advent of so capable a buttermaker as Mr. Long, and extend to him every courtesy and patronage his efforts so amply deserve.

MYRTLE POINT NEWS

Dr. L. Johnson has purchased W. O. Cooper's fine new residence on Ash street and takes possession May 1. Mr. Cooper is at present visiting Ashland and Portland looking after business interests.

Wilber Barklow, Ralph Rackliff's little girl, Lee Ray's young daughter, and Wallace Dement, son of Taylor Dement, are all sick with pneumonia. All but Wallace have been very low, but are now improving nicely.

I. T. Weekly has been at Coquille for the past three weeks under the care of Dr. Richmond. Mrs. Weekly who has been with him and visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. Brockman, returned to their home on the North Fork Monday.

Easter services were held at all the churches, but the excursion to Marshfield took a goodly number that usually attend service.

Dr. John Masson returned from San Francisco, where he spent the winter, on the last steamer.

BREWSTER VALLEY ITEMS

We are having beautiful weather and the road is drying fast. The supervisor was out today smoothing up the road.

Alva and Wanda Harry have returned from Gravel Ford where they have been attending school at the Academy.

Mrs. Perley Crowley, who has been quite ill the last few weeks, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Laird attended the closing exercises at the Gravel Ford Academy and reported a nice time.

Miss Mildred Mast, who has been attending school at this place returned to her home at McKinley April 8.

Bert Gould has been in this vicinity for several days surveying Tom Coke's ranch.

Ed Jenkins and Joe Neilson returned to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Neice from McKinley were up to Brewster Valley the first of the week and purchased a load of potatoes from E. N. Harry.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Baker of lower Brewster Valley visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Crowley.

O. C. Harry has dug a fine well at his home. He went down 18 feet and has abundance of water.

DR. McCORMAC QUALIFIED

In view of the fact that considerable comment is going the rounds to the effect that Dr. J. T. McCormac, supervisor of Coos Bay supervisor district, is not legally qualified to hold said position, I deem it imperative to inform the public that Dr. McCormac now holds a regularly issued school certificate valid from February 10, 1911, to February 10, 1914, issued by the county board of education and signed by Superintendent W. H. Bunch and A. G. Raab, assistant examiner, and that Dr. McCormac is otherwise eminently qualified to fill said position.

Signed April 11, 1912.
W. H. BUNCH,
County School Superintendent.
Best place in town to get bargains is at The Fair Store.

EASTER SERVICES BY KNIGHTS TEMPLAR

The Knights Templar of old dedicated themselves to the defense of the sepulchre of Christ, and through the ages following, it has been the universal custom of this religious order of Freemasonry to observe Easter.

Pacific Commandery No. 10 Knights Templar of Marshfield conducted services in their temple at that place last Sunday that are spoken of in most laudable terms by local people who were fortunate in attending. A special train conveyed thirty-one persons from Coquille while Myrtle Point and Bandon contributed twelve each to the gathering. Local ladies attending were Mrs. George E. Peoples, Mrs. Bert Folsom, Mrs. Mary Mehl, Mrs. D. D. Pierce, Mrs. Elton Tyrrell, Mrs. George Belloni and Misses Cora and Nettie Belloni.

The Masonic temple has a seating capacity of four hundred persons but was much inadequate to accommodate the throng desiring admission.

Mrs. Peoples, from whom we gain information concerning the event, is profuse in her praises of the rendition of the program which was quite extensive. Music by Emmanuel Episcopal church choir was most excellent, while solos by Mrs. A. B. Gidley were sung in a manner especially pleasing.

Rev. Sir J. T. M. Knox delivered the Easter sermon, the words chosen and the oratorical powers of portrayal touching a tender chord in the hearts of his hearers when he depicted the suffering of the Savior upon the cross, and tearless eyes were few.

The occasion will find lodgement in the minds of all for many a day and a recurrence of the event will make many citizens of Coquille anxious to take part in the service.

FRED K. GETTINS

Republican Candidate for State Senator Coos and Curry Counties

I WILL FAVOR

- Progressive Republican Policies.
- State Aid for Highways.
- Opening of Rogue River to Commercial Fishing.
- Greater Economy in Our State Institutions.
- Liberal Legislation for Our Common Schools.

I have Subscribed to this Statement: I will vote for that Republican candidate for the U. S. Senate who receives the highest vote in this district, and not for that candidate because he lives in Multnomah, Marion or any other county and is not endorsed by the voters of this district.
