Don't Worry—Eat
Memphis, Tenn.—Mrs. Emma D. Looney, of this place, says: "I suffered misery for nearly eight years, but since taking Cardui, I am much stronger, and I haven't missed a single meal. I hardly know how to express my gratitude." Don't worry about your symptoms—Cardui doesn't treat them. What you need is strength. Cardui helps you to get it. Take Cardui, because other tonics and medicines do not contain its peculiar and successful ingredients, imported especially for its manufacture. Half a century of success, has stamped Cardui with the seal of public approval. During this time, Cardui has benefited a million women. Why not you? Try it, today.

LOCAL NEWS.

Born:—May 27, to the wife of Howard Colver, this city, a son.

You can SAVE MONEY at our shoe sale Friday, May 31.—The Ladies Bazaar.

Judge Coke adjourned court on Saturday evening last. Will again convene Monday, June 17.

Jeweler Schroeder's residence has received a coat of white paint that presents a pleasing appearance.

John Dequer, socialist orator, will give an address in the "Little Church" this city tonight. All welcome.

The premium lists for the Oregon State Fair, Salem, September 2-7, are now printed and ready for distribution.

Dances every Saturday night at Heazlet hall. Music by the excellent six-piece orchestra of the Scenic Theatre.

The final commencement exercises of the high school will be held Friday evening, May 31, at 8:30, at the Masonic Hall.

The Christian Science Society will hereafter hold services in the "Little Church" instead of W. O. W. hall as heretofore.

A socialist convention will be held in this city Monday next, June 3, to nominate a full ticket for county and state officers.

Frank Burkholder and W. C. Rose were among the fishermen at Tenmile lake recently. They report excellent catches.

Grover Williams of Daniel's creek recently contributed $57 in a justice court at Marshfield as a penalty for killing deer out of season.

DUTCH AUCTION:—Coquille Valley Creamery stock at 80 cents on the dollar does not sell. Who'll give six bits?—James N. Jacobsen.

Miss Florence Rich of Washougal, Washington, arrived in this city Friday evening last for a summer visit with her sisters, Mrs. W. C. Chase and Mrs. A. N. Gould.

After a strenuous siege of official duties incident to the circuit court James Watson, county clerk, paid a visit to friends and parents at Coos City the first of the week.

For laces, embroideries, fringe, and all kinds of trimmings go to The White House.—First National Bank Building.

Patriotic people of Marshfield are making a move toward celebrating the Fourth of July in a sane and proper manner. Fireworks will not be a feature and it is wise for the safety and well being of the town.

A. J. Radabaugh informs us bids will soon be asked for to ditch a large tract of land near Norway.

When brought to a stage where it can be cultivated, these low lands cannot be excelled for productiveness.

Dr. H. E. Hermann, eyesight specialist, returned to Roseburg Saturday last after a successful business visit to Coquille and Bandon. Dr. Hermann will give us another professional call on June 18 and 19.

Miss Alta Stanley entertained her classmates, the high schools seniors, at her residence last Monday evening. Various card games were played, refreshments were served at 11:30 and a social time was enjoyed until a late hour.

M. M. Dobbins of Lampa has sold his lease on a farm held at that place to Mr. Carmichael. Mr. Dobbins leaves by team Saturday for a northward journey to the Puget Sound country and his destination may possibly extend to British Columbia.

Two hundred applications for automobile and motorcycle licenses were received last week at the office of the secretary of state. Among the number appears the application of Frank Burkholder, this city, Reo 7502; L. P. Sorenson, Bandon, Ford 7601.

R. E. Buck, an old-time resident of Coquille now of Bandon, was in the city yesterday to decorate the graves of cherished ones passed away. He reports considerable activity at the sea city particularly in the shipping business. We acknowledge a brief though pleasant call.

O. O. Lund, republican nominee for sheriff, was in the city Tuesday having returned from Bandon where, on the night previous, he was in attendance at the institution of a lodge of Moose. About thirty Bandonites joined the ranks of moosehood and many more have signified a desire to follow.

FOR SALE—A nice little home, with six lots, two in the bottom, about twenty bearing trees. Located close to school house. Price $1,250. Good terms. See B. Folsom.

J. E. Norton of Nosler & Norton is expected home on the next trip of the steamer Elizabeth which is looked for Monday. Mr. Norton has been absent in San Francisco about two weeks and his partner, as well as his many friends, will be glad to see him at his post of duty.

The steamer Tillamook arrived Saturday night with a fair cargo of freight for people of this locality. As the Tillamook is a valuable adjunct to the shipping interests of Coquille, merchants, and others, should give it all the patronage possible and thus insure its permanency.

C. Fast of Portland is in the city soliciting orders for a topographical map of the northwest that promises to be a valuable work of reference. It will be lithographed 4 x 5 feet in size and will possess many important features heretofore omitted from work of a like character.

The song of the saw, the familiar whistle and the hum of industry usually prevalent at the Coquille mill was stilled one day this week by a portion of the engine being broken. Work is now resumed with renewed energy and choicest lumber is again being turned out for shipment to coastwise ports.

J. C. Watson has returned from Albany where he purchased three high-grade registered cows paying therefor the sum of $810. This is, apparently, a high price, but Mr. Watson considers the sum reasonable as he desires to enhance the value of his herd only with the very best animals to be obtained.

Assessor Thrift returned from the Grand Lodge meeting of the Odd Fellows at Pendleton Monday. He reports a very enjoyable time. Mr. Thrift also visited Walla Walla where the home for Odd Fellows is located, and speaks highly of the prosperity evidenced in and around the city named in consequence of many streams.

The Herald is prepared to print posters for Fourth of July celebrations in neat and attractive designs. Posters 28 x 42 inches in size, two colors, with design of Uncle Sam, Goddess of Liberty, Eagle or Shield, printed in red and blue upon white paper make a most desirable bill. Samples in miniature can be seen at this office. Order early.

A "milky way" was observed by a night pedestrian recently at the City Bakery—or more properly speaking, the night walker took the milk away. Drippings of the lacteal fluid upon sidewalk and steps afforded a clue and the milk and man were located in a nearby room. Prosecution was waived upon payment of one dollar for each bottle of milk. The way of the transgressor is hard and costly.

Nick Johnson and wife from Mosier, Oregon, are among the recent arrivals contemplating making this city their future home, as Mr. Johnson says "Coquille looks good enough for me." They came in with a one-horse rig. Mr. Johnson comes to us well recommended as an auctioneer of ability and integrity. He will have once-a-month sale days in Coquille selling all articles on commission the value of which is $5.00 or more. J. W. Leneve will act as clerk at these sales.

It seems that it is not generally understood that the partnership formerly existing between Ned C. Kelley and J. J. Stanley, doing business under the firm name of Coos Collection Company, has been dissolved. This dissolution took place on March 1, and due notice of it was given by publication in this paper, as well as in the Sentinel. Mr. Stanley withdrew from the firm while Mr. Kelley continued the business under the same firm name and has his office next door to the Herald office. While Mr. Stanley is no longer a member of this firm he is its regularly retained legal adviser and attorney, and may be found in his office over the Farmers and Merchants bank where he has been located since the building was first ready for occupancy.

Poor appetite is a sure sign of impaired digestion. A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will strengthen your digestion and improve your appetite. Thousands have been benefited by taking these Tablets. Sold by all druggists.

FOR SALE, or Trade for Real Estate—Three geldings and one mare, ranging from 900 to 1200 pounds; age from 6 to 8 years; all broke to work and ride. A special price for two weeks.

Pacific Real Estate Co.
Mrs. Jacob Noah and wife of Salem, Oregon, accompanied by Mrs. D. M. Shine and her brother Fred Caples of Portland, have been visiting friends and touring Coos county for the past month. Their call at the Herald office was doubly appreciated by reason of information given of the "old folks at home." The parties returned to their places of residence Friday last.

Concrete and bitumen required for paving the streets of Coquille have arrived and work will be rushed after the ground settles sufficiently over the sewer to warrant a good and durable job. Contractor Morrisey says the work of paving First street will require but sixteen days to complete, weather conditions being favorable. The contractors are deserving the mantle of charity as the elements alone are responsible for the delay and it is not within the province of man to stay storms or make weather suitable to his desires.

Not only will all hats in stock at The White House be reduced for ten days, but all hats of one material will be made free of charge beginning June 1.—First National Bank Building.

Miss Roxie Hall, daughter of Judge and Mrs. John F. Hall, was quite severely injured by being thrown from a bicycle while coasting down the Commercial avenue hill in West Marshfield Monday. She was unconscious for several hours. Dr. Mingus stated that she was getting along fairly well although suffering considerably from the shock. So far as an examination showed, no bones were broken but she was vomiting considerably indicating that she may have sustained internal injuries.—Times.

Knights of Pythias of Coquille will on Tuesday, June 4, receive an official visit from Frank T. Wrightman, Grand Chancellor Commander, and Louis R. Stinson Grand Keeper of Records and Seals Knights of Pythias of Oregon. Both grand lodge officers are residents of Salem at which place the Herald man and Mr. Stinson worked in the same room at the state printing office. We know our distinguished printer Knight to be a thorough gentleman, one who enjoys hospitality and all the good things of life, and we doubt not that he and Mr. Wrightman will be royally entertained by their Coquille brethren.

AMATEUR NIGHT AT THE SCENIC
Last Monday evening the Scenic Theater managers inaugurated a new feature at their popular play house, that of securing the talent of local people to add to the pleasures of the audience. There will be an extra attraction every Monday evening hereafter and is designated as "amateur night."

Ralph Fox, Walter Sinclair, John Oerding, Clifford Bergen, Bennie Hersey, Elmer Briner, six right-handed boys, contested in driving five nails each in a plank upon the stage with the hammer in the left hand. Prizes were given to the winners—Ralph Fox first prize, $1; John Oerding second prize, 50c; Clifford Bergen third prize, 25c. An additional prize of a nature to cause merriment was given the winners while upon the stage. One minute was given in which to drive the nails and Ralph Fox completed the task in less time.

The Scenic six-piece orchestra played an overture entitled "Jolly Sleighride," producing the jingling of sleigh bells, the merry laughter of the riders and the clattering hoofs of the horses so realistic that the audience were participants in fancy if not in fact. The orchestra received a rousing encore and another short sleighride was enjoyed.

Next Monday evening the comic vaudeville act entitled "The Peach and the Lobster" will be presented by Nellie Gardner as the Peach and Lanson Leneve, the Lobster. A laugh is promised from start to the finish. Lanson does not take kindly to the title of "lobster" but he will not crawfish when it comes to delivering up-to-date jokes.

Will be in the Pacific Real Estate office every Saturday from 10 to 5 for the purpose of listing your offerings. Call and get particulars and get acquainted with the auctioneer.

Watch the Coquille papers for date of first sale.

NICK JOHNSON, Auctioneer.
J. W. LENEVE, Clerk.

NOTICE TO DAIRYMEN

It appears to have been the policy of some of the competitors of the O. K. Creamery to advise farmers and would-be patrons of that plant that its owners, Fred B. Haight & Company, were not in good financial standing. In order that all our patrons may know the falsity of that statement, I wish to advise the public that I have this day caused security to the amount of $5,000 to be deposited in the First National Bank of Coquille. This deposit is to secure patrons against loss and assure them of our good faith.

Anyone wishing to verify this statement may call on L. H. Hazard, cashier of the First National Bank.
O. K. Creamery,
