PATRIOTISM—OUR MOTIVE

Coos county's apportionment of the state school fund for this year amounts to $159,863.67.

Ex-Mayor Quick was seen this morning carrying a gunny sack of old shoes for service upon the rough sands of the sea at Bandon, where he will stay for a week with his father and friends.

Another dark and dismal condition confronts "Teddy." He was recently visited by a delegation of negroes to ascertain his attitude relative to the black race. Looks gloomy for Col. Roosevelt from all sources.

Ray Utter, a printer, who labored with us as apprentice in the job department of the state printing office, Salem, has been visiting friends at Four Mile the past week. He was in Coquille Tuesday on his way home and we had a pleasant chat with him.

The Evening Record, Marshfield, has its new perfecting press installed and in operation. The Record comes to us with a column added to each page and the length correspondingly increased. Enlargement seems to be the order with Editor O'Brien but we trust the new press will not be the means of causing a swelling to the exclusion of his "old hat."

Lincoln Sherrard, once a Sumner boy, who has been located in southern California for many years, is spending a couple of weeks in this section renewing old acquaintances. He is accompanied by his son, Lincoln junior.

The Coquille Mill and Mercantile Company are prepared to supply your needs in all kinds of fruit boxes. Apple, prune and tomato boxes on hand. Any size made to order. Both phones.

Mrs. Hudson has secured the agency for the Thomas Guaranteed Hose and all orders will receive careful attention.

Mr. W. S. Gonsalus, a farmer living near Fleming, Pa., says he used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for fourteen years, and that he has found it to be an excellent remedy, and takes pleasure in recommending it. For sale by all druggists.

Bargain
One lot and seven room house at cost. Three blocks from the post office. See J. E. Quick.

FOR SALE
Three acres close in. Suitable for chicken ranch. New six room cottage, all modern improvements. For sale cheap by owner. Address Box 147, Coquille, Oregon.

"I was cured of diarrhoea by one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes M. E. Gebhardt, Oriskany, Pa. There is nothing better. For sale by all druggists.

A thin woman ran to catch a car, fell into a seat exhausted. "I feel," she panted, "like a fat woman."

For Sale—Young mare, weight 1,400; gentle, sound and true. Address I. Nordstrom, Parkersburg.

Remember all our bakery is strictly home made, fresh every day. At Mrs. Nosler's Bakery.

Aasen Brothers recently purchased a powerful yarding engine to be used in their logging camp near this city.

Attorney Liljeqvist and wife are expected to return from their visit to relatives in Wisconsin the 10th of August.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Walling and A. P. Ingram and wife registered at the Hotel McClallen, Roseburg, on Monday last.

F. E. Nelson, of the Nelson Iron Works, at Marshfield, paid a business visit to this city and Myrtle Point the first of the week.

M. P. Long, manager of the O. K. Creamery, returned Sunday from California with his bride. They are now at home at the James Laird place.

O. L. Nosler has accepted a position as night watchman at the Randolph Lumber company's mill, and has moved down the river with his family.

Frank Pierce of Fairview just received a new automobile. It is a Flanders 20, and he has already mastered the mystery of making it go and keeping in the road.

The Billiken Club of Coquille has invitations out for a dance at Woodmen hall for Saturday evening, August 3. Punch will be served. The name of the club portends a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Southmayd of Myrtle Point paid the Herald a call Monday on their way to Bandon where they will spend a week as guests of Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Hindicott.

The Coquille Mill passed into the hands of a receiver Friday last. It has not affected the working of the mill and it is predicted the adjustment of the difficulty will not occasion undue hardship to anyone.

The Pythian Sisters of Bandon have organized a civic improvement association the primary object of which is to improve and beautify the city. A laudable endeavor.

"Were all medicines as meritorious as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the world would be much better off and the percentage of suffering greatly decreased," writes Lindsay Scott, of Temple, Ind. For sale by all druggists.

Mrs. Wm. Candlin and Wm. Dee, her brother, left Wednesday on the Breakwater for Portland. Mr. Dee is on his way to his home in St. Louis, and Mrs. Candlin will return with her husband who has been in Portland for a week or more on business.

One of the most common ailments that hard working people are afflicted with is lame back. Apply Chamberlain's Liniment twice a day and massage the parts thoroughly at each application, and you will get quick relief. For sale by all druggists.

Union Young Peoples' meeting will be held at the M. E. Church South Sunday August 4, at 7 p. m., conducted by one of the M. E. Church South members.

AUTOMOBILE AGENTS:—I want local agents in every county in Oregon to handle a popular priced line of automobiles; a good name and reputation for integrity counts more with us than money or experience; if you have $475 and can furnish bond, you can procure the agency for our high-grade car and we will furnish you with demonstrator. For full particulars address E. E. Gerlinger, Sales Manager, 688 Washington street, Portland, Ore.

D. C. Bybee, teaming contractor living at 609 Keeling Court, Canton, Ill., is now well rid of a severe and annoying case of kidney trouble. His back pained him and he was bothered with headaches and dizzy spells. "I took Foley Kidney Pills just as directed and in a few days I felt much better. My life and strength seemed to come back, and I slept well. I am now all over my trouble and glad to recommend Foley's Kidney Pills." Try them. Fuhrman's Pharmacy.

Charles Wisant, aged 47 years, a prominent resident of Newport and one of a family of early Pacific coast navigators, died recently at Portland where he had been taken to have an operation performed for appendicitis. Mr. Wisant was one of the earliest members of the Albany lodge of Elks and belonged to the Newport lodge of Masons.

Fifty gallons of berries at one picking from a strawberry patch covering about one-nineteenth of an acre, is the record made on the Diamond Prairie ranch, owned by Hector McDonald, Willowa. The patch has already been bearing for over two weeks, and there are still blossoms on the plants. They are of the Hood River and Parker varieties.

Two carloads of cattle have recently been shipped from Oklahoma and Texas for the ranges of Unatilla and Grant counties. This is said to be the first time in the history of Oregon that it has become necessary to import cattle. However, reports from Pendleton declared this to be a banner year for live stock of all kinds as it has never been so free from disease and in such good condition as at present.

There were 272 accidents in the state during the months of May and June, according to the report of Labor Commissioner Hoff, and 10 of these proved fatal. Seventeen of them were in electrical works, one of them proving fatal; 33 in logging camps, two proving fatal; 33 in machine shops, 25 in paper mills, eight in railroad construction work, 14 on railroad trains, 16 railroad section work, one proving fatal; 30 in railroad yards, 30 in sawmills, 12 in sawmill yards and 51 were miscellaneous, six being fatal.

Big Ben helps run the farm on time
Is it hard for you to get the farm hands out on time?
Is it hard for you to get them up in the morning?
If so, why not let Big Ben do it for you?
Big Ben is a truth telling and reliable alarm clock.
It's his business to get people up in the world.
And he'll do it every day at any time you say.
Next time you drive to town, walk over to the store and take a look at him.
I keep him in the window where very one can see him.

Transpiring in Oregon Boiled Down to Least Number of Lines and Yet Make the Subject Understood

The business streets of Oregon City now glow with cluster lights

A bank was recently organized at Molalla to be known as the Molalla State Bank.

Many bogus twenty-five cent pieces of 1907 stamped upon them are in circulation at Oregon City.

Myrtle Baber, of Lyle, has been granted a divorce from "Graf" Baber, a well known Coos county race horse man.

At a special election held in Florence the electors, by a vote of eight to one, decided to vacate certain streets for the use of a saw mill.

Over one hundred Marshfield Moose held a picnic in Piper's Grove Sunday last. Services were conducted by Rev. G. Le Roy Hall. Swimming and other amusements were enjoyed.

Farmer J. W. Hughes, just south Forest Grove, reports the biggest yield of hay that has been heard of in that city this year. He reports cutting 21 tons of clover and timothy from 4 1-4 acres at one cutting.

Rev. James Marshall, rector of the Portsmouth Episcopal church, Portland, has been adjudged insane and taken to the asylum at Salem. He is a native of Austria, about fifty years old. Overwork is supposed to be the cause of his loss of reason.

H. W. Scott last week favored the Forest Grove News-Times office, with some of the largest and finest blackberries ever seen. Some of them, in fact nearly all of them, measured almost two inches each in length and were as sweet and fine as could be. They were grown by Mr. Scott in Forest Grove.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for Coos County

Mary Pearl McDonald, Plaintiff vs.
Laura V. McDonald, Defendant

SUIT FOR DIVORCE

To Laura V. McDonald, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby notified that you are required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit in which Mary Pearl McDonald is plaintiff, and you, Laura V. McDonald, are defendant, within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: Within six weeks from the 25th day of July, 1912, the same being the date of the first publication of this summons; and if you fail to appear and answer on or before the 5th day of September, 1912, the same being the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication, a judgment will be taken against you for the want thereof, and the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in her complaint, a succinct statement of which is as follows: That the marriage contract now existing between you and the plaintiff be dissolved.

Service of this summons is made by publication in pursuance of an order made by John F. Hall, County Judge of Coos County, Oregon, dated the 24th day of July, 1912, and directing publication of the same in the Coquille Herald, a newspaper published at Coquille in said Coos County, Oregon, once each week for a period of six weeks.
