In the Good Old Summer Time

The good housewife finds the family washing particularly disagreeable—the hot, steaming suds—the muss and dirt—house upside down—Hubby gets home to a cold lunch and is cross—baby cries, etc.

The work of taking care of the family wash is a pleasure to us—it is our business—we are equipped for it. Send it to us—be rid of all the worry and hard work. You will be glad—the baby will be good—Hubby will smile over a warm dinner—you will live longer and be happier.

The report was approved.

"Blest Be the Tie That Binds"

County Clerk Watson issued the following marriage licenses during the week:

Allen B. Donaldson and Addie May Darling, both of Coquille.
Carlton M. Freeman, North Bend, and Nellie Wasson, Empire.
Clayton E. Downs, Ithaca, Mich., and Myrtle Davis, Remote, Oregon.

Hot Time on the Coach Ranch

Leo J. Carey, manager of the Coach Timber Company's interests, visited the large ranch owned by the firm near Lampa, on Tuesday last, for the purpose of branding cattle. He took with him as assistants Geo. E. Peoples, Stewart and Will Lyons and A. R. Clinton. Seventy head of cattle, we are informed, were branded in less than three hours. Clinton and Will Lyons were designated the "bulldogs" their duties being catching and roping the bovines. As a "roper" in Stewart Lyons proved to be the champion, however, and he is thinking seriously of going to Pendleton at the round-up to take the laurels from the cowboys of the sagebrush plains. Animals were in place for branding faster than the iron could be kept hot for the purpose notwithstanding Geo. E. Peoples acted as the bellows, and those who are acquainted with George know he is not slow in furnishing "wind." Carey not only did the branding but gave an exhibition of his "steer" riding in payment of services rendered by his assistants, and they consider themselves overpaid and overjoyed. Trying tailholt tanglesments were blithely illustrated by Mr. Clinton, and all contributed merriment to the tedious task assigned them. It was a "hot time" on the Coach ranch.

Entertainment August 22

Miss Gitchel of Pineville, instructor in elocution and public speaking in the Crook county high school, paid Coquille a visit last Tuesday. While here she made arrangements to give an entertainment Thursday evening, August 22, under the auspices of the Coquille Educational League. Miss Gitchel is a graduate of the Emerson School of Elocution and Oratory of Boston.

A vast amount of ill health is due to impaired digestion. When the stomach fails to perform its functions properly the whole system becomes deranged. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets are all you need. They will strengthen your digestion, invigorate your liver, and regulate your bowels, entirely doing away with that miserable feeling due to faulty digestion. Try it. Many others have been permanently cured—why not you? For sale by all druggists.

Dr. H. E. Hermann arrived in Coquille Friday last with his touring car. He is accompanied by his wife and son and a sister, Mrs. S. W. Starmer. The Doctor will visit Bandon, Port Orford and Gold Beach returning here for professional work Monday and Tuesday, August 19 and 20.

C. E. Niles and wife of Antlers, Oklahoma, arrived in the city last Thursday with a view of locating. Mr. Niles is pleased with Coquille and the improvements going forward are inspiring. We trust he may engage in a business to a degree as profitable as he will find our people hospitable.

Edward Croft and son Jeremiah, both of Tacoma, passed through Coquille Monday last on their way to a ranch they own twelve miles below Bandon. Mr. Croft, Sr., is a candidate for state senator from the twenty-seventh senatorial district of Washington. He speaks highly of Coos county and the prospects for rapid progress in the near future.

Church Dedicated at Bridge

Sunday, August 4, was a high day at Bridge, the important event being the dedication of the church at that place. At 11 o'clock State Secretary C. F. Swander preached a sermon, and cash and pledges raised in sufficient to clear the indebtedness and finish the interior of the building. At noon a bountiful dinner was served at the church and at 2 p. m., the church was formally dedicated to the worship of God. Another sermon followed the dedication and the crowd adjourned till 8 p. m., when Evangelist Williams closed his short series of meetings with a splendid sermon on "The Judgment."

Rev. T. B. McDonald of the Church of Christ of this city, took part in the services. The people of Bridge are happy in possessing this church and in the successful services of the day.

A Wide Awake Slumber Party

A "slumber" party, in honor of the visiting girls, was given by Miss Marguerite Longston on last Thursday night. The guests invited to slumber were the Misses Curry, Woodford, Bessie and Dixie Mahan and Eula Slagle. Messrs. Neiman, Charles Harlocker, Owen Knowlton, Earl Slagle, Walter Oerding and Perry Lawrence were also invited by the hostess to join a theater party in the early part of the evening. Returning to the home, the guests were served with refreshments, and games and various amusements helped to while the time away until the wee sma' hours of the morning when the young men departed to their homes and the young ladies to "Slumberland."

Religious Rivals

A dollar and a penny once happened to be together in the same pocket, and the dollar began to put on airs. "I am a big gun," said the dollar, "and you are nobody. I am white and bright, and you are only a dull, mud colored Indian. I am religious for I am all the time saying 'In God We Trust,' and you are only a pagan. I am patriotic for on one side I have the American eagle and the other the goddess of liberty, and I buy lots of fireworks on the Fourth of July. I am heavenly-minded for I have the stars to think about, and you don't have anything. I am precious, for I am nice bright silver and everybody wants me; but you are the base copper and nobody cares a snap for you."

"That may all be so," said the poor little penny. "You may be more patriotic than I am and more religious than I am, but I go to church more than you do and am found in the contribution box oftener than you are."—Ex.

FISHER'S BLEND FLOUR

Better than the Best

WITHOUT our knowledge, the Columbus Laboratories of Chicago tested FISHER'S BLEND FLOUR for a Dakota Wheat Grower. The analysis ranked FISHER'S BLEND FLOUR higher in General Average, Gluten Quality, Water Absorption and Loaf Value than the best Dakota all-Hard Wheat Patent Flour, which is the recognized standard for bread-stuff efficiency. FISHER'S BLEND FLOUR is a scientific combination of Eastern Hard Wheat and Western Soft Wheat, preserving the best qualities of each. It costs you from 20 to 25% less than a straight Eastern Hard Wheat Flour—does
