PATRIOTISM—OUR MOTIVE

OBITUARY

Died—In Coquille, Wednesday morning, December 4, 1912, Mrs. May J. Pendleton, aged 70 years.

Mrs. Pendleton was a native of Tennessee, and early in life moved to the west in the primitive mode of conveyance. She was a resident of Coos county for forty years having lived a greater portion of the time in the Fat Elk district near Coquille.

Two children were born to her—a daughter, Dora, who died several years ago and is buried at Empire, and a son, C. E. Pendleton, of Fat Elk who survives her.

The cause of death, as given by the physician in charge, was aneurism.

Mrs. Pendleton was stricken with the malady at about 5:30 Tuesday evening and her suffering was ended at 5:15 the following morning. Her long residence in Coquille won for her many acquaintances.

While not a member of any religious organization, she was a regular attendant at church services and always led a life in keeping with christianity.

Funeral services at Ellingsen's Undertaking Parlors today (Thursday) at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. Turner B. McDonald.

Saturday evening, November, 16, at 6:30 o'clock, Chris W. Jackson after a lingering illness of many months, fell asleep at his temporary home on Bald Knob Heights, Tucson, Arizona. His mother, father and brother were with him when the spirit of the son and brother took its flight to the Master. His mother had been his faithful nurse for seven long months bestowing the loving care and attention that only a loving mother can give.

Chris was converted when nine years of age. He attended the public schools and then the University of Oregon. For nine years he was afflicted with the great white plague and made three trips to Arizona going to Tucson about three months ago where he remained until the last call.

Asleep in the arms of Jesus blessed sleep, From which none fear to wake. He was patient, thoughtful of those about him and a reader of his Bible to the last hours. He leaves a father, mother, brother, wife and child to mourn his demise.

He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and B. P. O. Elks. The local Lady of Elks took charge of the body and made all arrangements regarding the funeral and the shipping of the body to his old home in Ashland, Oregon.

The funeral services were held at the O. C. Parker undertaking parlors, Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock, Rev. O. E. Comstock officiating.

The Pomona Grange recently in session at Roseburg, unanimously adopted a resolution commending District Attorney George M. Brown for his efforts in suppressing crime and lawlessness in Roseburg and Douglas county. They also pledged the moral and material support of the Grange whenever opportunity offers. Sheriff Quino and the Good Citizens' League were likewise commended.

Social Events

Mrs. E. A. Tyrrell showered Miss Cora Burns with a delightful surprise at her home last Wednesday evening. Social converse and a delicate lunch were potent factors in contributing to the pleasures of the guests. Those in attendance were:

Madames B. H. Burns, T. B. McDonald, Aaron Wilson, D. D. Pierce, E. C. Howey, M. O. Hawkins, E. A. Tyrrell, C. H. Cleaves, Hal Pierce, Juza Maury, Persley, and Misses Goldie Childs, Maggie Currie, Florence Gilman, Rachel Applegate, Beatie Maury, George Johnson, Hattie Sweet, Elsa and Doris Peoples, Iva, Hazel and Olive Howey.

Mrs. J. W. Leneve entertained at her home Wednesday evening, November 26, the event being in honor of the birthday of Miss Claire Sherwood. Ten tables were occupied by joyous guests who participated in the game of "500." Card honors were won by Mrs. T. B. Currie and E. J. Smith. A consolation prize was given Mrs. L. H. Hazard and J. A. Lamb and consisted of a framed original verse by a local poet. This prize caused considerable merriment. An elegant luncheon was served.

The following gentlemen, accompanied by their wives, were present: L. H. Hazard, A. J. Sherwood, D. D. Pierce, E. A. Tyrrell, Paul Sterling, Chas. Evland, Walter Sinclair, Leo J. Cary, M. H. Hartson, W. C. Rose, J. A. Lamb, J. A. Collier, J. S. Barton, L. A. Liljeqvist, Oliver Sanford, Geo. Robinson, Bert Folsom, Chas. Baxter, Fred Slagle, Frank Burkholder, T. B. Currie, George, Henry and Ed Lorenz; Mrs. Nicklin, Mrs. Ida Owen; Messrs. J. E. Smith, Claude Moon; Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Reberg, of North Bend.

The guest of honor and all present have just reason to be proud of their hostess.

A Sorrowful Mission

R. W. Adkins of Rushmore, Minnesota, a brother of Jesse T. Adkins, killed on the Seelye-Anderson logging railroad, arrived last Sunday to take possession of the body. Mr. Adkins has telegraphed relatives in Minnesota stating the badly cut up condition of the unfortunate, deeming it advisable, under the circumstances, to inter the remains in the land where fate befell. An answer is awaited.

Yesterday R. W. Adkins called at the Herald office and informed us that the coroner's jury concluded their investigation, and that their verdict was to the effect that no blame for the accident was attached to any person or persons.

Bandon Notes

While strolling over a portion of our city Monday we counted fourteen residences in course of construction. Not so bad for December 1.

A fine girl babe was born Saturday to Captain and Mrs. Rosenbend. The happy father is master of the steamer Bandon.

The Eastern Star's ball given at the Bandon Opera House, Saturday evening was a swell affair, the costumes being elegant, the hall beautifully decorated and the music grand. The Star ladies never do things by halves.

Miss Rachel Applegate of Coquille attended the Thanksgiving ball given by the Eastern Stars.

George Armstrong, who was severely injured at the Randolph mill about three weeks ago, died at the Bandon hospital Sunday morning and was buried Monday in the K. P. cemetery, the funeral being held in the Episcopal church, under the auspices of the Odd Fellows of which order he was a member.

"He Laughed Till He Died"

Taylorburg, Ohio—Abe Skinner, the village pessimist, laughed himself to death from reading BIFF! the Great American Magazine of Fun which is making greater strides than any other magazine before the American public today. It is a magazine that will keep the whole family in good humor. The staff of Biff contains the greatest artists, caricaturists, critics and editors on the continent. It is highly illustrated and printed in many colors. It will keep the whole family cheerful the year 'round. You can afford to spend 50c a year to do this. Send this clipping and see today to the Biff Publishing Co., Dayton, Ohio, for one year's subscription.

Two Hearts That Beat As One—in a Duck

"Lans" Leneve exhibited a trophy of his prowess as a duck hunter to the Herald yesterday. It was two perfectly formed hearts which he took from a single duck while dressing the bird. The hearts were of uniform size although one was less firm than its associate, and it is thought it was not capable of performing the blood-discouraging functions through the system of its duckdom, and nature provided a new one.

"Lans" is well known in our community as a young man whose veracity is at par, and none of his acquaintances doubt his discovery of this unusual freak of nature.

Law vs. Lawlessness

Unusual activity was manifested on the street near the city hall yesterday occasioned by the usual result of those who imbibe the iniquitous booze.

Two loggers, possessing more muscular and brute force than common decency, intelligence or self respect, engaged in a spurious fist encounter to attract the attention of Marshal Everden who proceeded—as a good officer should—to arrest them. The inebriates attempted to thwart the officer's endeavor at arrest by each of them resisting with all the animal force at their command, but without avail.

One of the culprits, Bill Howell, broke two ribs and otherwise injured Marshal Heckam when he was on the force, and the remembrance of this occurrence caused our city marshal to use extra vigilance and power.

Howell's associate in lawless acts was Freeman Stewart, a likewise powerful man, who finally had to yield to the law.

The miscreants each contributed twenty dollars to the city coffers, but many have expressed the opinion that Howell, it being his second offense, should be made to suffer the maximum penalty.

Thus we have another evidence of the baneful results accruing to those who patronize a traffic made legitimate—and only averted—by law.

The Coos Bay Times gives the information that out of a total vote of 691 at the municipal election held in Marshfield Tuesday, 191 women used their franchise.

LOST—Moss agate about size of a quarter. Finder will receive reward by returning same to Herald office.

A Des Moines man had an attack of muscular rheumatism in his shoulder. A friend advised him to go to Hot Springs. That meant an expense of $150.00 or more. He sought for a quicker and cheaper way to cure it and found it in Chamberlain's Liniment. Three days after the first application of this liniment he was well. For sale by all druggists.

Write Ideas For Moving Picture Plays!

YOU CAN WRITE PHOTO PLAYS AND EARN $25.00 OR MORE WEEKLY
We Will Show You How

If you have ideas—if you can THINK—we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photoplays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever increasing demand. They are offering $100 and more, for single scenarios, or written ideas.

Nearly all the big film companies, the buyers of photoplays, are located in or near New York City. Being right on the spot, and knowing at all times just what sort of plots are wanted by the producers, our Sales Department has a tremendous advantage over agencies situated in distant cities.

We have received many letters from the big film manufacturers, such as Vitagraph, Edison, Essanay, Lubin, Imp, Solax, Rex, Reliance, Champion, Comet, Melies, Etc., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and we'll gladly teach you the secrets of success.

We are selling photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for publication."

Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you can think of only one good idea every week and will write it out as directed by us, and it sells for only $25., a low figure,
