PATRIOTISM—OUR MOTIVE

Court Not Clerk

In printing the report of the grand jury in last week's Herald a grievous error was made. The paragraph wherein the error occurred should have read: "We have inquired into the conduct of the County Surveyor's office and County Court's business," etc. "Clerk's" was inadvertently, erroneously and, to us, very painfully substituted, instead of "Court's."

"To err is human to forgive divine," and the editor of the Herald is not only human but man enough to acknowledge his faults and humbly ask forgiveness.

The report of the grand jury did not cast serious reflections upon any man, or men, and only gave certain reasons and recommendations which to them seemed proper, and, in this connection, all will agree that no mortal man is infallible.

Bandon's New Paper

The Western World—the initial number—has reached our desk. It is an eight-page six-column paper neatly printed, well edited and teems with advertisements—indicative of business energy at Bandon.

That the World will produce much literary substance to satiate the desires of the people of our sister city is manifestly evident.

We hope no internal agencies will ever exist to cause an eruption in the World and may its surface be so cultivated as to give forth abundant food of thought to the well being and consequent happiness of its patrons. We greet the World with a brotherly Selah!

Brick made in the yards along the Hudson river in the State of New York during the last ten years if laid flat would build a sidewalk twenty feet wide around the world.

F. B. Cameron, former editor of the Agitator, was called to the court house to transact unwelcome business regarding his booze emporium on South Slough.

The sum of $1,159,446 was contributed by 89,759 persons for the campaign expenses of Woodrow Wilson. W. R. Rust, a large owner in the Tacoma smelter and a prominent democrat, donated $7,000 to the fund. This is doubtless the largest sum given by any individual on the Pacific Coast.

The vast army of government employes throughout the nation are now placed upon the "anxious seat" there to remain until after the inauguration of Woodrow Wilson when their fate will be settled. Federal jobs to the number of 391,351 are held in the power of the president. It is the general opinion that the "ousting" process will not be hurriedly resorted to.

The Coquille River Manufacturing company is the name of a newly incorporated stock company which proposes to build a $10,000 plant at Bullards, near Bandon. The incorporators are C. A. Smith, Rev. D. A. McLeod, and Geo. Geisendorfer of North Bend and E. E. Johnson of Coquille. Men are now on the ground starting up the work of construction and it is said the mill will be ready for work February 1. —Coos Bay Harbor.

A new company has been formed capitalized at 10,000 shares of the par value of $10 each to promote the construction of a line of railroad from Grants Pass to Crescent City. Eight hundred voters of Grants Pass in mass meeting unanimously endorsed the proposition of a bond issue of $200,000 to aid the project. The route of the proposed road is through big redwood forests. Lumbermen and other business men of Crescent City will contribute large sums toward the enterprise. Prospects are very favorable for building the road.

In the Liquor World

Attorney-General Crawford of Oregon holds that if a city council declines to issue licenses to saloon men when they are entitled to them under the law, mandamus proceedings may be instituted against the council and prosecuted with success.

Considering averages, every man, woman and child of the 1,600 persons of Dewett, Iowa, will have to spend $5.63 for liquor next year if Fred Schlofeldt makes enough to pay his saloon license. His bid of $9,000 was accepted by the town council. This does not include the $6,000 state license. He will have the exclusive right to sell liquor in the town. He paid $4,000 for his town license last year.

We Will Show You How

If you have ideas—if you can THINK—we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photoplays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever increasing demand. They are offering $100 and more, for single scenarios, or written ideas.

Nearly all the big film companies, the buyers of photoplays, are located in or near New York City. Being right on the spot, and knowing at all times just what sort of plots are wanted by the producers, our Sales Department has a tremendous advantage over agencies situated in distant cities.

We have received many letters from the big film manufacturers, such as Vitagraph, Edison, Essanay, Lubin, Imp, Solax, Rex, Reliance, Champion, Comet, Melies, Etc., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and we'll gladly teach you the secrets of success.

We are selling photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for publication."

Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you can think of only one good idea every week and will write it out as directed by us, and it sells for only $25., a low figure.
