SUMMARY

Field throws, Leslie, 6; Oerding, 5; Mast, 5; Knowlton, 4; Foul throws, Oerding, 8.

The North Bend and Marshfield Basket Ball teams came from the Bay to wrest the laurels of victory from the valley teams; North Bend at Bandon, Marshfield at Coquille.
The North Benders defeated Bandon by handsome majority. The Marshfield Coquille game was very much one sided, the Coquille boys out-playing the visitors in all departments of the game. The first half ended Marshfield, 1, Coquille, 17.
The second half was a repetition of the first, the Marshfield boys never having a chance to win, played with a zeal that was admired by the crowd. The local boys showed some rather nifty team work and good basket shooting which was highly appreciated by the fans.

The Coquille team will play the Myrtle Point Alumni on Friday of next week, in this city.

Road in Good Shape

The editor had the pleasure of taking an enjoyable ride Sunday with J. L. Thompson in his Stode-baker car, Mrs. Thompson and Miss Getty being of the party. With the exception of a short hill about three miles out, the road was found in splendid condition for this time of the year, until the immediate vicinity of Myrtle Point was reached. There it was very rough, and the hill leading up into town is badly in need of attention. One pleasing sight along the way is the considerable amount of land in process of clearing, bringing greater areas into use. Every acre of the fine land of this valley still in the brush represents a part of a family shy in our population.

Can't Bring Thief To Answer Charge

F. L. Sawyer, who committed the theft of an overcoat in Bandon about the first of the year, and then skipped out on the Elizabeth seems likely to get off easy. After considerable strenuous work, the sheriff's office located him in San Francisco and caused his arrest there. But now the prosecuting witness, R. M. Watson, has returned to his home at Pocestello, Idaho, so that a requisition cannot be obtained and the man could not be convicted even if brought back. Deputy Sheriff Clyde Gage expresses a feeling which is the elder brother of annoyance over the situation.
