Electric Franchise Passes the Council

The city council at its meeting last night granted the franchise asked for by the Oregon Power Co., to furnish electricity for all purposes in this city. This franchise was submitted at a special meeting Friday evening and was then referred to the Light committee, who brought in a favorable report last night.

The full council was present, and the ordinance was placed upon its final passage after the necessary reading. The vote stood: Aye, Laird, Lyons, Sanford, Skeels and Pierce; no, Leach.

The franchise runs for 20 years, and is in the usual form. Fifteen cents per Kilowatt hour is named as the maximum rate for lighting or power, and $1.00 per month as the minimum rate per meter installed; $6.60 per month for 2000 c. p. arc street lamps; $1.80 per month for 80 c. p. incandescents or $1.50 on moonlight schedule. The city is given power "to determine by contract, ordinance or otherwise, the quality and character of each kind of product or service to be furnished," and may provide for a penalty for non-compliance. The Oregon Power Co. is required to furnish 24 hour service within 150 days from acceptance of the franchise. Acceptance must be filed within 35 days, or if the ordinance be referred to the people, within 10 days from its approval. A schedule of proposed rates and tolls must be filed within 15 days of the passage of the ordinance. Failure to comply with the provisions of the franchise works a forfeiture of the same.

Is Mexico the Place?

Editor Herald:

As one who has had some experience, I would answer like this: If you are a common laborer, no. If you are a stock man, then you are in the stock man's paradise, for January is as good for that as July; plenty of green grass the year around. Prices are as good as they are here for fat steers. If you are a farmer, you want to hit Mexico hard, for you can plant corn every day in the year, and raise three crops a year, and the land is so fertile that one acre will raise more grain than any two that I have ever seen in the States.

But I would say, be careful where you settle down there, as you can make a mistake there, as well as here. Get your land in the right place, on easy terms; go to work, and you can not fail. There is no such thing as a crop failure there, and there is a better market there than here. The rate from Tampico to New is 55c per 100 pounds, by steamer.

Now, as for scenery and beauty combined with all the good things you will find in the tropics, words fail to portray the reality to your mind. You must see it to realize; then you will pinch yourself for fear you are dreaming. As for climate, it is second to none. Rheumatism, catarrh, dropsy and all forms of kidney trouble leave in a short period.

As for war, there is none in the tropics; it is all north and west of Mexico City.

New Tax Law

The tax law adopted by the last legislature and to go into effect on January 1, 1914, relegates the sheriff, who has heretofore been sole collector, to the position of collector of delinquent taxes. In February the assessor will deliver the tax roll to the treasurer, collector under the new law, who retains it until September 1, date of delinquency, and then turns it over to the sheriff. Other changes in the tax laws include the elimination of the 3 per cent rebate for early payment of taxes. The law still permits the payment of one-half of the taxes on April 1, and the balance prior to September 1, but all taxes unpaid after April 1, will bear interest at the rate of 1 per cent a month and after September 1, a penalty of 10 per cent will be added, and interest will be charged at the rate of 12 per cent a year.

Good Game at Myrtle Point

Owing to the inclemency of the weather Sunday the league games were postponed, and will have to be played off at a later date.

The close contest at Bandon a week ago created quite a bit of interest and a lot of fans were anxious to see these teams meet again but they will have to wait.

After it was certain there would be no league games Sunday, Myrtle Point made arrangements for the locals to cross bats with them on their home grounds for a percentage of the gate money.

Captain Strong took his team up in automobiles and was followed by several car loads of the "faithful" who were rewarded by witnessing a splendid exhibition of the national pastime.

Meily, the elongated slabster, mounted the hill for Coquille and dished up a brand of ball that was too much for "bears" to fathom and easily defeated them 2 to 1.

Hart twirled his usual heady game, but the heavy stickers from Coquille were not to be denied and they bunched enough hits to capture the contest, which was highly interesting and well worth going to see.

Quite a large crowd paid admission to the game and a good deal of rooting was indulged in, but no rough stuff was pulled off, which is commendable.

BASE BATS

Sammy Tuttle stepped in a goat pier hole which caused him to let a lead out fall safely.

Bertucky tipped the first man who tried to steal by a mile, but later d split finger handicapped his throwing.

"Mike" Piper sapped out two safe ones off Hart's delivery and use nice judgment on a slow ball which rolled foul but was coached into letting another one go that went for a hit.

Harry Dement's work at short for Myrtle Point was a feature of the game, and when this lad gets a little more experience he is billed for faster company.

McDonald at second for Myrtle Point, played a nice game and strengthened their infield to a considerable extent. He cheated the visitors out of two hits.

Oerding hauled down two hard drives and hooked a fast one for a base hit. He is developing into a fast outfielder.

Meily's work on the hill top for Coquille was remarkable for he allowed but three little hits and two of these were given to his opponents by his own support and he must have fanned at least a dozen. He also gobbled a line drive and converted it into a double play in one inning that retired the side.

Poland made a running catch in right center that was a pipkin. He is one of the best outfielders in the league.

"Tip" O'Neil scored the first run for his team. He tore off a two-bagger close to the foul line and came home on an over throw to catch him at third.

Strain fumbled a couple of easy grounders and then redeemed himself by grabbing a sizzling one that nearly tore his glove off.

Umpire Blower's work was very good and the way he flies around and gets on top of every play should be pleasing to players and fans alike. He is certainly a capable and impartial official.

Married

HERMANN-PHILPOTT—At Prosper, Oregon, June 18, 1913, Carl Herman and Myrtle Philpott, Rev. F. F. Eddy officiating.

The marriage took place at 4 p. m. at the residence of the groom's mother and in the presence of the relatives of the contracting parties. A fine wedding supper was later enjoyed and quite a number of appropriate gifts were presented to the young couple. Both the young people are well known and popular, the bride having grown up near Prosper, and the groom having lived there a number of years and being engaged in the boat building business, of which he makes a decided success. They have the hearty best wishes of all their acquaintances for their happiness.

Thirty-Eight Years?

"I have seen every building that has ever been erected in Myrtle Point put up from the start to the finish. I was where Myrtle Point now is long before the town was ever thought of, and when there was nothing but Indian trails through the woods," said Z. T. Johnson, who is in Portland in attendance at the Masonic Grand Lodge. "There are good prospects for the coming year, and we expect a lot of business before the year is over." Mr. Johnson has been a resident of that neighborhood for 38 years.—Portland Journal.

All the papers in the county, including the Enterprise, seem to be copying the above without comment. But when the writer remembers that he attended a Fourth of July celebration in Myrtle Point in 1876; that it was then quite a chunk of a town, and that the "grand ball" was held in the big hall in the Hermann brick building, it really seems as though there were a discrepancy somewhere, in the figures.

School Site Purchase Stopped by Injunction

On complaint of Geo. E. Peoples, County Judge Hall has issued a restraining order forbidding the school board of this city from making the purchase of two blocks of land, known as the Barrows & Strang tract, for a school site, as authorized at a recent special school election.

It is alleged that the recent special election called by directors for the purpose of voting money for the purchase of a site and selection of same was without warrant in law. It is also alleged that the location at the extreme north line of the district is inconvenient and that the price $6000 is much too high for the land.

It is claimed that the favorable vote is not approved by the majority of tax payers and school patrons.

The matter will come before Judge Coke after his return to the county.

Bargain for Light Plant

It is reported that an understanding has been reached by the H. M. Byllesby company and Frank Morse, owner of the plant which supplies electric light for this city and Myrtle Point, by which the former will take over the plant if a satisfactory franchise can be obtained from the city.
