False Alarm

Considerable excitement was caused in this city yesterday by a story which was going the rounds, to the effect that an old man had made an attempt to assault a young girl.

The man who works at a logging camp was taken into custody while on his way home, but when the officers investigated the story it was found that there was nothing to it and the man was released. It seems that he had been drinking, and meeting the little girl near the depot he gave her a dime, and some men coming along mistook his actions, with the results that he narrowly escaped a lynching before the real facts were known.

Cool, refreshing drinks at Folsom's.

Trustee for Oil Company

The affairs of the Miocene Oil and Gas company, of Bandon have been placed in the hands of a trustee and Judge C. A. Schibred has appointed W. J. Conrad, of Marshfield to the place. Mr. Conrad went to Bandon yesterday and took charge of the company's affairs, including the books, cash and property at the well on Bear creek. The company collected in all $27,415.91 for sales of stock, and there was an amount of $13 in the treasury when the affairs were turned over to Mr. Conrad.—The Record.

Good Roads Meeting

The meeting of the Coos County Good Roads Association, which was called for Thursday evening at Marshfield, has been postponed until Friday evening when it is hoped that every one interested in good roads who can possibly do so will be present. If anything is to be done this year no time is to be lost.

There are questions to be discussed and problems to be thrashed out in connection with the proposed bond issue before the matter can be properly shaped up for action, and it is only by discussion and consultation that the people of the county can get together on a program upon which all agree. The gentlemen who are pushing the good roads propoganda are devoting much time and no little money to the work and as all will be benefited by its accomplishment, all should take an interest and be willing to help in greater or less degree.

The county Court has just made a long step in advance by appointing a county road superintendent under the law passed some years ago. This is in direct line with the latest thought in road improvement, and is a necessary preliminary to the putting of road work upon a scientific basis.

It is probable that a petition for a bond election will be soon in circulation, and the campaign of education should be vigorously pushed from now on.

Vice-President O'Brien Visits Curry Co. Mines

(Gold Beach Globe)
Last week our town and Curry county was visited by at least one distinguished visitor. Vice-President O'Brien of the Southern Pacific, accompanied by two other gentlemen, mining engineers, came in by auto from Medford and paid a visit to the Wooley mine a few miles above Agness. Just what significance can be attached to Mr. O'Brien's visit is all conjecture at this time but it goes without saying that there are workings in the inner railroad circles that the public at large knows nothing of. This visit to the Agness copper belt by one of the higher ups of the S. P. system immediately after the announcement that the Southern Pacific had appropriated funds to build the road from Eureka, Cal. to Gold Beach, Ore., and that the road would either be built north to Marshfield or up the Rogue to connect with the Portland line, looks as though the Rogue river route is favored above the northern route. If there is no rail road importance attached to the visit of these gentlemen then it must be that the Agness mineral belt has received a great deal more consideration from the monied men than any one in this neck of the woods knows of. To say the least, Curry is under the lime light, on the eve of great developments and it behooves every citizen of the county to help the good cause along by showing the stranger ever courtesy due him.

Sunday's Game

Coquille landed on Poland for 15 hits Sunday and easily defeated the Myrtle Point team by a score of 9 to 2. An attendance of about 300 witnessed the game which was a very interesting one despite the one sided score. Poland tossed the entire nine innings for the visitors on account of Cooper, their regular heaver, being laid up with a sore wing, but his efforts were no mystery to the local stickers who slammed him rather hard. Collier twirled six innings for the home team and his speed was dazzling. Not only did he put it all over his opponents but he also battered up Bill Edwards so that he had to retire with a badly swollen mitt.

In the six inning Collier retired in favor of Osburn whom the fans wished to see work and that artist gave an exhibition of his skill that was pleasing to the onlookers and showed them that he has a lot of cunning stowed away in his system. The features of the game were Collier's and Ausburn's pitching and the hitting of the entire team. Coquille goes to Marshfield next Sunday.

Bandon defeated Marshfield 2 to 0 and lost the game to North Bend 6 to 2. Have not heard at the present writing whether Stadridge the losing pitcher has been whipped or not.

BASE HITS

Bill Edwards caught a nice game handling Colliers slants in big league fashion, but had to retire in the 5th owing to a badly bruised hand. He promises a lot of strength to the team in that position and will be there with bells on next Sunday.

Bertuey whom Coquille released has signed up with Myrtle Point and caught for that team in the Sunday game.

Oerding and Howell collided while trying for a ball that either could have gotten, causing the ball to fall safe. Some one should have run out and coached the play for it allowed a score to come in later in the game.

Strain headed off a drive back of second that was labeled "base hit" but made a wild peg to first and the runner was safe. Anyway it was a beautiful toy and pleased the fans.

Besides pitching a masterful game Collier slammed out two three baggers and a single and is batting over 400. Some striking for a pitcher.

Mike Piper played the difficult corner like a "Collius" and bumped Poland for two two base hits and a single. This kid gets the ball away like a flash.

Oerding beat out a couple of in field hits and ran the bases like a deer. It takes fast fielding and sure pegging to nail this lad at first.

Bruce Johnson met with an accident Friday that cost him a finger and also the team his services for the rest of the season. His hitting has been a feature of the teams playing this summer and he will certainly be missed.

After a long lay off with a broken arm "Spike" Leslie broke into the game Sunday and played a nice game. Mgr. Lorenz expects great work from this youth.

"Tamp Ausburn" joined the team this week and moved his family to this place. Coquille is fortunate in securing the services of this player for it gives the home team the strongest pitching staff in the league and the people who like to see the team win should loosen up and give them the support it takes to finance a winner.

Howell got two singles Sunday and gobbled two high flies. His stick work is improving.

Sammy Tuttle nicked the horsehide for a long drive and hit the dirt going to second like a "Ty Cobb." Sammy relieved Edwards behind the bat when the latter was injured and played a classy game. He plays any old position and plays it well and goes about his work without a murmur.

Tip O'Neil played center for Bandon and won the game for them by a homer over the fence.

Nick Lorenz was back in his old position at second and showed up with a lot of pepper. He landed hard on the ball but always hit it in some ones hands.

The Coquille team looks stronger at the present time than ever before and the fans should take interest enough in it to see it financed through the season. It takes money to run a ball team and we have one so let's get together.

Miely who has been working for Coquille as extra pitcher went to Bandon and worked for that team against Marshfield and shut them out. This may cause Marshfield to protest the game on the grounds that Miely had not been released.

ADMISSION 5c and 10c

Margaret Wolverton in the Fourth Methodist church last evening by Rev. C. E. Winning. Both bride and groom are past the sixty mark and both have tried sailing on the matrimonial seas previously.

The auditorium of the church was patriotically decoratively decorated in the national colors for the occasion. Flags and streamers in profusion covered the walls. The Woman's Relief Corps and the members of the local G. A. R. attended the ceremony in a body. The couple will make their home in this city at 938 9 St.

Such is Law

The law sometimes makes queer blunders. One day last month two men were put on trial in a New York City court, charged with having committed an assault with a club upon a tailor who refused to go on strike with his fellows. When the case was called the prosecuting officer moved the discharge of one of these two prisoners on the ground that the was no evidence against him. As soon as he was discharged, he was placed on the stand, and testified that the other prisoner could not have committed the assault, because he himself had committed it. The other man accordingly went free, and the Constitution of the United States does not permit a second prosecution of the man who confessed he was guilty.—The Youth's Companion.

No Preferred Right

In order, he said to frustrate schemes of unscrupulous land agents who are selling preferred rights to land within the forfeited California & Oregon Railroad grant, Senator Chamberlain at Washington on the 2nd had read in the Senate and printed in the record, a letter from United States Attorney Reed, stating that no preferred rights exist to these lands in the present status of the suits. Two years will be required to obtain a final decision of the cases in the United States Supreme court, and if the decision of the lower court is sustained legislative action will then be necessary for the disposal of the lands. Money for alleged preferred rights, in the opinion of Reed, will be a total loss to purchasers.

Fish and Game Laws

Fish and game laws of the state of Oregon have been compiled into a book of 198 pages, by William L. Finley, State Fish and Game Warden, and they are now ready for distribution throughout the state. About one half of the book is confined to the laws for the protection of food fish. Just what is lawful and what is unlawful are clearly defined. Mr. Finley desires to get the books distributed among the sporting goods stores, gun clubs and angling clubs as soon as possible. Copies of the booklets may be had by writing or calling at the office of Mr. Finley, 808 Yeon building, Portland, Oregon.

CURRY COUNTY CULLINGS

(From the Port Orford Tribune)
Miss Lusk departed Saturday for her home at Myrtle Point, having finished her term of school at the Ferry.

Many changes have been made in the county road between Langlois and Bandon during the past year, and that road now presents a much improved appearance.

Louie Marsh came into town Saturday from his home on Elk river. It is the young man's first visit to this place since his late protracted illness, however he is looking hale and hearty, and is fast regaining his former robust strength.

Much of the 1913 wool clip of Curry county has been contracted for sale at 16c; with the growers to have the benefit of any raise in the market between now and the time the wool is delivered. Others, however, are holding for 20c flat, and believe that they will get it.
