$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one druggist who has been able to cure in all his stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Forgot to Change The Date

As will be noted by the erroneous date line on the first page of this issue, the catastrophe against which all printers try to guard has overtaken the Herald, and we "forgot to change the date." This issue should be dated

MERELY MENTIONED

North Bend has a prospect of getting a first-class hotel at last.

For your Fall Seeding get your Seeds at Knowlton's Drug Store.

W. T. Merchant, of Marshfield, was a visitor to this city yesterday.

J. E. Norton, of Nosler & Norton, is off on a business trip to San Francisco.

Automobile service, any time. T. A. Walker, call either phone. Stand. Farmers & Merchants Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morse visited at the home of L. A. Lawhorn, at McKinley, Sunday.

Mrs. Ralph Nosler and little daughter Frances start today for a visit of a couple of weeks with friends at Gardiner.

The Drews singing and dancing act coming to the Scenic is first-class. Don't miss it. 10c and 20c.

A number of Socialists in the county are registering as Democrats, for reasons which have not been given out.

Lyons & Jones have still some of those California Solways, the best canning Peaches. Better get some before they are all gone.

Hon. B. F. Jones, of Roseburg, has admitted to his friends that he will be a candidate before the primaries for the nomination for congressman from this district.

Knowlton's Drug Store has received a supply of New Crop Grass Seeds, which is sold at lowest possible prices.

Jackson county has proved her progressiveness by voting $500,000 bonds for the construction of her portion of the Pacific Highway, thus setting a good example for Coos.

C. A. Pursley, who has been helping his brother, Frank C. Pursley in the Coquille Haberdashery during vacation, has returned to Milton, Oregon, where he will attend Columbia College.

Lyons & Jones will receive on the Breakwater a shipment of Yellow Crawford Peaches from Portland. J. S. Lawrence has handed in his resignation as clerk of the mangled remains of the school board, but no action has been taken on the same. Mr. Lawrence loves peace more than war, and the school board has evidently got onto his nerves.

B. K. Leach came in from Roseburg Sunday and was before the grand jury yesterday. When seen on the street here yesterday morning he was accompanied by a mysterious stranger. So far as heard from, no insults nor indignities have been offered to Leach, and his alleged fear of violence was all nonsense.

The Coquille Mill and Merc. Co. call attention to the fact that they are better prepared than ever to supply apples, prunes and tomato boxes. Shipments made promptly by rail or steamer. All orders will receive immediate attention. —Both Phones—
Coquille Mill & Merc. Co.

For prices on New Crop Grass Seeds inquire at Knowlton's Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson have returned from an outing in California.

California Solway Peaches for canning at Lyons & Jones.

The Breakwater will go on her seven day winter schedule this week, sailing from Marshfield next Saturday and every Saturday thereafter.

The Bradley Candy Co., of Marshfield, shipped a ton of candy to Portland last week, and this reversal of the usual course of trade speaks well for a growing Coos county enterprise.

If the kind gentlemen who contributed a sack of fine spuds to the editor's commissary department a short time ago will come in and divulge who he was, we will give him credit on subscription, as per contract.

If you are interested in Yellow Crawford Peaches watch for the shipment which will be received by Lyons & Jones on the incoming Breakwater.

Mrs. E. Frances Musick, who has been teaching a short term of school on Coos river, was visiting friends in town over Sunday, being on her way back to Bridge, where she resumes charge of the Farmers' line central office.

John McGovern, a rigging man at Smith-Powers camp No. 5 at Coal-Edo, was almost instantly killed last Tuesday by being struck by a log. He was a member of the Marshfield Aerie of Eagles and was buried under the auspices of that order.

Big Cine-Kleine three-reel feature picture, "The Miser's Millions," coming to the Scenic. Watch for the date.

Attorney R. O. Graves, against whom disbarment proceedings have been started on the ground that he was active in the deportation of the I. W. W. anarchists, will have the solid support of the Coos County bar, as well as the local organization of the O. N. G.

The mandamus proceedings instituted by Barrows & Strang, to compel R. H. Mast, as chairman of the school board, to sign warrants for the purchase price of the new school site, are resting quietly, no answer having yet been filed.

In the case in Circuit court last week wherein Geo. Watkins, the Marshfield attorney and humorist sued L. D. Kinney for $5000 for legal services, the jury evidently took the view that Mr. Watkins' charge was one of his jokes, and judgment for $571 was awarded.

C. J. Fuhrman and wife have returned from their visit to California points, which they greatly enjoyed. Mr. Fuhrman says that San Francisco is a wonderful city, but otherwise California did not make any great hit with him, and he is more than glad to be in Coquille again.

Manager Wilson had the projecting machine at the Scenic taken apart and thoroughly overhauled last Thursday. As a result, and owing to the fact that the juice did not come on early enough to allow of full adjustment before the show, the thing did some bucking during the evening, but the audience took it good-naturedly. And the machine is working better for the overhauling.

I. Hacker, who arrived from California and is visiting at the home of his son-in-law, L. H. Hazard, is contemplating moving back here permanently but has not fully decided to do so. Mr. Hacker was one of the early residents of Marshfield, and later lived here a number of years, and his many old acquaintances are glad to see him again on our streets.

A Herald want ad will find a renter for your house, or a house for your renter.

As we go to press the word comes of the death of Wm. Winsor, one of Curry county's earliest and most highly respected citizens, who passed away at North Bend, where he had gone for medical assistance.

Record time was made the other night in repairing some difficulty at Myrtle Point which had left half the town without lights. A repair gang was sent from here in an automobile and had the trouble all fixed within 45 minutes from the time the complaint was made.

H. Sengstacken, of the T. G. & A. Co., was here on business yesterday. Mr. Sengstacken had in his pocket a copy of the first plat of Marshfield ever filed in the court house. This was placed on record in 1857 and shows only a few blocks on the water front, showing the site of the first store, afterwards M. Kerrigan's hotel.

Got His Buggy

Herald want ads do the business. R. A. Easton writes from Sitkum: "Advertising in the Herald surely brings results. The ad. 'Buggy Wanted by T. S. Easton,' must have given him the pick of all the old buggies in the county, judging by the number of replies to one insertion. He got one."

Apple Boxes

We manufacture the standard box prescribed and approved by the state horticultural society, and adopted by the State Legislature, and until further notice will sell boxes in any quantity at the following prices:

APPLE BOXES ..... 8c
PRUNE BOXES ..... 7c
TOMATO BOXES ..... 6c

Wrestling at Scenic

Manager Wilson has secured a new attraction for the Scenic, and a wrestling match will be pulled off there next Saturday evening, between "Smiling Dutch," 145 pounds, light-weight champion of Germany, Jack White, 134 pounds, light-weight champion of California. This will be an exhibition bout, two best out of three falls, and the Police Gazette rules will govern. Lovers of this branch of athletics are promised a treat. Don't miss it. See small bills later.

Girl is Some Hunter

A Gold Beach dispatch to the Telegram says: County Clerk Stannard was somewhat taken aback last week when into his office walked Caterin Nodine, of Langlois, a slender young girl, who presented for bounty the skins of 17 wildcats killed by herself during the past five months. The cats varied in size, some of them being very large and resembling the lynx species more than wildcats. Miss Nodine lives on a ranch back in the hills and with the aid of a good dog has probably made a record that is unequalled in Oregon as a deadly enemy of these scourges.

"The Coming Race"

Here is the way papers will write up weddings ten years hence: "The bride looked very well in a traveling dress, but all eyes centered on the groom. He wore a dark suit that fitted his form perfectly, and in his dainty gloved hands he carried a small rose. His curly hair was beautifully done, and a delicate odor of hair oil of the best quality floated down the aisle as he passed. The young people will miss him now that he is married. He is loved by all for his many accomplishments, his tender grace and his winning ways. The bride commands a good salary as bookkeeper, and the groom will miss none of the luxuries to which he has been accustomed. A crowd of pretty men saw him at the depot. Get your butter wrappers at the Herald office.

Last Night's Hold-up

Ted Tozier and Carmel Saunders, two young men of this city are in serious trouble today over a crime which they are alleged to have committed last night, and it is likely that another will find himself involved. As the story is told this morning these two held up a man who had just come in from the Willitt & Burr camp and relieved him of $175. It seems that Saunders offered to steer him to a resort and started with him toward the depot. On the way they were set upon by two men who demanded their money. The stranger put up a fight but could get no help from Saunders who kept out of it. The victim was overpowered and his money taken. He came back and reported his loss to the nightwatchman and Saunders and Tozier were rounded up. The money was found in Tozier's sock. The two were locked up, one in the city jail and one at the court house, and it is likely that the grand jury will get busy on their cases without delay. Considerable sympathy is being expressed for the relatives of the young men.

Street Work

The high knoll on the south side of Front street, on the way to the depot, is being removed and the dirt used to fill in on C. and Front at the junction of those two streets, where it will perform a much more useful function than at its old location. Half a dozen teams with scrapers are doing good work on the project.

The Longston Construction Co. received last week a concrete mixer for use in the street contract held by that firm. It has already seen service in putting in the bulkhead at the east end of Front street. The old planking at that point has been torn up, preparatory to filling.

The Coos Bay Paving Co. finished the laying of concrete on Second street Friday and have moved their machinery to Marshfield.

Circuit Court

The case of Andrew Heckels, which was up for yesterday, was referred by Judge Coke to three referees before whom the matter will be thrashed out in Marshfield. A large number of witnesses were on hand here and it would have taken several days to try the case. There is a long docket yet to be disposed of.

The liquor case from Beaver Hill against J. H. McCutcheon, wherein he is charged with selling liquor to minors, was on trial yesterday and this morning. Mr. McCutcheon was on the stand this morning and gave ready and positive testimony for himself, but was convicted by the jury.

Besides the Leach matter, the grand jury has considerable business on hand.

The court is busy this afternoon on a right-of-way case, between the county and Huntley, who lives

City Council

The city council meeting last evening was devoted mainly to street matters and two contracts of some importance were let.

On the improvement of Hall streets two blocks from First to Second, the Longston Construction Co. bid $9383 and Wm. Peart $7650 the latter getting the job.

On the improvement of Moulton street from Second street to the bridge Wm. Peart also took the contract with a bid of $1250 against that of $1305 from the Longston Construction Co.

By request of Mrs. Emma Manpin C. M. Manpin was placed on the list of ineligible for booze.

City Engineer Hobson filed a report on the Second street improvement, to the effect that a number of faulty places which had been pointed out to the contractors during the progress of the work had not been replaced or repaired, that with one or two small exceptions quality of the concrete mixture is good; and recommending that a date be set and the contractors notified to be present and go over the work with the street committee.

The city attorney was instructed to draw a resolution requiring property owners along First street to make connections with the sewer and make a cleanup of objectionable and unsanitary conditions now existing.

A Nasty Mess Being Probed
The grand jury is understood to be probing another nasty mess in which some Coquille boys and young men, and perhaps some older, are involved. It seems that about fair time two young girls of the lower river, aged about 18 and 14 respectively decided to forego the paths of respectability and go the pace. They visited different towns of the valley and made themselves very conspicuous. Coming to Coquille, they rented a room and commenced drumming the streets. Their boldness was surprising, and the makeup in which they appeared could leave no doubt in the mind of a beholder as to their character. It is said that a number of the would-be sports got mixed up with them before their wild career was brought to a temporary end by their arrest. The older was lodged in jail and the younger was placed in charge of her mother. Several parties including the girls, have been called before the grand jury, and there is little doubt that startling developments are forthcoming. It is said that a number of the young males of the community have taken to the woods.

Stevens Loses

The case of F. A. Stevens, the North Bend job printer, against C. A. Johnson, which was tried in the Circuit court last week, resulted in an instructed verdict for defendant. Stevens was trying to collect a note for $100 given to Geo. Averill in payment for a stock subscription on a wildcat automobile tramway which Averill was promoting, and on which he fell down. He turned the notes over to Stevens in payment of indebtedness, together with some others of the same nature, the makers of the notes refused to pay on the ground that they had received no consideration. Stevens had obtained judgment against two other parties, from juries, but in this case Judge Coke instructed the jury to find for defendant. It looks as though Stevens might lose several hundred dollars by allowing himself, like Old Dog Tray, to be caught in bad company.

Licenses to Wed

County Clerk Watson issued the following marriage licenses during the week:

Hans C. Peterson and Violet C. Johnson.
John A. Sundman and Della Culbertson.
Joseph Schmidding and Kara Shouse.
Carl Zimmerman and Eva Pearl Chesney.
Norman E. Johnson and Beatrice S. Smith.

blindness for the past two years, and the old couple have been taken care of by a grand-daughter. Mrs. Johnson had been sick for three months and confined to her bed for about ten days. Besides her husband Mrs. Johnson leaves two daughters, Mrs. Butworth, of Portland and Mrs. A. E. Johnson, of Marshfield. Also four sons, Ira, William and Russ, of Coquille and George, of Skamokawa. All were present at the last excepting Mrs. Butworth and George Johnson, who were both sick and unable to come. The funeral was held Monday from the residence and interment was in the Masonic cemetery.

New Train Schedule

By the new train schedule which went into effect on Sept. 14th, the train runs to Beaver Hill on the morning southbound trip Mondays and Thursdays. On these days it is due from Marshfield at 9:47 and leaves for Myrtle Point at 9:53 returning at 11:25 and leaving for Marshfield at 11:35. No change is made in the afternoon schedule.
