The steamer Dora was caught in the drift at the mouth of the north fork during the high water and slightly damaged.

Marshfield has a jeweler named Woodrow and Coquille has one named Wilson. They ought to join forces, in these Democratic times.

If you are going to buy a Rubber Boot buy a pair of Ball brand at Lyons & Jones.

The Coos Bay Paving Company is now engaged in smoothing up the surface of Second street so that it looks more like a finished job.

The heavy rains raised the north fork of the Coquille about seven feet, and some logs broke loose at Myrtle Point but were picked up again.

G. T. Treadgold, the Bandon attorney who was active in the promotion of the Port of Bandon, has been appointed attorney for the port commission.

The body of Eric North, who fell from the steamer Charm Sept. 30, was found last Thursday by Ed Clinton lodged against a boom near where he was drowned at Parkersburg.

Take your subscriptions for all magazines and periodicals to Folsom's Confectionery. You will get the regular publishers' rates, with the benefit of any special offers, and save the trouble and expense of sending the money, with no risk of loss.

The small creditors of Major Kinney, on Coos Bay, are much encouraged by the position taken by Receiver Watters, who evidently does not intend that the property shall be looted by a gang of highway-men.

T. A. Walker is sporting a seven passenger Studebaker car and trying to train his hands and feet to go to the right place automatically, as the doodads are located somewhat differently than in the Ford he has been using. He has sold the Ford to W. Erank Petett, who will keep it running like a watch.

That the poultry farmers of this valley are not living up to their opportunities is shown by the fact that it has recently been necessary to ship in eggs from Portland to fill the gap.

H. O. Anderson is building an addition to his residence which will give much more room and add greatly to the convenience of the dwelling. He is falling in with the latest idea by providing two outside sleeping rooms or porches, so that when he happens to snore there will be a chance for the noise to get away.

Mr. and Mrs. John Snyder, who were once in the hotel business here and who removed to Marshfield in 1884, where they have since been in the same line, have leased the Snyder Hotel to H. W. Volkman, late of Vancouver, and will retire to private life and a well-earned rest.

A rumor was current last week to the effect that the teachers in the public school would go on a strike Friday night unless they were paid the wages due, but it seems that this was only street talk and that the teachers had no serious intention of proceeding to such extreme measures.

A. H. Ames, of North Bend was brought here last week and later taken to the asylum at Salem, having been pronounced insane. It will be remembered that Ames' wife made serious charges against the mate of the steamer Alliance, on which she had made the trip from Portland; that she was later adjudged insane and died in the asylum.

J. N. Bayless, who has been doing some work by contract at the new brick yard which is being opened on the isthmus, was in town Saturday and says that he has about finished the job but expects some more work there. He says that the new industry is a much more important development than is generally realized; that it is, in fact, going to be a big thing.

Testimony in the disbarment proceedings against R. O. Graves was taken before Referee Peck at Marshfield last week, and the general impression seems to be that the charges made were not sustained. The testimony will now go to the Supreme Court, and it is a safe bet that Mr. Graves will be allowed to continue the practice of his profession at the old stand.

A Herald want ad does the business. C. C. Evland placed a small want ad in the Herald a couple of weeks ago, offering the Tuttle House for rent, and now he has just leased the house to a new arrival who never saw the Herald in his life.

Having failed to have Mayor Straw of Marshfield courtmartialed by the Naval Militia for participation in the I. W. W. deportation, Governor West now proposes to fire him off the board on the excuse of non-attendance at meetings.

Registration Open Again

The Herald is in receipt of the following self-explanatory letter from County Clerk Watson. The registration books were closed on the 4th of this month, on the understanding that the coming election came under the head of a regular election, so far as the closing of the registration was concerned. Those who had not registered at that time now have the balance of this week in which to repair the omission.

Coquille, Ore., Oct. 10, 1913.
Editor of The Coquille Herald,
Coquille, Oregon.
Dear Sir,
I have this day received a telegram from the Attorney General stating that the Election to be held November 4, 1913, is a Special Election as far as the County Clerk's Office is concerned, therefore, the period of registration of electors will continue up to and including the 18th day of October, 1913.
Kindly make mention of the ruling in your paper.
Yours truly
JAMES WATSON
County Clerk.

Street Work Delayed

The rain which prevailed for several days last week put a temporary stop to grading operations on the improvement of Front and C streets but the contractors did not lose an hour of time more than was necessary. They even had teams out in the mud when they were working at the greatest disadvantage, and the grading on both streets is now nearly completed. The concrete sidewalk is now being laid on the south side of the street, that on the north side having been finished a week ago. It is evident that the contractors propose to finish their job at the earliest possible moment and give a good thorature to the depot at last.

Will Open Soon

W. E. Cleghorn, who has rented the old city hall building, expects to soon be open for business with a stock of cigars and tobacco, confectionery, fruit etc. The painters and paper hangers were working on the building Saturday and had nearly completed their job. Mr. Cleghorn will have a neat stand in a good location for his business. Living rooms have been arranged in the back part of the building, and here Mr. and Mrs. Cleghorn will live for the present.

Apple Boxes

We manufacture the standard box prescribed and approved by the state horticultural society, and adopted by the State Legislature, and until further notice will sell boxes in any quantity at the following prices:

APPLE BOXES	8c
PRUNE BOXES	7c
TOMATO BOXES	6c

Will Sail on Speedwell

J. J. Lamb expects to sail on the first trip of the Speedwell, on his way to Chula Vista, Cal., where he will spend the winter at the home of his son-in-law, J. W. Byers. From there he will go to his old home in Jonesboro, Ark., and before returning will attend the conference of the M. E. Church South, which meets at Oklahoma City May 14, and to which he is a delegate. Mr. Lamb has been trying to get the Herald's consent to postpone his departure until after Nov. 1st, but as we had announced that he would go in October, he has kindly concluded to verify the prophecy.

The Hizz Funmakers

After playing the towns to the south on their way up the coast, the Hizz Funmakers opened at the Seaside last evening to a jammed house and held the crowd from 7:30 until after 10 o'clock. The entertainment, aside from the usual moving pictures, included vaudeville acts which were well received, the whole interspersed with a monolog which kept the audience in good humor. The medical feature of the entertainment occupied about half an hour, and every body got ten cents' worth outside of that. A number of presents were given away, as advertised. The company will be here for a week, and have secured the services of the Noydenn sisters, to take the place of one of their number who was called home by the illness of his mother.

Tuttle House Leased

Frank Hoffman, who recently arrived here from Portland, has made arrangements with C. C. Evland for the lease of the Tuttle House and will reopen that popular hotel on the arrival of his wife from Portland, which he expects will be in about two weeks. Mr. Hoffman is an experienced hotel man and a pleasant gentleman and will no doubt meet with good success in the hotel business here. Under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Evland the Tuttle House always enjoyed a good patronage, and there was mourning among their boarders when Mrs. Evland's need of rest compelled them to close the dining room, some months ago. The old patrons will be glad to see the place reopen.

Died

HAMMERBURG—At Bandon, Oregon, Oct. 13, 1913, J. W. Hammerburg, aged 74 years.

Capt. Hammerburg was a native of Sweden and was one of the pioneers of Coos Bay in the early sixties. He was engaged in logging on the Bay and later on this river, retiring from active service about six years ago. In 1879 he was married to Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Lowe, but she died within a year. Mr. Hammerburg was well up in Masonry, and his funeral, which takes place in this city tomorrow, will be conducted by Bandon Lodge No. 130. The Chirm will leave Bandon at 10 a. m., bringing the funeral cortege, and the time for the services here is set at 2 p. m.
