FROM THE NATIONAL CAPITAL

outright than in the more indirect method of putting it on the market as meat. This conclusion can be plainly seen in these startling figures. In 1910 there were in the range states of the west 30,000,000 cattle, while in 1913 there were but 23,000,000, a decrease of 7,000,000 in three years. To meet the constantly growing demands, Argentine beef has been shipped into this country, but it is found to be inferior in quality. With a view to benefit by this condition, the island of Guam is importing and raising standard breeds of American cattle. These when imbued with the native stock, prove to be of fair size and superior quality. Raising for the American market should be very profitable for the farmers of the island, as the vegetation is tropical and therefore very luxuriant. Also much land too rough and wet for tillage may be used to good advantage, and the tropical climate makes sheltering and indoor feeding unnecessary.

"STEP BY STEP"

"Ultimate Independence" for the Philippines is the settled program of President Wilson and his advisers, and as indicated in this correspondence on previous occasions, the work is to be done "step by step," this being exactly the term used several weeks ago by the correspondent of the Herald in describing the mental attitude of the President and this exact phrase was reiterated by the President in his message to Congress.

Moves Business to Bandon

W. G. Cleghorn, who opened a grocery in the old city hall building a short time ago, has transferred his business to Bandon. He has property there in Industrial addition and will have a store building erected adjoining his residence, where he will open up a suburban grocery and expects to do a good business. Mr. Cleghorn has had long experience in the grocery business and will undoubtedly draw trade wherever he locates. He is rather sore at the treatment he has received from the city council, in that no good way was provided for people to reach his store after the street was torn up for improvement and there seemed little prospect of anything being done in that way until the paving is finished next spring.

Mighty Right

Speaking of the recent city election in Marshfield, the Sun says: In the campaign great stress was laid upon Mr. McKeown's candidacy because he was a son-in-law of J. W. Bennett. It is unfortunate that Mr. Bennett had only one daughter, for had he more, he would never have to go begging for son-in-laws, as there are many who opposed McKeown for his good fortune, that would on a moments notice declare themselves in the eligible list.
