Nosler & Norton, the wholesalers, are installing a steam-heating plant for their offices and warehouses. They believe in having the best to be had in equipment as well as in the products they sell.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Henry Lorenz Friday, Feb. 13. They will begin serving at 5 o'clock, so as to afford ample time for the evening meeting.

The address on "the Constitution," delivered by A. J. Sherwood at the annual meeting of the Bar association, is highly spoken of and has been published by several of the papers which were able to give it space.

Give Lyons & Jones your orders for groceries. Their stock is clean and fresh.

W. P. Murphy was in the city this morning, on his way back to Marshfield from Bandon. He has been looking into the woolen mill proposition to some extent, and he did not seem to think that Marshfield capital would fall over itself to invest in the enterprise for the sake of bringing it to that town.

The Teachers' Sewing Club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Belle Gould. There were thirteen ladies present. The time was spent in needlework and general sociability, after which a delicious repast was served by the hostess.

Don't miss the great feature, "The Streets of New York," in four reels at the Grand tomorrow night. Admission the same, 5 and 10 cents.

Sheriff Gage returned Saturday from the Bay, where he placed under arrest one Wm. Sherman, who is wanted at Waupaca, Wis., on a charge of some seriousness. The man was found in a tie camp near the head of South inlet.

The Herald was the only paper in the county which gave a correct account of the distressing accident in which three young men lost their lives by drowning last week. For this we are indebted to M. M. Young, who obtained the particulars direct, over the phone.

According to the Bay papers, the hotel project in North Bend has fallen through. The North Bend people did their part by preparing to furnish a site for the building, but now the Eastern promoters report that they "Can't raise the money."

As will be noted in our East Fork items this week, a fund is being raised for a monument over the grave of young Morgan Shook, who lost his life while trying to rescue two companions from drowning. If unselfish heroism counts for anything, the last resting place of Morgan Shook should be well marked, and that of John Baumbaugh should not be forgotten.

Pleasant Party

Last Thursday evening a birthday and wedding anniversary were celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Schroeder, five miles east of this city. It was the birthday of Miss Leonore Lemanousky, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder, and the anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder. About twenty-five friends assembled at their home to join in wishing them many happy returns of the day. "500" was the entertainment for the evening, prizes being awarded to the couple having the highest score. After a very interesting game, the hostess served a splendid supper of cake, hot chocolate and fruit jellatin with whipped cream.

Library Notes

The public library has been very successful during the week for which it has been open for reading and lending of books.

Several books have been sent in by parties and a good sized check to purchase periodicals to be used in the room.

Mrs. Hoag will have a story hour from 3 to 4 each Thursday afternoon, for children from 4 to 8 years of age, and Mrs. Robertson will talk each Saturday afternoon from 4 to 5, to boys and girls from 8 to 14 years of age.

It is to be hoped the citizens will take an interest in the library and help in all the ways they can.

Railroad Work Resumed

Work on the Willamette-Pacific railroad, which was temporarily curtailed on account of the excessively bad weather, will be resumed full blast before the end of the month. Wm. Candlin, who returned from Marshfield Friday, said that men were being engaged as fast as possible for the work. It is understood that there will be no more cessation this season. A report was recently in circulation to the effect that it was expected to have the rails through to Coos Bay by the first of October, but this should be taken with mental reservations.

Johnson Sells Shop

W. B. Moss purchased the Johnson meat market last week and took possession at once. Mr. Moss was formerly in the cattle business at Grand Junction, Colo., and has had a long experience in that line. He has associated with him A. W. Jones, a skilled meat cutter, who has been in Marshfield for the past year. Al Sleep is still at his post in the shop.

First National Officers

At a recent meeting the following officers were re-elected for the year 1914, to attend to the business of the First National Bank of Coquille—President, A. J. Sherwood; Vice President, R. E. Shine; Cashier, L. H. Hazard; Assistant Cashier, O. C. Sanford.

Basket Ball

The Coquille High basket ball team won from Marshfield here last Friday night in the fastest and cleanest game of the season, the score being 40 to 11. It was Myrtle Point's date but some of their men being disabled made it impossible for them to fill it and there followed the arrangements with Marshfield.

The Marshfield boys thought that their defeat was due partially at least to the size of the Coquille floor and there was certainly something the matter because the boys played good and at times brilliant ball but seemed unable to make the baskets.

The Coquille boys showed up better than in any other game this season and the entire game was a wonderful exhibition of team work as well as individual playing. Again and again they made the basket on a signal without a single extra pass. Miller as guard was certainly there and covered his man completely. Leslie, center, played a wonderful game and shot baskets with a sureness that was startling. Kern and Oerding, playing forwards, made it a safe bet that the ball in their hands meant a basket while Watson played a good game.

Many were the remarks from the crowd upon the sporting spirit of the Marshfield boys, and they established a reputation for themselves as good losers and clean, straight-forward players.

Coquille goes to North Bend Friday for what they consider the most difficult game of the season. North Bend has defeated all the teams in the county except Coquille, and Coquille has defeated all but North Bend. Their meeting is bound to result in an interesting encounter. We wish to express our faith and hope in the Coquille boys, however.

City Council

The city council met last evening in a special session.

A resolution was passed making the assessment for the improvement of Moulton street in Elliott's addition 150 feet north from its intersection with Second street. An ordinance was passed making the assessments and directing collection of the same.

A resolution was passed instructing the recorder to issue a warrant for collection of delinquent assessments on the improvement of First street in Elliott and Notley's additions.

A resolution was adopted for an application to the state engineer for a water right on Dutch John creek for an addition to the city water supply.

The deed of O. Wickham and wife for a piece of ground wanted for an extension to Willard street was accepted and ordered placed on record.

In the matter of the lease of a piece of land on the water front to J. J. Fox, for a furniture factory, which at the last meeting was left to Attorney Liljeqvist and the Finance committee, the committee reported the making of a lease calling for the payment of a rental of $15 quarterly in advance. This report was accepted and the lease confirmed.

The grades recommended by the city engineer for portions of Taylor, Elliott and Henry streets were adopted.

Farmers' Telephone Meeting

Last Monday the stockholders of the Farmers' Telephone Company met and elected the following directors for the ensuing year: David McNair, of Myrtle Point; Jesse D. Clinton, of Norway; I. S. Robinson, of Fishtrap; George S. Davis and I. T. Weekley, of Coquille.

The usual business matters were transacted, and reports for the year past, which showed the company to be in a very flourishing condition.

The Farmers' Telephone Company was incorporated on February 12, 1908, and has been growing steadily all the time, and now there are over 400 stockholders and about 600 phones on the line.

Last Thursday a meeting was held to organize a board of officers, the following being chosen: George S. Davis, President; I. T. Weekley, Vice-President; W. C. Chase, Secretary and Treasurer; A. A. Schriefer, General Manager.
