Catarrh Cannot Be Cured
with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Alfred Johnson, Jr. was seen Saturday carrying home his dog which had suffered in an auto accident which put a leg out of commission.

Fred Slagle's newly established auto line to Marshfield is being well patronized and the cars go with capacity loads. Sunday's rain made the road very heavy but it will soon dry up.

Mrs. J. L. Thompson returned Friday on the Elizabeth from a trip to California, where she visited relatives of the late Mr. Thompson in Los Angeles and Mendocino counties. She reports a pleasant trip.

Mrs. S. M. Nosler, who underwent an operation at the Mercy hospital last week, writes to Mr. Nosler that she is getting along nicely and expects to be home about the first of next week.

W. G. Cleghorn is again on duty at Drause's store after a several days' tussle with tonsillitis and enough complications to fill a patent medicine circular. His voice is still slightly off tune, but his genial smile is unimpaired.

The concrete sidewalk is being laid on the west side of C street at its junction with Front, and preparations are being made for the paving of the street itself. The bulkhead on the lower side of Front has been reinforced with concrete ribs to sustain the thin wall.

The damage suit of P. L. Phelan against the Port of Coquille went to trial yesterday and will not be finished before sometime tomorrow, as many witnesses are to be examined. Phelan claims damage to his booms from brush that was cut along the river and was not taken care of before the freshet brought it away.

District Attorney L. A. Liljeqvist scored another victory last week when the Supreme Court handed down a decision in the noted "peddler" case. This case involved several intricate constitutional questions, and the court decides for Mr. Liljeqvist's contentions, in spite of the fact that in some other states similar cases have been lost for the state.

Major L. D. Kinney, after spending several days in town, went to Bandon yesterday to see his old friend and former employee, J. F. Polley, the civil engineer. The Major seems to be in good health again and has plenty of his old enthusiasm as to the future of this country. He considers Coquille as the ideal residence town and health resort of the county.

A three-handed stenographer might have picked up a good article on potato planting if he had been at the Herald office yesterday afternoon and listened to the discussion going on out in front between Charley Collier and two other men as to the advantage of planting the whole tuber. As all three were talking at once, however, no one man could have kept up.

D. L. Rood, of Marshfield, was in town Friday on his way home from Bandon with his auto. The machine was all right but Dave was a little skittish and balky about starting. He had sufficient presence of mind, however, to let the by-standers crank the surplus dope out of the carburetter for him before he started.

There will be a meeting of the Commercial Club in the Council Chamber at the City Hall Tuesday evening, May 26, at 8 o'clock. Important business is to come up for consideration, chief of which is the discussion of the proposed railroad project. Shall Coquille be on the map of the new line to Roseburg.

John Leneve, M. J. Hartson, Ed Lorenz and Nels Omondson made up a party that went to Rock Creek Saturday night and returned yesterday after lifting about 200 fine trout out of the water. They report that Mr. Cribbins, of Enchanted prairie, lost a mare and a colt in the thunder storm Thursday evening, both being killed by a stroke of lightning.

The Record announces that the contract has been let for piling for the preliminary work on the Willamette-Pacific bridge across Coos Bay and that deliveries will commence next week. It is also announced that requisitions have been sent in for a large amount of steel for the bridge and that it will soon be ordered, which we can reconcile as best we may with C. J. Mills' statement of some months ago that the steel had all been ordered.

Life is a moving picture, and the film often breaks just at the interesting place.—Judge.

An Unruly Member

Considerable excitement was caused in this part of town Saturday afternoon by a sudden outbreak on First street that sounded, to those civilians who never heard one, like the firing of a large-sized rapid-fire machine gun. Visions of Mexico and Japan were soon dispelled, however, by the discovery of a large peaceable appearing gentleman who resembled Alfred Johnson, Sr., who was seated in a stationary automobile in the middle of the street and looking at the populace in an apologetic and appealing manner, evidently at a loss as to what had gone wrong with the innards of his machine that it should be guilty of such a warlike demonstration. Dr. Von Pegert soon appeared on the scene and performed some kind of an operation that caused the machine to sneak quietly away.

Will Speak Tonight

This evening, at 8 P. M., Dr. H. M. Shaw of Marshfield will talk to older boys and young men at the Masonic Hall on the subject: "Sex and Health." The address is to be illustrated by slides furnished by the State Board of Health. The young men of the city are greatly interested in it, following as it does Dr. White's address at the Court House some time past and the recent display of the Oregon Social Hygiene Society's Exhibit. Several local young men are distributing free admission tickets and are guaranteeing Dr. Shaw a good house. Other free tickets may be had on application at N. C. Kelley's Real Estate office and at Oerding Bros' Billiard Hall.

Having Dr. Shaw speak here is but one of several plans for educational work being inaugurated by the local promotion committee of that Society.

Made Quick Trip

Geo. T. Moulton returned last Wednesday from San Francisco, having been gone just a week. He went out overland and returned on the Nann Smith to the Bay. He reports business quiet in the City, but is enthusiastic about the preparations being made for the exposition next year. He says it will be the greatest ever held.

Commencement Exercises

The commencement exercises of the public school will be held at the Masonic opera house Thursday June 4th and a fine program has been arranged. Professor E. D. Ressler, of the Oregon Agricultural College, will deliver the commencement address, and among the numbers will be solos by Mrs. Gamble and Earl Leslie and music by Gage's orchestra. Ray Burns will play the commencement march.

Baccalaureate Sermon

The baccalaureate sermon for the graduating class of the high school will be preached next Sunday evening at eight o'clock at the Methodist Church South. Rev. T. B. McDonald of the Christian church will be the speaker of the occasion. Special music will be furnished by a chorus under the direction of Mr. F. G. Leslie.

Republican Central Committee Meets

The Republican county central committee met here yesterday, those present being C. B. Zeek and O. B. Gibson, of Bandon; W. C. Laird, Walter Sinclair and N. C. Kelly, of this city; J. W. Clinton, Norway; Frank Willard, Fat Elk; C. A. Seibredre, and Aug. Frizzen of Marshfield, with A. H. Buckingham by proxy. Officers were elected as follows: P. M. Hall-Lewis, chairman; W. C. Laird, secretary; C. A. Seibredre, state committeeman; C. B. Zeek, congressional committeeman. Adjournment was taken subject to the call of the chairman, which will be issued after all the committeemen have qualified.

It Was a Mix-up

Through a mix-up in the schedule the Seenic had different pictures last night from those advertised, and the patrons who expected to see three reels of comedy were disappointed. However, the two-reel Biograph, "The Massacre," was a fine picture, as all Biograph features are. Tonight the 5th of the Kathryn pictures will be shown. We advise those who like good, rich, high-class comedy to watch for the pictures that were advertised for last night, "The Drama in Heyville," and "Art for a Heart," a two-reel Edison and a Vitagraph, respectively. Having seen them last week in Marshfield, we can strongly recommend them to the laughter-loving.

Special Communication

There will be a Special Communication of Chadwick Lodge No. 68, A. F. & A. M. on Thursday evening May 28th. Work in Fellow Craft Degree. Sojourning Brethren cordially welcome.
