Events of Interest Reported For The Herald

(By J. E. Jones)

THE HEROES OF MEXICO

Undoubtedly the American newspaper readers have greatly missed the accounts of what John Lind was doing down in Vera Cruz, but apparently the sage of Minnesota has dropped out sight far beyond the horizon. Nelson O'Shaughnessy, who was a crony of Huerta's, and who under very trying circumstances did splendid work for the government, has been pressed into service as an emergency clerk, and the chances are that a little later on will be sent back to Mexico City to represent his country. President Wilson scolded a little because of some reported indiscretion of O'Shaughnessy during the heights of the Mexican trouble, but when the charge de affairs came back and talked it over with his chief it was all right, and metaphorically speaking, Woodrow Wilson slapped O'Shaughnessy on the back and told him he had done well.

THE LIGHT THAT KILLS

The city of Washington is a great place for automobiles. In fact there are perhaps more of them than in any other city of its size in the country. A modern device on the automobile, by which a glaring searchlight has been thrown on the roadway, has claimed a lot of victims and the result is that in the District of Columbia this instrument of death has been banished. Of course the owners of big automobiles resisted because big headlights indicate that their automobiles cost lots of money. By putting a piece of muslin over the front of the searchlight, or by means of frosting the glass with soap or some other substance the glaring lights have been brought under control.

THE GET-RICH-QUICKS

People nowadays are not selling gold bricks as a means to get rich quick, since the same results appear to be obtained by selling plain, common, ordinary food stuffs. So many ways have been found by which the food market can be manipulated that the Washington government has found it necessary to increase its activities in order that poor people may be permitted to continue to live.

THE BAD SPOTS

A determined effort has been made to remove the bad spots in the river and harbor bill, and to leave the remaining good meat in the barrel. The theory is that bad "spots" may ruin the contents of the whole barrel. In the case of apples one bad one often spoils all the good fruit. The same principle can be applied to pork barrels. Many valuable projects have been tied up in the bill along with bad proposals. Obviously the thing to do is to weed out the bad items.

CONGRESS MAY NOT ADJOURN

There is a growing sentiment to the effect that Congress will not adjourn, but instead will take a short recess after election time. Putting aside their personal comforts, the members are inclined to the belief that it is unwise for Congress to definitely adjourn until December, while the war situation in Europe remains acute.

FILIPINOS GETTING THE OFFICERS

The first step toward independence in the Philippines has been the turning over as far as possible the machinery of government to the natives of the island, and it is doubtful if any process could have been invented that would have brought more protests from American residents holding the snaps. The legislation in reference to ultimate independence for the Philippines has received the tentative consent of President Wilson and it is expected that it will appear before Congress to be acted upon next winter. Of course it is going to mean a big fight, as there are many viewpoints concerning what should be our attitude toward the islanders.

Newspaper Editor Resigns To Manage Campaign

O. C. Leiter, for 10 years editor of the Oregonian, has resigned that position to become political manager for William Hanley, Progressive candidate for United States senator.

"I am leaving newspaper work and casting my fortune with Mr. Hanley," said Mr. Leiter, "because of my personal regard for him. I have formed a strong personal attachment for Mr. Hanley, and honestly believe that he is senatorial timber, and if elected will be a credit to the state. Mr. Hanley intends to make a vigorous campaign of the state through the newspapers and by speechmaking in every county and I shall have charge of this campaign."

Mr. Leiter has been in the employ of the Oregonian for almost 14 years. In making known Mr. Leiter's resignation, E. B. Piper, the managing editor, says: "Mr. Leiter resigns after years of faithful and efficient service. The change will probably occur this week. Mr. Leiter's resignation is accepted with regret. He goes with the goodwill of the Oregonian and the regret of the staff."

Mr. Leiter has opened headquarters for the Hanley campaign at the Oregon Hotel where he will be glad to see the friends and supporters of Mr. Hanley, and also to have them address him.

Prohibition in Congress

Now that the question of prohibition seems definitely laid over until the next session of Congress, friends of the measure are speculating in regard to the effect the European war will have upon its fortunes. It is entirely possible that if receipts from duties levied on imports fall off too heavily, special measures will be taken to provide revenue, and these will almost certainly involve an increase in the federal tax on beer and possibly an increase in the tax on liquor all around. Such a step would automatically operate as a dampener on the chances of the prohibition amendment.

It is possible that if the House Rules Committee meets before the adjournment of the present session, it will fix a date in December for consideration of the prohibition amendment.

Oregon "Unsafe"

The Committee of One Hundred, the organization of business men of Oregon fighting for a dry state, has received a copy of Bonfort's Wine and Spirit Circular, one of the official organs of the liquor dealers, under date of August 10. It says: "The information received from the battlegrounds of California, Oregon, Washington, Colorado and Virginia, where statewide elections on the prohibition question will be held this Fall, would seem to indicate that all save Oregon are reasonably safe, although some doubt is expressed in regard to Virginia."

The Circular says the National organization of liquor dealers should center work on Oregon and Virginia.

From reliable information it would seem that the wet forces plan to spend about $100,000 on the fight in Oregon this Fall. While they hope to win, leaders of the wet forces in Portland, admit they expect to see the state go dry, while saloon men frankly are making preparations to go into other lines of business.

Have you paid the printer.

It has been knocked higher than a kite by the financial stringency of the money situation, created by the war. There are a number of bills before Congress providing for reduction of postage rates, and these were in anticipation of a large increase of revenue by reason of the parcel post. However, the parcel post has not been as great a money making institution as was expected and therefore between foreign wars, postal disappointments and other adverse conditions, it will likely be necessary to put two cent stamps on your letters for a long time to come.

THE OPPONENTS OF TAX EXEMPTION

The Class of Wealthy Philanthropists Whose Hearts Bleed at Proposed Oppression of Honest Farmer

The Oregon City Courier is fighting for the adoption of the $1500 tax exemption measure and other measures, and in its issue of August 13 it fires a broadside at the Non-Partisan League, of Portland, which is fighting against these measures. The Courier publishes a letter which was sent out by the League last June to a selected list of people and corporations who might be expected to contribute money to the campaign to keep the poor farmer and working man and small property owner from being fooled. The letter mentions several measures besides the exemption proposal which are claimed to be "single tax" or "socialist"; then calls on the recipient to contribute "$100 or as much more as the work is worth to you," for the defeat of these measures.

The amount of the contribution asked for indicates the class of people to whom the letter was sent, and therefore the class of people who are afraid that they would be hurt if the measures pass. As for the men who compose the Non-Partisan League and who are so fearful lest people of small resources will be ruined by lifting some of the tax burden off their shoulders, here are the names on the letter head of the Non-Partisan League: Everett Ames, F. C. Knapp, A. H. Averill, Geo. Lawrence Jr., Arthur Callan, Fletcher Linn, Henry Corbett, Geo. C. Mason, J. F. Daly, D. A. Patullo, A. D. Katz, F. H. Ransom, James B. Kerr, Amedel Smith, T. N. Stoppenbach.

The Courier claims to have run down all these men and to have found out this:

Henry L. Corbett is manager for the famous Corbett estate in Portland. This family owns millions of dollars of the best real estate in Oregon, and the heirs put up thousands of dollars to defeat single tax in 1912. It was "worth" something to them. They have more than made it back in ground rents. Everett Ames is manager of Ames-Harris-Neville Co., very wealthy in its large land holdings, and they are dealers in twine, bur-lap, grain bags, tents, etc. A. H. Averill is president of the Portland Chamber of Commerce and of the Averill Machinery Co. Arthur Callan is of the real estate firm of Callan & Kaser, and like all land speculators his heart bleeds when he sees the landlords raise the rent of the workingmen. J. F. Daly is president of the Title & Trust Co., therefore very near to the farmer and day laborer. This company is another of the Ladd corporations. It is "worth" a lot to the Ladd bunch to beat anything that would reduce the tax on the little home and add the reduction to big holdings. A. D. Katz is Oregon manager for the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of New York. James B. Kerr is attorney for the Hill lines. The Hill people hold hundreds or thousands of acres of land in Oregon that increases in value as farmers improve and develop the state. F. C. Knapp is president of the Peninsular Lumber Corporation of St. Johns. Amedel Smith and George Lawrence Jr. are vice presidents of the Realty Associates Corporation. This is a big Portland land speculating concern. F. H. Ransom is manager and treasurer of the Eastern & Western Lumber Co., one of the big timber and saw mill concerns of Oregon. D. A. Patullo is manager of the grain department of the Balfour Guthrie Co. T. N. Stoppenbach has made a fortune in land speculation and out of the Pacific Paper Co., and has quit the game. Fletcher Linn is another of the Ladd handy men. George C. Mason is manager of this Non Partisan League of Ladd corporations and big business. He was formerly one of the big chiefs of the Hurley Mason contracting company, that tried so hard to break down the labor unions of Oregon. He did not fully succeed, but he showed organized labor how dearly he loved them.

The farmers and small home owners among the Herald's readers can readily imagine how much real sympathy they get out of that bunch, and how much the interests of the small taxpayer lies at the heart of the Non-Partisan League. They can imagine what a strenuous fight the League would put up against the $1500 tax exemption if its effect would be to place a greater burden on the shoulder of the farmers of the state and lift it from the accumulated wealth of Portland.

In connection with the above, the Herald is in receipt of a letter from the Tax Liberator, a new publication purporting to emanate from Roseburg. To publish the paper at Roseburg is a big scheme. Many people would look upon it with suspicion of it were published at Portland, but giving it the Roseburg date line will, of course, fool us poor boobies. And those who are unfamiliar with the newspaper business may not understand that the subscription price of 25 cents a year for an eight-page paper does not indicate a legitimate newspaper enterprise. Few will notice the one-cent stamp on the wrapper and know that it is a dead give-away—that a legitimate newspaper, just starting, has only to deposit the necessary postage with the postmaster and all in excess of one cent a pound will be refunded after the publication is admitted to the second class rate—that it is a dead waste of money to put a one-cent stamp on each paper if application has really been made in a legitimate way.

Now, the Tax Liberator is put out to fight the $1500 exemption. In other words it is working hand in glove with the Non-Partisan League. That is why we wish to give one extract from the letter mentioned above. It says: "The farmers are one class of people who are sharing a larger proportion of the tax burden than they are entitled to. We have got to put less taxes on the farmer and more on the men of wealth; owners of stocks and mortgages and people with large incomes." Isn't that fine? That ought to catch the horny-handed tons of soil, hadn't it? And can not you see the members of the Non-Partisan League listed above, and all their friends, putting up $100 apiece, or "as much more as it worth to them," to defeat a measure that will take the burden of taxation off "men of wealth, owners of stocks, bonds and mortgages and people with large incomes," and put it on the farmer. The Tax Liberator is the official reform of the Oregon Rational Tax Reform Association, which has an executive committee for each county. We note that the committee for Coos county consists of one large stock raiser and land owner; one real estate dealer, well fixed and semi-retired, one capitalist, formerly a sawmill owner; one real farmer who is an old-line stand-pat Republican; and one other party whose occupation we do not know. Curiously enough, it appears to have no organization in Douglas county, where its "organ" is published. All this is given for the information of Herald readers and for whatever assistance it may be to them in considering the proposed tax exemption measure. When so much is made of the fact that the single tax people are behind the measure, if they are, then it may not be a bad idea to consider who is putting up the money for the opposition.

Now is the time to subscribe.

The Cheerful Kicker on A Kindling Wood Road

Editor Herald:

What is to become of the $90,000, and more, that the Supreme Court of the state has decided can be blown in by the several road districts of the county? What is to be done with it? Who is to get it? If it is to be spent by contract, is it to be a genuine contract or a fake contract? On the pretense that work is done "cheap" are slopes to be left in the condition that it is known that certain rocks, trees and earth will slide in when winter comes? I think some of the people would be made wise if they knew how much some grading costs a rod after the "slides" are taken care of.

Is the money to be blown in on kindling wood roads? Plank roads are getting to be a back number, for the plank become kindling wood in a short time. The best piece of plank road from my place to Coquille is on Cherry creek mountain for which M. J. Krantz had the contract. There is a piece of honest work. The McKinley road district, as a district, has the best plank road. If any one thinks it is because so much of it is in the shade, I call their attention to the piece of plank road from my place to Coquille which is on Cherry creek mountain for which M. J.
