The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

A Word for the Defendant

Did you ever monkey for 24 hours with a gasoline engine when you were badly in need of its services, calling in one or two mechanical experts, only to have them finally assume a place out on the same limb with yourself? That is what happened in this office last week, and we were delayed just a day on one of the biggest jobs of press work ever turned out in the town. Finally, after everybody acknowledged themselves up a tree, a ray of intelligence shot athwart the mammoth vacuum of the editor, the mechanic chased out of doors and cleaned out the muffler, and the little engine bowed her thanks and has been running like a Waterbury watch ever since. Now what do you know about that? Anyway, we take off our hat to this little engine. She did her best and kept turning herself over when she had only a pin-hole through which to get rid of the exhaust. If she couldn't pull the big press it wasn't her fault, and any one who wants to cuss gasoline engines is requested to make an exception of the one in the Herald office.

Not Like Coos

J. S. Lawrence is in receipt of a letter from his son Perry who left here for Tucson, Ariz., to enter the university there. He writes from Los Angeles that he reached that point without mishap, and says that he was much impressed by the contrast presented by that arid and sunbaked country to the verdant fields and hills of the Coquille valley. He has seen no grass there except on irrigated lawns. He was beginning to feel that he was getting a long ways from home.

Piano Contest

The weekly prize at Drane's last Saturday night went to Baulah Price who made a gain of 8995 votes for the week. At Anderson's a new candidate, Mrs. P. A. Breuer, entered the contest and took the prize with 1060 votes. This shows how easy it is for one of the candidates to capture the prize by catching the others napping.

The prize this week will be a china berry set.

Next week one of the most valuable weekly prizes of the whole contest will be given at each store. This is a 26-piece set of table silver ware in a cabinet. It is a splendid prize and ought to call forth the best efforts of all the candidates. Every candidate has an equal chance at these weekly prizes, without regard to how many or how few votes they have already standing to their credit, for the prize is given for the highest number of votes cast during the week for which the prize is offered. It should be remembered also that votes over a week old, while they are counted for the grand prize, do not count on the weekly prize.

This week a new element has been added in the issue of due bills. These are in denominations of $5.00. A candidate selling a due bill and turning in the money gets 2000 votes on the deal, and the purchaser of the due bill also gets the regular number of votes on the purchases made with it. Mr. Drane and Mr. Anderson ask the Herald to request the candidates to call and get a supply of these due bills and receive instructions as to their disposal. The due bills are too valuable to mail out promiscuously, and it is desired that the candidates call for them personally.

Remember that the quickest way of all to secure votes is to bring in subscriptions for the Herald. Comparatively few of the candidates have taken the trouble to call at this office and see about this, but those who have done so have been well rewarded for their time. We would suggest to the others that they are missing an opportunity to do good for themselves.
