Can You Answer?

Oregon City, Ore. Sept. 30, 1914
To the Editor:—

Will you or your readers, or some of the mortgage and diamond owners who are opposing the $1500 Home Tax Exemption, kindly and fully answer the following questions? $1500 invested in a mortgage is not taxed in Oregon. Why should not $1500 also be exempt if it is invested in farm buildings, cows, team land clearings and orchards with which to make a living?

$1500 spent for diamonds and jewelry "in actual use" is by law exempt from tax in Oregon. Why should not $1500 spent for a dwelling house and furniture "in actual use" be exempt from tax?

The proposed $1500 Home Tax Exemption does not apply to corporations. The great department stores will get nothing from this, neither will the sky scrapers nor the railroads, but the little merchant may save something on his taxes.

The mortgage tax law of Oregon was repealed in 1893, and mortgages have not been taxed since then, in most of the counties, including Clackamas and Multnomah. No one can justly oppose allowing the farmer and the little home owner so small an exemption while so many wealthy people and corporations are exempt on their mortgages and diamonds, not to mention the money on which they never do pay tax.

Sincerely yours,
W. S. Uren.

We give it up. Ask us an easy one.—Editor Herald.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hilly Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

FOR CONGRESS

FRED HOLLISTER

For immediate and complete improvement of all Coast harbors, and waterways of Oregon.

For Federal appropriations to be used in building good roads, waterways and harbors. Such appropriations to be commensurate in amount and to be based upon the valuation of government properties in Oregon.

(The government now owns almost one-half of this state and we receive nothing from this property.)

For a radical change in the homestead laws, favoring the settler and offering inducements to the prospective settler.

(Under the present law it is almost an impossibility to prove up on your homestead.)

The building of a merchant marine that will be a world power in commerce.

The opening up for settlement of a large amount of the present forest reserves.

Oregon was made for Oregonians, and its reserves should be utilized for the direct benefit of its people.
