NOTES ON THE PHOTOPLAYS

Of Interest to Those Who Patronize the Movies

The Broadway Star Feature shown at the Grand last Saturday night was an extremely good picture and fully equal to expectations. Our people should realize that they are seeing the best pictures produced by the best company in America, the Vitagraph, and at as low a price as they are shown anywhere in the United States.

The Grand announces the coming of "Uncle Bill," another Vitagraph Broadway Star feature, a comedy in which Anita Stewart and others of the headliners appear. Constance Talmadge, a sister of the popular Norma Talmadge, made her debut in this picture, and her performance was highly praised by the critics.

Pauline will be seen Thursday night undergoing some more of her "perils." This series is a winner, and one of the most fetching things about it is the natural way in which the comedy is worked in.

CURRY COUNTY COLLINGS

(From the Port Orford Tribune)

An unusually severe storm has been visiting this section since Thanksgiving. It has not been accompanied by violent wind, as is so often the case at this time of the year, but has veered frequently to the north, which has made it cold and disagreeable. Should it continue much longer it will put range stock in poor condition to enter the winter.

Miss Edith Hayes, who has acted as a waiter at the Knapp hotel for the past year, has resigned her position. She went to Langlois the first of the week on a visit, and from the number of trips that a well-known Langlois business man has been making to Port Orford during the past few months, the friends of Miss Hayes are wondering how long the "visit" will be.

E. J. Loney started by Monday's stage for San Francisco, going via Coos Bay from whence he will take passage on the Napa Smith. Mrs. Loney, who has been visiting relatives at Lincoln, Nebraska, for the past two months, will meet her husband in the bay city, and after spending Christmas in California the couple will return to their home at this place.

The bazaar given by the Ladies Aid Society in the west room of the schoolhouse last Friday afternoon and the chicken pie supper that followed it was one of the most pleasant and successful affairs that has taken place in Port Orford in many days. All the ladies in the town and many in the country turned out and helped, and there was not a hitch or a jar any place.

The meeting of the Commercial Club last Wednesday evening was well attended, and besides attending to the regular routine business various plans for the development of the town and community were discussed until nearly midnight.

In regard to some things a definite program was mapped out and will be energetically pushed by the club. This was done in particular in regard to setting forth the needs of a life saving station and of harbor improvements to those in authority at Washington.

(Gold Beach Globe)

An old fashioned winter storm has been raging the past two weeks. The Brookings School District wants a school house built by contract.

The Band Boys are now under hard drill making preparations to furnish the best dance music ever stepped to in Curry county.

W. A. Bogard, the hustling land locator of Roseburg, was an over night visitor in town since our last issue.

Gold Beach now has a regularly organized Athletic club which held its first meeting last Saturday evening and elected officers, adopted by-laws, etc.
