They must have celebrated the holidays in great shape in Portland. A lot of paper bags for B. S. Knowlton were shipped just before New Years by the Pacific Paper Co., and they were sent to the Coquille Hardware Co., while the shipping bill was mailed to the Coquille Herald. It gave Mr. Candlin some explaining to do.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

The advertisers are taking their annual rest, and from present appearances, the editor will be taking his annual fast pretty pronto.

Try a Herald want ad for any thing you want to buy or sell.

The body of Mrs. Joe Fox, who died in San Francisco, was brought to Marshfield and the funeral was held there last Thursday, being largely attended by people from different parts of the county, as she had lived here practically all her life and had a large circle of friends.

W. W. Gage, the retiring sheriff, and his deputy, Clyde Gage, leave the office with an enviable record behind them for courtesy and efficiency. Mr. Gage has served the county for many years, and few officials retire from office after so long a term with the good wishes of so large a proportion of the people.

Bennett-Weekly Nuptials

(Contributed)

A very pretty wedding took place last Sunday evening, Jan. 3, at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Weekly of West Coquille when their daughter, Miss Jossie Weekly was united in holy matrimony to Mr. Vernon Bennett, Rev. C. H. Bryan officiating.

The ceremony was held beneath a beautiful arch erected in the bay window of their parlor; the bride being attended by Miss Della Lund as bride's maid, while Mr. Vance Weekly acted as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony they were all escorted to the dining room where a bounteous wedding supper was served.

The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of a delicate shade of light blue satin overdraped with a silk chiffon bodice and tunic, while the groom wore dark navy blue.

The rooms of their inviting home were tastefully decorated for the occasion with evergreens, the color scheme throughout being green and white.

Only the immediate families of both parties and a few invited guests were present.

The happy pair departed the following morning for a week's honeymoon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. L. Crosby of Gravelford and later they will make their home in Coquille.

The contracting parties are well known in this community and have a host of friends who unite in extending hearty congratulations and wishing them utmost happiness through their journey of life.

Better Conditions

The five per cent increase granted certain eastern railroads will add from thirty to fifty millions to their receipts, and enable them to purchase needed supplies for betterment. All this means a greater demand for what Oregon has most to sell—timber products of which the railroads have always been the greatest purchasers and the best customers of Oregon.

Major Kinney's Condition

A letter written from the insane asylum, Salem, by direction of Supt. R. E. Lee Steiner, to Mrs. L. D. Kinney states that Major L. D. Kinney was in about as good condition on the 28th of December as at any time since he had been there. The letter stated, however, that he had gotten the news his property on South inlet was to be passed to the ownership of F. B. Waite on the first of January, and he was becoming worried again and wants to be released so he can defend his property rights.—Marshfield Record.

Circuit Court

Circuit Court opened again yesterday, Judge Coke having sufficiently recovered from his attack of the grippe to preside.

The case against George Francis, accused of robbing the Owl saloon in Marshfield, was taken up and occupied most of the day. After deliberation, the jury brought in a verdict of conviction.

Jay Richards, convicted of having improper relations with the Catching girl, was brought up for sentence this morning. The statutory penalty of three to twenty years was imposed by Judge Coke, and sentence was suspended during good behavior.

The matter of Rodgers and Mrs. Quigley, charged with adultery, was taken up, and as the two demanded separate trials, the Rodgers case was set for this morning and Mrs. Quigley will be tried later.

Death of W. E. Haynes

A letter from Miss Vivian Haynes to a friend here gives some particulars of the death of her brother, W. E. Haynes, who formerly conducted a barber shop here but sold out in December and went to Eugene, where his parents reside. He arrived in Eugene on Dec. 18th and on Christmas day was taken suddenly ill. On the 28th he was operated on for ulcer of the stomach, but lived only eighteen hours after the operation, dying on Dec. 29th. His two little boys are left in the hands of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. B. Haynes, in the home where Christmas joy was so suddenly turned to mourning.

Alumni Wins in Good Game

The High School basket ball team lost to the Alumni Friday night in a close game, the score being 40 to 42. At the close of the second half the score was tied and the teams played nearly fifteen minutes before the two points necessary to win were scored by the Alumni. During this last fifteen minutes no field goals were made, the Alumni winning on fouls.

In the first half the Alumni had the better of the deal and ran up a large score, but in the second the High School tightened up and showed that they were capable of playing an excellent game. Their guarding was close and the forwards made basket after basket in spite of the fact that the Alumni guards played a good game.

The Alumni lineup was: Earl Leslie, center; George Oreding and Julian Leslie, forwards and Clifford Kern and Foster Bither, guards. The High School team played their regular team which is: Keith Leslie, center; Charlie Oerding and Roy Avery, guards and Stewart Norton and Roy Watson, forwards.

Next Friday the High School team goes to Myrtle Point to meet the high school team there in the first league game of the season. Reports come from the up-river town of an excellent team and a good game is expected.

To provide any from here who wish to see the game Friday night a means of getting to Myrtle Point and back, the team has chartered a boat which will make the run, leaving here about 6 p. m. and returning after the game.

Married

BENNETT-WEEKLY—In this city Jan. 3, 1915, Vernon A. Bennett and Josie M. Weekly, Rev. C. H. Bryan officiating.

The marriage took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Weekly, in the presence of a few invited guests, and after the ceremony, a wedding supper was served. The newly married couple are among Coquille's fine young people, and they have the best wishes of a large number of friends.

MARSEE-EARL—In this city Dec. 29, 1914, Wm. P. Marsee, of Empire, and Clara V. Earl, of North Bend, Rev. C. H. Bryan officiating.

MOORE-KEANEY—In this city, Jan. 3, 1915, John L. Moore and Miss Alberta C. Heaney.

They were married by Justice Stanley at his office. The happy couple are from Delmar (more familiarly known as Henryville) in this county, where the groom has a responsible position as engineer in the coal mines and where the newlyweds will reside.

Died

DREW—At the home of Abner Bean on Lampa Creek Jan. 2, 1915, David Drew, aged 69 years.

The deceased was an old resident and respected citizen of the Coquille valley. He was born in Morris-town, N. J., Nov. 24, 1846, and settled in this valley in 1870. He was a first class blacksmith and all-round mechanic and followed his calling here for many years. His wife, whose maiden name was Mary Z. Willard, died many years ago, but he is survived by the following sons and daughters: Thomas, Claud, Guy and Roy, Mrs. Abner Bean and Mrs. Ed Gillespie. Lately he had been occupying a homestead on Bill's Creek. His last illness was of only a few days' duration, his death being caused by blood poisoning and occurring at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bean, on Lampa Creek. The funeral took place here Sunday from the undertaking parlors and interment was in the Masonic cemetery. In compliance with a request made some years ago, the funeral services were conducted by D. P. Strang, who was an old friend of the deceased.

No Fireworks

The change of officials at the court house yesterday morning was not marked by any display of fireworks, and the uncertainty as to the county judgeship did not produce hostilities. James Watson informs the Herald that he is waiting to hear from the Supreme Court where two similar cases were set for hearing yesterday, in which cases Mr. Watson also had a brief filed. News of a decision is expected in a day or two.

The clerk's office was turned over by James Watson to his brother Robert Watson, and practically the same office force was retained. Nels Omundson is first deputy and Dorothy Watson second deputy.

In the sheriff's office there were greater changes. Alfred Johnson, who succeeds W. W. Gage as sheriff, is assisted by W. C. Laird, first deputy, and L. W. Oddy, second deputy.

In the surveyor's office, C. S. McCulloch has assumed his new duties.
