How Captain Panter

Escaped $100 Fine

Captain Panter of the steamer Dora tells the Herald of one of his experiences with the Inspectors of Hulls and Boilers on their last visit here which indicates that the feeling of exasperation and disgust which exists among the Coquille steamboat men is not without good cause. It seems that the inspectors had a "secretary" along and that the secretary was even more obsessed with a feeling of his importance than the inspectors themselves. As so much of a task as counting life preservers was beneath the dignity of the inspectors, they had the secretary count them. Then that high and mighty one came up to Captain Panter and announced: "Your life preservers are short, and it will cost you a hundred dollars fine." Captain Panter insisted that he had the required number, and wanted the underling to go over them again. Then he wanted to know how many he was short, but all the satisfaction he got was that he was "short" and would be fined. Marshal A. P. Miller happened to be standing on the dock, and Captain Panter called to him to bring half a dozen responsible citizens and come aboard and count the life preservers. Marshal Miller, without leaving the dock, called on several citizens and they went aboard and counted, as requested. They found 103 life preservers aboard, the exact number required—100 for the passengers and one each for the crew.

In the mean time, the inspectors and their man Friday had gone to the depot to take the train. Marshal Miller hurried down there and told the clerk that he had found 103 life preservers on the Dora. "Well," replied the clerk, "they were not there when I was there." But Miller informed him so emphatically that none had been brought aboard, to his certain knowledge that the representatives of the glory and power of these United States finally conceded that, "We will have to let that fine go."

If Captain Panter had not been gifted with the presence of mind, he would undoubtedly have been matched to the tune of one hundred dollars entirely without cause and through the incompetence of a swellhead clothed with a little brief authority. The inoffensive affront of some of these Portland gits who imagine they came from a real city, when they get so far from home is often amusing, but when it is likely to cost a man a hundred dollars it ceases to be funny.

In this connection, we give below the reply sent by Captain H. W. Dunham to the letter from Collector or Burke, published in the Herald, in which the government official demands that the former send affidavits to support the statements which he had made in the Marshfield Sun, regarding conditions with which every one on the river was familiar. Capt. Dunham reproduces the letter from memory, but it is essentially a copy of the one sent.

Thos. Burke,
Collector of Customs,
Portland, Oregon.

Dear Sir:

Your recent communication received, and will honor you with a reply. The interpretation of it was uncertain; whether it was intended for a threat to banish me as an exile for daring to write the facts.

For your information, I do not have any dates, neither do I draw a salary for such nor employ a stenographer, paid from the U. S. treasury. What I wrote I do not retract nor apologize for; for these were existing circumstances, and are easily corroborated; and do not have any fear or favor to ask of your excellency.

H. W. Dunham.

The Law Says—

House Bill No. 271, introduced by C. R. Barrow and passed by the legislature, provides "Additional open season for the Coquille Valley, Coos County—Ducks from December 31st to January 31st." This, as has been stated in the Herald, is an "extension of two weeks and helps some."

State Game Warden

Expounds the Law

The following letter has been received from State Game Warden Finley:

Dear Sir:

On February 6th Deputy Game Warden E. C. Hills of Eugene arrested John Hawk for having the carcass of a deer in possession. The case was taken up before Justice of the Peace, Jesse G. Wells of Eugene. Mr. Wells ordered a direct verdict of "not guilty," claiming that we have no law against having deer meat in possession out of season. It was claimed that the law in regard to having deer meat in possession was repealed by the 1913 session of the Legislature. The report was published in various newspapers throughout the State that there is no provision in the State laws to prevent killing deer in season or out of season. This is not true.

According to the attorney General, George M. Brown, deer are fully protected under the present law, and it is not true that the 1913 Legislature repealed the law giving full protection to deer.

Chapter 232 of the law of 1913, Section 10, paragraph (a), provides: "It shall be lawful within the State of Oregon to hunt during the open season therefor, BUT AT NO OTHER TIME, the following game animals and birds."

Section 2, paragraph (b), of the same Chapter, provides: "The open season is the time during which any game animal, etc., may be taken within the State of Oregon, under such restrictions and regulations as may be provided by law for killing or taking of same."

Section 2, paragraph (c) provides: "Closed seasons is the time during which it is prohibited by law within the State of Oregon to hunt, pursue, take, kill, injure, destroy OR HAVE IN POSSESSION ANY GAME ANIMAL, fur-bearing animal, game bird or game fish, OR ANY PART THEREOF."

Section 10, paragraphs (c) and (k) provide for open season as follows: "Game animals.—Deer with horns, from August 1st to October 31st of each year. Bag limit, three such deer during any one season."

Section 2, paragraph (i) provides: "The word possession means that if there be any person or two or more persons, any of whom, with the knowledge and consent of the rest, has any game bird, non-game bird, game animal or fish or fur-bearing animal in custody or possession, it shall be deemed and taken to be in the custody and possession of each and all of them, and if any person has any such game bird, animal, or fish or fur-bearing animal in possession WHEN IT IS ILLEGAL TO TAKE OR HAVE SAME, SUCH FACT SHALL BE PRIMA FACIE EVIDENCE THAT SUCH PERSON KILLED SUCH GAME ILLEGALLY."

Section 35, paragraph (a), of the same act, provides: "Possession of game animals or any portion thereof, DURING THE CLOSED SEASON, shall be prima facie evidence that the same have been unlawfully taken, unless each quarter of any deer and the carcass of any other game animal or game bird shall have been tagged by a game warden, etc."

The law, therefore, very plainly states that if a man is arrested for having game birds or game animals, or any portion thereof, in possession during the closed season, it shall be prima facie evidence of guilt, and the burden of proof rests with the defendant to show to the jury that he did not come in possession of his game illegally.

Section 62, paragraph (b), of Chapter 232, provides:

"Unless otherwise specifically provided, any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $25.00 nor more than $500.00 and costs of such suit or action, or by imprisonment in the county jail in the county wherein such unlawful act was committed for not less than 30 days or more than six months, or both such fine and imprisonment."

Attorney General Brown concludes his opinion as follows:

"Taking into consideration the definition of the words 'hunt,' as defined by the Legislature in Section 2, paragraph (f), and 'open' and 'closed seasons' as provided in paragraphs (a) and (c) of Section 10, and the declaration when it shall be unlawful to hunt within the State, and that it shall be lawful at no other time, and the declaration by the Legislature in Section 62, that any person violating any of the provisions of the Act known as Chapter 232, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and prescribing a penalty for said crime, it is clearly made criminal to kill female deer, spotted

Skin Sufferers—Read!

We want all skin sufferers who have suffered for many years the tortures of disease and who have sought medical aid in vain, to read this.

We are old established druggists of this community, wish to recommend to you a product that has given many relief and may mean the end of your agony. The product is a mild, simple wash, not a potent medicine concocted of various worthless drugs, but a scientific compound made of well known antiseptic ingredients. It is made in the D.D.D. Laboratories of Chicago and is called the D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema.

This is a doctor's special prescription—one that has effected many wonderful cures.

lawns, or young deer of the first year, at all times, and that deer with horns may be lawfully killed ONLY FROM AUGUST 1ST TO OCTOBER 31ST OF EACH YEAR, AND IT IS A CRIME TO KILL HORNED DEER AT ANY OTHER TIME."

Very truly yours,

Visited Exposition

Mrs. William Grow arrived from an extended trip through California the first of the month. She was also down as far as Tijuana, Mexico. She took in the San Diego Fair and says that it was very good but that it doesn't compare with the Panama Pacific Exposition. She says that all the buildings at the Fair are not completed; among them being the Argentine building. She says that the Oregon Building is grand and the display of Myrtle wood attracts much attention. The Canadian Building's exhibits are composed wholly of wheat. All of Canada's animals are reproduced in wheat, and that it is a wonderful display. She also states that the architects of the Oregon Building claim that each log in the building if sawed into lumber, would furnish enough timber to build a fair sized house. The Palace of Jewels, the most attractive building, has its entire front plastered with jewels of all sizes. And they are real ones at that. With the electric lights turned on at night this is one of the most wonderful sights to be seen at the Fair grounds.

While Mrs. Grow states that everything is nice at the present time, she wouldn't advise anyone to take in the fair for six weeks at the least; because in that length of time everything will be completed, all the exhibits there and everything running smoothly.

Mrs. Grow had been visiting her son, Wm. Grow, at San Diego, and she also visited at Los Angeles and there met Alton Grimes, formerly of this place, who is now employed on the L. A. Examiner.

Odd Fellows on a Jaunt

Last Wednesday several members of the Odd Fellows lodge, of this place, journeyed to Myrtle Point by auto and conferred the First and Second Degrees on candidates for the Myrtle Point Lodge. The First Degree was given them about 10:30. Then it adjourned to the banquet hall where supper was served. After satisfying their appetites they put the candidates through the Second Degree. The meeting broke up about 12:30 and the merry makers plowed back home through the mud in the "wee small hours." There were three car loads in all. The members that represented the lodge from this place were Geo. Leach, Dr. Moore, Kirk Price, Jess Beyers, Harry Oeding, John Lawrence, William Brunker, M. McDonald, Lloyd Oddy, Frank Leslie, Tracy Leach, Sam Epperson, Logan Kay, Owen Knowlton, John Ensel, and Sherman Hurford.

The above mentioned members constitute the Degree Team of Coquille Lodge No. 53 I. O. O. F. Everybody had a good time and appreciated the royal treatment given them by the Myrtle Pointers.

Pleasant Afternoon

The L. O. M. S. girls spent a very pleasant afternoon last Friday as the guests of Miss Mary Fusonne. Most of the time was taken up with conversation and music, though some was occupied with an impromptu "silent drama" that would have made David Griffith, himself, open his eyes if he had been so fortunate as to see it. The club members present were Mildred Norton, Audra McCabe, Leanna Curry, Vera K. Ily, Olive Bowley, Alice Curry, Dorothy Snow, Myrtle Cunningham, Mary Levar and Mary Fusonne.

Carl vs Cottle

An interesting case of difference of opinion will be pulled off in Justice Stanley's court Friday when the case of H. L. Carl vs. T. J. Cottle will come up. Carl has sued Cottle

Louis Weire, Chas. Hansen, Ellis Kingston and Will Bowron were in town Thursday to attend the Road Supervisor meeting. They represented the North side of Coos Bay.

After Deer-Slayers

Game Warden Thomas was in town last night on his way back to the Eden country, where he intends to round up the men that he arrested some time ago for killing deer out of season, and who took French leave of him on the way out of the hills. He also states that he is after violators of the deer law. He says that a good many of them are killing deer under the impression that it is not unlawful, on account of a decision made by a judge at Eugene, who decided that there was no law against killing deer. Mr. Thomas states that he is hunting these law-breakers up, to show them that it is still unlawful to kill deer.

W. M. Feller Drowned

News has been received here by Mrs. Fred Belloni, of the death of W. M. Feller, the husband of a former Coquille-girl, Miss Connie Robinson. The telegram states that he was drowned Saturday while working on the government works at Fort Canby, Wash. Mrs. Belloni received another message Monday stating that the body had not yet been recovered.

Taken to Hospital

Mrs. R. Maddox, of this city, was taken to the Mercy Hospital at North Bend, Friday morning. She was taken sick a couple of days before, and, while the doctor thinks her condition is not serious, he thought it best to have her removed from the Baxter Hotel to the hospital where things are quieter. Dr. Morrow, of North Bend, is the attending physician.
