

When Sickness Comes

the doctor will probably order some of the modern devices that are designed to afford comfort to invalids or aid to attendants.

Time and annoyance may be saved by coming directly to us for

Sick-Room Goods

We have a complete stock of such good and our prices are right.

FUHRMAN'S PHARMACY
The Rexall Store

Professional Cards

Dr. C. W. ENDICOTT
DENTIST
Office over First National Bank
Phone Main 431

E. D. SPERRY
ATTORNEY AND
COUNSELLOR AT LAW
Office in Robinson Building

W. C. CHASE
ATTORNEY AT LAW
Office in Richmond-Barker Bldg

C. R. BARROW
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW
Office Phone 335
Residence Phone 346

J. J. STANLEY
LAWYER
Richmond-Barker Building
Coquille, Oregon

A. J. SHERWOOD
ATTORNEY AT LAW
First National Bank Building
Rooms 2-3-4

L. J. LILJEVIST
ATTORNEY AT LAW
First National Bank Building
Coquille, Oregon

WALTER SINCLAIR
ATTORNEY AT LAW
Notary Public Coquille

Str. Elizabeth

Regular as the Clock

San Francisco and Bandon

First-class fare on... $7.50
Up freight, per ton... 3.00

E. & E. T. Kruse
24 California Street, San Francisco
For Reservations
J. E. NORTON
Agent, Coquille, Oregon

The Herald's clubbing offer of four magazines at an extra cost of 25 cents for one year is proving a winner.

MERELY MENTIONED

Judge Coke was over from Marshfield on Friday.

H. H. Hammond was over from the bay last Friday.

E. A. Bettys, of Fairview, was in town one day last week.

Attorney Pulford, of Myrtle Point was in town on Thursday.

M. D. Sherrard, of Bandon was in town the last of the week.

Joe Schillings Jr., was down from Myrtle Point one day last week.

Jesse Miller, of Bandon, was in town last Thursday on business.

Mrs. Nellie Panter, of Bandon, was in town the last of the week.

Choice Onion Sets 10 cents per pound at Knowlton's Drug Store.

Sheriff Johnson made a business trip to the bay the last of the week.

Dr. L. G. Johnson, of Myrtle Point, was in town last Wednesday.

Fred Baker, of Brewster Valley, was in town last Saturday on business.

Herbert Armstrong, of North Bend, was in town the last of the week.

Dr. Sol. Endicott, of Bandon, was a Coquille visitor the last of the week.

Judge John F. Hall was over from the Bay on business one day last week.

William Boggs of Eugene, is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. L. Thompson, of this place.

Henry Sengstacken, of Marshfield, was in town on business the middle of last week.

F. E. McKenna went to Marshfield Thursday and returned on Saturday—purely business.

Dr. H. M. Shaw, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialist, will be at the Baxter Hotel, Saturday, March 20th. Glasses fitted.

Earl Chisholm, of Marshfield, spent a couple of days last week at this place, visiting old friends.

Mrs. Al Hite of Bandon, was visiting in this city the last of the week. She returned to Bandon Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson returned Wednesday of last week from their visit to San Francisco. They say that the Fair is great.

John Haga, of Bear Creek, accompanied by his wife and brother, W. F. Haga, was in town transacting business the middle of last week.

It is both cheaper and better to buy your Garden Seed in bulk.

Knowlton's Drug Store

Mrs. Bob Maddox, who was taken to the Mercy Hospital a couple of weeks ago, returned here last Saturday, much improved.

Mrs. Fred Slagle and Mrs. Williams went to the Bay last Wednesday, Mrs. Slagle intending to spend a week there visiting friends.

Mrs. Williams returned the same day accompanied by her sister, Miss Ruth Woodford, who had been visiting there since the first of the week.

State of Ohio, city of Toledo, Jas. Lucas County.

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATHARRH CURE.

FRANK J. CHENEY, Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1935.

A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public.

Hall's Catharrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, etc.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Art Matthews, of Bridge, was in town last week.

Claude Giles, of Myrtle Point, was in town on Friday.

N. C. McCloud, of North Bend was in town last Friday.

J. E. Paulson and wife went to Marshfield this morning.

W. J. Conrad, of Marshfield, was a Coquille visitor on Friday.

J. O. Stemmler, of Myrtle Point, was in town on business, Friday.

Morris Wisler went to Bandon on business the middle of last week.

Home-made taffies, brittles etc. at Folsom's Confectionery. Always fresh. Try them.

Mrs. Grace Delmore, of North Bend, was a Coquille visitor, on Friday.

Dr. Frank Pettit made a business trip to Bandon the middle of the week.

Wm. Rohm, of Riverton, was doing business here the first of last week.

Onion Sets, the best that can be grown, 10 cents a pound.

Knowlton's Drug Store

Mrs. Reuben Mast Jr., of Bandon, was visiting friends in town last week.

At the last legislature a bill was passed to the effect that one no longer has to have a license to fish in the ocean.

I am in the market for Chatham Bark, Butchers' and Farmers' Hides, Wool, Pelts and Furs.

Geo. T. MOULTON

Archie Tennison of this city, spent the last of the week in Marshfield.

Thomas Sturdevant, of Myrtle Point was a Coquille visitor the first of this week.

Chas. Hall, head of the Coos and Curry Telephone Co., is making a visit to the city today.

The Beach street bridge to Knowlton heights is nearly completed and will probably be finished this week.

Spring Millinery will be on display at the White House Wednesday March 10th.

W. H. Schroeder received word the last of the week that his mother, Mrs. J. S. Schroeder of Arago, is quite ill, but she is reported some better now.

Commenting on our item of last week, M. G. Pohl says that he doesn't smoke for comfort altogether; but is doing his smoking here so that he won't have to do it hereafter.

Wednesday of last week Farman Hickam, the little son of John Hickam, of this place, had his tonsils removed by Dr. Richmond. The child had been afflicted with throat trouble for some time.

Large supply of Garden Seeds both in packets and in bulk at Knowlton's Drug Store

G. J. Lemanski, the Movie Man, of Marshfield, who recently sold out of the moving picture business at that city, was in town the last of the week. He went to Bandon Saturday to look over the prospects at that place.

Dee Haskins, of this city, has just returned from a trip to Roseburg, where he spent several days of last week. He reports it dead out there with a capital D. He says that our little city is twice as lively as Roseburg.

I. R. Tower, of Marshfield was in town the first of the week. He says that the Marshfield Gun Club are going to shoot for their "Fred Gilbert Cup" on their own grounds, and not here, as had been reported. They are holding their shoot on the 21st of the month.

Rev. A. S. Hisey will deliver a lecture entitled "Under Three Flags" next Friday evening, Mar. 19, at 7:30 at the M. E. Church, under the auspices of the Epworth League. No admission. An offering will be taken.

Mr. Hisey spent two years as a soldier in the Philippine Islands and will give a most interesting and instructive address.

The logging train was held up at this place till three o'clock in the morning Wednesday waiting for the wreckage near Henryville to be cleared away. The entire logging train crew slept in the station while waiting orders. Two slept in the corners and one took his rest in the coal bucket.

At its meeting last night the city council discussed plans for the work on the new pipe line, to be commenced as soon as the water bond sale is closed up. The conclusion reached was to build the line by day labor, employing local people on a wage of scale of $2.25 and up, for an eight-hour day. C. I. Kime to have charge of the job.

Have you paid the printer.

Reuben Mast Jr., of Bandon, was in town on Friday.

Joe Schillings Sr. of Myrtle Point was in town on Saturday.

Sweet's high-grade chocolates and box candy at Folsom's Confectionery only.

Dr. P. F. Parsons of Eugene, who has been at this place for the past two weeks, left this morning for Bandon.

A. H. Powers, of Marshfield, accompanied by his wife and daughter, were in Coquille the middle of last week.

C. R. Barrow has received his copy of all the bills that were up before the last legislature, those that were passed and otherwise.

Save money by buying your Garden Seeds in bulk, instead of small packets, at Knowlton's Drug Store.

R. M. D. Witt, late of Broken Bow, Okla., is looking over this section with a view to buying here. His impressions, so far, are most favorable.

M. G. Pohl, of Bandon, states that he has twenty-eight nephews, that are enlisted and fighting with the Germans in the present European War.

It is reported that one of the engines that was assisting in clearing the track as a result of the wreck last week, was derailed, and rolled into the ditch.

County Agriculturist Smith has on display in his window an egg 8 1/2 by 6 1/2 inches in circumference. It was brought in by F. F. Cook and is of the Rhode Island Red variety.

Knowlton's Drug Store carries a full line of Garden and Field Seeds, also the best Onion Sets at 10 cents per pound.

The closed season on Salmon comes into effect the 20th of this month. After that date it will be unlawful to catch them with nets. You can catch with hook and line after that date, (if you are able.)

A black cat ran right across John Aasen's path Monday morning. John swears that if he had seen it he would have shot it. He is afraid that it is a bad sign that he will not get his logs out of Middle creek this Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hogan are notable additions to Coquille's population. They have apartments in the Collier residence, across the street from the location of the marble works which Mr. Hogan is establishing.

Little Willie Norton, son of W. B. Norton of Myrtle Point whose head was crushed by a log some weeks past, and who was reported at that time to be in a very serious condition, is now fast improving and well on the road to recovery.

"Shiners" are reported to be biting something ferociously in the river. There is evidently something to the report, as a small boy was seen coming up the street, one day last week with both hands chuck full, and fish tails protruding from all his pockets.

The Methodist Church South will present an opera entitled "The Penant" at the Masonic opera house next Tuesday evening, the 23rd. The cast inclides 28 people and the proceeds will be used for church purposes.

Deputy Sheriff Andy Davis went over to Marshfield yesterday and closed up the Jesse Moore saloon under attachment proceedings. That he stayed in the place too long after closing it up is evident from the fact that he now thinks it is located in a brick building.

Rev. A. S. Hisey will deliver a lecture entitled "Under Three Flags" next Friday evening, Mar. 19, at 7:30 at the M. E. Church, under the auspices of the Epworth League. No admission. An offering will be taken.

Mr. Hisey spent two years as a soldier in the Philippine Islands and will give a most interesting and instructive address.

The logging train was held up at this place till three o'clock in the morning Wednesday waiting for the wreckage near Henryville to be cleared away. The entire logging train crew slept in the station while waiting orders. Two slept in the corners and one took his rest in the coal bucket.

At its meeting last night the city council discussed plans for the work on the new pipe line, to be commenced as soon as the water bond sale is closed up. The conclusion reached was to build the line by day labor, employing local people on a wage of scale of $2.25 and up, for an eight-hour day. C. I. Kime to have charge of the job.

Have you paid the printer.

Reuben Mast Jr., of Bandon, was in town on Friday.

Joe Schillings Sr. of Myrtle Point was in town on Saturday.

Sweet's high-grade chocolates and box candy at Folsom's Confectionery only.

Dr. P. F. Parsons of Eugene, who has been at this place for the past two weeks, left this morning for Bandon.

A. H. Powers, of Marshfield, accompanied by his wife and daughter, were in Coquille the middle of last week.

C. R. Barrow has received his copy of all the bills that were up before the last legislature, those that were passed and otherwise.

Save money by buying your Garden Seeds in bulk, instead of small packets, at Knowlton's Drug Store.

R. M. D. Witt, late of Broken Bow, Okla., is looking over this section with a view to buying here. His impressions, so far, are most favorable.

M. G. Pohl, of Bandon, states that he has twenty-eight nephews, that are enlisted and fighting with the Germans in the present European War.

It is reported that one of the engines that was assisting in clearing the track as a result of the wreck last week, was derailed, and rolled into the ditch.

County Agriculturist Smith has on display in his window an egg 8 1/2 by 6 1/2 inches in circumference. It was brought in by F. F. Cook and is of the Rhode Island Red variety.

Knowlton's Drug Store carries a full line of Garden and Field Seeds, also the best Onion Sets at 10 cents per pound.

The closed season on Salmon comes into effect the 20th of this month. After that date it will be unlawful to catch them with nets. You can catch with hook and line after that date, (if you are able.)

A black cat ran right across John Aasen's path Monday morning. John swears that if he had seen it he would have shot it. He is afraid that it is a bad sign that he will not get his logs out of Middle creek this Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hogan are notable additions to Coquille's population. They have apartments in the Collier residence, across the street from the location of the marble works which Mr. Hogan is establishing.

Little Willie Norton, son of W. B. Norton of Myrtle Point whose head was crushed by a log some weeks past, and who was reported at that time to be in a very serious condition, is now fast improving and well on the road to recovery.

"Shiners" are reported to be biting something ferociously in the river. There is evidently something to the report, as a small boy was seen coming up the street, one day last week with both hands chuck full, and fish tails protruding from all his pockets.

The Methodist Church South will present an opera entitled "The Penant" at the Masonic opera house next Tuesday evening, the 23rd. The cast inclides 28 people and the proceeds will be used for church purposes.

Deputy Sheriff Andy Davis went over to Marshfield yesterday and closed up the Jesse Moore saloon under attachment proceedings. That he stayed in the place too long after closing it up is evident from the fact that he now thinks it is located in a brick building.

Rev. A. S. Hisey will deliver a lecture entitled "Under Three Flags" next Friday evening, Mar. 19, at 7:30 at the M. E. Church, under the auspices of the Epworth League. No admission. An offering will be taken.

Mr. Hisey spent two years as a soldier in the Philippine Islands and will give a most interesting and instructive address.

The logging train was held up at this place till three o'clock in the morning Wednesday waiting for the wreckage near Henryville to be cleared away. The entire logging train crew slept in the station while waiting orders. Two slept in the corners and one took his rest in the coal bucket.

At its meeting last night the city council discussed plans for the work on the new pipe line, to be commenced as soon as the water bond sale is closed up. The conclusion reached was to build the line by day labor, employing local people on a wage of scale of $2.25 and up, for an eight-hour day. C. I. Kime to have charge of the job.

Have you paid the printer.

Reuben Mast Jr., of Bandon, was in town on Friday.

Joe Schillings Sr. of Myrtle Point was in town on Saturday.

Sweet's high-grade chocolates and box candy at Folsom's Confectionery only.

Dr. P. F. Parsons of Eugene, who has been at this place for the past two weeks, left this morning for Bandon.

A. H. Powers, of Marshfield, accompanied by his wife and daughter, were in Coquille the middle of last week.

C. R. Barrow has received his copy of all the bills that were up before the last legislature, those that were passed and otherwise.

Save money by buying your Garden Seeds in bulk, instead of small packets, at Knowlton's Drug Store.

R. M. D. Witt, late of Broken Bow, Okla., is looking over this section with a view to buying here. His impressions, so far, are most favorable.

M. G. Pohl, of Bandon, states that he has twenty-eight nephews, that are enlisted and fighting with the Germans in the present European War.

It is reported that one of the engines that was assisting in clearing the track as a result of the wreck last week, was derailed, and rolled into the ditch.

County Agriculturist Smith has on display in his window an egg 8 1/2 by 6 1/2 inches in circumference. It was brought in by F. F. Cook and is of the Rhode Island Red variety.

Knowlton's Drug Store carries a full line of Garden and Field Seeds, also the best Onion Sets at 10 cents per pound.

The closed season on Salmon comes into effect the 20th of this month. After that date it will be unlawful to catch them with nets. You can catch with hook and line after that date, (if you are able.)

A black cat ran right across John Aasen's path Monday morning. John swears that if he had seen it he would have shot it. He is afraid that it is a bad sign that he will not get his logs out of Middle creek this Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hogan are notable additions to Coquille's population. They have apartments in the Collier residence, across the street from the location of the marble works which Mr. Hogan is establishing.

Little Willie Norton, son of W. B. Norton of Myrtle Point whose head was crushed by a log some weeks past, and who was reported at that time to be in a very serious condition, is now fast improving and well on the road to recovery.

"Shiners" are reported to be biting something ferociously in the river. There is evidently something to the report, as a small boy was seen coming up the street, one day last week with both hands chuck full, and fish tails protruding from all his pockets.

The Methodist Church South will present an opera entitled "The Penant" at the Masonic opera house next Tuesday evening, the 23rd. The cast inclides 28 people and the proceeds will be used for church purposes.

Deputy Sheriff Andy Davis went over to Marshfield yesterday and closed up the Jesse Moore saloon under attachment proceedings. That he stayed in the place too long after closing it up is evident from the fact that he now thinks it is located in a brick building.

Rev. A. S. Hisey will deliver a lecture entitled "Under Three Flags" next Friday evening, Mar. 19, at 7:30 at the M. E. Church, under the auspices of the Epworth League. No admission. An offering will be taken.

Mr. Hisey spent two years as a soldier in the Philippine Islands and will give a most interesting and instructive address.

The logging train was held up at this place till three o'clock in the morning Wednesday waiting for the wreckage near Henryville to be cleared away. The entire logging train crew slept in the station while waiting orders. Two slept in the corners and one took his rest in the coal bucket.

At its meeting last night the city council discussed plans for the work on the new pipe line, to be commenced as soon as the water bond sale is closed up. The conclusion reached was to build the line by day labor, employing local people on a wage of scale of $2.25 and up, for an eight-hour day. C. I. Kime to have charge of the job.

Have you paid the printer.

Reuben Mast Jr., of Bandon, was in town on Friday.

Joe Schillings Sr. of Myrtle Point was in town on Saturday.

Sweet's high-grade chocolates and box candy at Folsom's Confectionery only.

Dr. P. F. Parsons of Eugene, who has been at this place for the past two weeks, left this morning for Bandon.

A. H. Powers, of Marshfield, accompanied by his wife and daughter, were in Coquille the middle of last week.

C. R. Barrow has received his copy of all the bills that were up before the last legislature, those that were passed and otherwise.

Save money by buying your Garden Seeds in bulk, instead of small packets, at Knowlton's Drug Store.

R. M. D. Witt, late of Broken Bow, Okla., is looking over this section with a view to buying here. His impressions, so far, are most favorable.

M. G. Pohl, of Bandon, states that he has twenty-eight nephews, that are enlisted and fighting with the Germans in the present European War.

It is reported that one of the engines that was assisting in clearing the track as a result of the wreck last week, was derailed, and rolled into the ditch.

County Agriculturist Smith has on display in his window an egg 8 1/2 by 6 1/2 inches in circumference. It was brought in by F. F. Cook and is of the Rhode Island Red variety.

Knowlton's Drug Store carries a full line of Garden and Field Seeds, also the best Onion Sets at 10 cents per pound.

The closed season on Salmon comes into effect the 20th of this month. After that date it will be unlawful to catch them with nets. You can catch with hook and line after that date, (if you are able.)

A black cat ran right across John Aasen's path Monday morning. John swears that if he had seen it he would have shot it. He is afraid that it is a bad sign that he will not get his logs out of Middle creek this Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hogan are notable additions to Coquille's population. They have apartments in the Collier residence, across the street from the location of the marble works which Mr. Hogan is establishing.

Little Willie Norton, son of W. B. Norton of Myrtle Point whose head was crushed by a log some weeks past, and who was reported at that time to be in a very serious condition, is now fast improving and well on the road to recovery.

"Shiners" are reported to be biting something ferociously in the river. There is evidently something to the report, as a small boy was seen coming up the street, one day last week with both hands chuck full, and fish tails protruding from all his pockets.

The Methodist Church South will present an opera entitled "The Penant" at the Masonic opera house next Tuesday evening, the 23rd. The cast inclides 28 people and the proceeds will be used for church purposes.

Deputy Sheriff Andy Davis went over to Marshfield yesterday and closed up the Jesse Moore saloon under attachment proceedings. That he stayed in the place too long after closing it up is evident from the fact that he now thinks it is located in a brick building.

Rev. A. S. Hisey will deliver a lecture entitled "Under Three Flags" next Friday evening, Mar. 19, at 7:30 at the M. E. Church, under the auspices of the Epworth League. No admission. An offering will be taken.

Mr. Hisey spent two years as a soldier in the Philippine Islands and will give a most interesting and instructive address.

The logging train was held up at this place till three o'clock in the morning Wednesday waiting for the wreckage near Henry