Chance for the Boys
BOYS MAY WIN FREE TRIP TO STATE FAIR

Industrial Field Worker L. P. Harrington, from the Department of Education, Salem, will spend the week in Coos County, on the invitation of Supt. Baker, in the interest of boys and girls club work for county and state.

Coos county has a good liberal premium list for the work of the young people, and awards will be made at the county fair at Myrtle Point, September 10. There are several hundred young people enrolled in the clubs of Coos county.

These boys and girls are in correspondence with the State Leader, Prof. F. L. Griffin, of Corvallis and receive from the college bulletins bearing on the projects in which they are interested.

CAMP AND SCHOOL FOR BOYS
The boys camp and school was so much of a success at the State Fair last year that the managers offer it again this year, and in addition provide for a camp and school for girls.

The State Fair board will have these young people as their guests for the week of the fair, September 27th to October 2nd, inclusive. All expenses will be paid after they reach Salem.

Coos county has provided for the expense necessary in taking two boys to Salem. These boys must be county prize winners in the county, as provided in the premium list.

COLLEGE SUMMER SCHOOL
The State offers this year as capital prizes for the State Fair, trips to Corvallis Summer School 1916—with all expenses paid by interested business men who believe in this practical educational movement.

The wide-awake boys and girls of Coos county should look after these fine educational tips and other county and state prizes. Get your exhibits ready in time and send to Mrs. Mabel A. Roberts, Sec. Coos County School Fair Association, Myrtle Point, Oregon.

Don't forget the date of the county fair, September 10. Separate exhibits may be made for county and state fair. Supt. R. C. Baker and Supervisor F. A. Golden are most hearty in their support of this school fair movement, county and state.

and as the car was hugging the outside of the road at the time, it shot over the edge before Mintonye, who was steering, could straighten it up. The car rolled down to a meadow, stopping bottom up and pinning Mr. Barton down with his face in the dirt, from which dangerous position he was rescued by the other two. A passing Fordist loaned a new inner tube, and the car was righted and driven into town with its passengers, Mr. Barton assisting Mr. Mintonye in steering. Examination by X-ray showed that Mr. Mintonye's arm was broken close to the shoulder, and he will be laid up for some weeks.

Brought Back For Bill

Which They Had Paid

The case of the State of Oregon against E. H. Grigware, B. J. Grigware and I. W. Larsen came to a very sudden termination before Justice Stanley this morning, when it developed that Mrs. Nora Wilkinson, the private prosecutor, had received payment for the board bill which she had charged them with jumping.

The parties had roomed at the Traveler's Rest for about 3 weeks while looking for employment here. Being unable to find work, they started for Roseburg, where they were acquainted, promising to send the amount they owed Mrs. Wilkinson upon arriving there. As soon as they arrived they raised the money and sent the amount of their bill to Mrs. Wilkinson. In the meantime, she had sworn out a warrant and the men were brought back, and their examination was set for this morning before Justice Stanley. The fact that the lady had received her money was unknown to the presiding judge until the lady was placed on the stand. She stated that she had notified Sheriff Johnson of the fact, and why the county was put to the expense of bringing witnesses before the justice does not appear.

The report of a Roseburg paper that the men were arrested for stealing a drum at Marshfield, must have been the product of some one's over vivid imagination, as nothing of the kind was involved.

Another board bill case is on this afternoon, when Charles Smith is being examined on a charge preferred by Landlord Young, of the Baxter Hotel, who had reason to believe that he was about to skip to San Francisco leaving a $20 deficit in his board bill. Mr. Young states that other cases are on the way, as he has become weary of being beaten out of board bills and has sworn out some other warrants, in which cases the arrests have not been made.
