Notice of Hearing of Final Account

Notice is hereby given that the final account of John D. Goss, as administrator of the estate of James Tracy, deceased, has been filed in the County Court of Coos County, State of Oregon, and that the 27th day of September, 1915, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., has been duly appointed by such Court for the hearing of objections to such final account and the settlement thereof, at which time any person interested in such estate may appear and file objections thereto in writing and contest the same.

JOHN D. GOSS,
Administrator of the estate of James
Tracy, deceased.
8-24-5

Notice of Final Settlement

Notice is hereby given that the un-dersigned has filed in the County Court in and for Coos County, Oregon, his final account in the matter of the estate of Many I. Peterson deceased and that of Mary L. Peterson, deceased, and that the County Court has set Monday, the 20th day of September, 1915, as the day and the County Court room at the day and the County Court room at the cost of the room upon the real property as persuaded by the knights of the order to don its grand cross on the occasion of the celebration of the centennial of

County of Coos

Farmers and Merchants Bank of Coquille, a corporation,

Plaintiff,

Alfred Johnson Lumber Company, a corporation, Seeley-Anderson Logging Company, a corporation, Robert Dol-lar, Trustee, and the Grace Dollar Steamship Company, a corporation, Defendants.

SUIT IN EQUITY-To foreclose a

Twenty-five Hundred Dollars and interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from the 18th day of November, 1913, for an attorney fee of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars, and for its costs and disbursements in this suit.

That a certain pledge agreement given by defendant Alfred Johnson Lumber Company to plaintiff securing the sum above mentioned upon the following of the capital step.

above mentioned upon the following described property, to-wit: Three shares of the capital stock of the Grace Dollar Steamship Company, a corporation, of the par value of $1000.00 per share, and as evidenced by certificate numbered 9, dated at Portland, Maine, February 19, 1913. and signed by Robert Dollar, President of said Grace Dollar Steamrresident of said Grace Dollar Steam-ship Company, be foreclosed in the manner provided by law, and in the manner prayed for in plaintiff's com-plaint; that said personal property be sold by the Sheriff of Goos County, Orgoin by the Sheriif of Coos County, Or-egon, according to law, and as personal property is sold on execution and ac-cording to the practice of this Court; and the proceeds of said sale applied to the payment of the costs of this suit, attorney's fees, the costs of said sale and the sum which shall be found due aid pledge agreem and the draft and acceptance thereof secured by same; and that said defend-ants and all persons claiming under ants and all persons claiming under them, subsequent to the execution of said pledge and subsequent to the time of the delivery of said three shares of stock to plaintiff, be barred and foreclosed of all rights, claim and equity of redemption in and to said personal property; that the overplus, if any there be, be paid to the Clerk of this Court to abide the further order of the Court, and for such other and further relief as the Court shall deem meet and equitable in the premises.

Mount Vernon, the Home of Washington (From the Washington Herald, April 17)
The beauties of Mount Vernon, and a short account of its interesting history are written about in an exceptionally delightful way in the above-named book of about fifty pages. The author shows able in the premises.

Service of this summons is made by mencing with the issue of August 10, 1915. J. J. STANLEY, 8-9-7t Attorney for Plaintiff.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Ore-gon, for Coos County.

JENNIE COLVAR Plaintiff

upon you, if served within this County, to command the admiration of all. It or, if served in any other County of contains exceptionally well executed this state, then within twenty days from the date of the service of this summons upon you; and if you fail so to George and Martha Washington. In appear and answer, for want thereof the descriptions of the parts of the house plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint, a succinct statement of which is: For the dissolution of the marriage contract existing between plaintiff and defendent and for costs.

comparison with the unbounded resources of our own time.

The service of this summons is made by publication pursuant to an order signed by James Watson, Judge of the County Court of the State of Oregon for Coos County, made August 9,1915, directing said summons to be published in the Coquille Herald; the first of said publications to be on August 10,1915, the last particitism, will ever make him the ex-

Oranges are a most valuable fruit. Orange juice allays thirst and with or it will be sent postpatd by few exceptions is well borne by the lishers, upon receipt of one dollar. weakest stomach. It is also a laxa- U. S. PRESS ASSOCIATION tive, and if taken at night or before breakfast it will be found most bene-

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for

-
W. J. CONBAD Plaintiff	SUMMONS
Molossi Lucit, and all other persons claiming any right, title or in- terest in or to the herein described real	PUBLICATIO IN FORECLOSUI OF TAX
estate. Defendant	LIEN

day of July 1915 by the Tax Collector of the County of Coos, State of Oregon, for the amount of Five and 47-100 Dollars, the same being the amount then due and delineuent for texes for the year within sight of the walls of Constantinople while Czar Alexander II. was courthouse in Coquille, Oregon, as the place for hearing objections to said final account and the settlement of said estate.

ELSON M. PETERSON,

Executor of the estate of Mary L. Peterson, deceased.

	Year' Tax		Da! Pai		Tax Rec't No.	Am't	Rat of Int
	1907	July		1915	6643	11,57	15
	1908	","	5.3	22	9254	7.29	11
	1909	11.	22	33	9971	4.21	77
	1911	2.5	27	2.5	9704	4.86	11
	1912	11	77	2.2	9940	4.20	12
	1913	22	"	22	10006	4.42	**
1	1914	12	11		7269	3.28	22.
ı	D. +		** *

Pledge Agreement.

To Robert Dollar, Trustee, and the Grace Dollar Steamship Company, a corporation, two of the above entitled defendants:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF THE ST

"They say diet has much to do with people's character." "Nothing of the sort. I saw that sour Miss Tart the other day filling up on angel cake."-Baltimore American

An Outdoor Sport.
"Why do you beat the rugs with golf club?"

"It looks more like I was doing this for exercise and not under comput sion."-Kansas City Journal,

Discretion of speech is more than elo-quence, and to speak agreeably to him speak in good words and good order .-Francis Bacon.

short account of its interesting history its color. of about fifty pages. The author shows Service of this summons is made by publication thereof in pursuance of an order made by the Honorable John S. Coke, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Coos County, dated the 5th day of August, 1915, directing that service thereof be made by publication in the Coquille Herald, a weekly newspaper published in the city of Coquille, Coos County, Oregon, once a week for a period of six weeks, commencing with the issue of August 10, himself to be thoroughly acquainted of interest. Although the book is writ- air."-Louisville Courier-Journal. the pilgrim visiting Mount Vernon for the first time, and especially so for the visitor who has a deep regard for the traditions which clothe the nation's greatest shrine.

> Each visitor will be the better and wiser for the reading of this volume and Coos County, made August 9, 1915, directing said summons to be published in the Coquille Herald; the first of said publications to be on August 10,1915, the last oneS ept. 21, 1915.

WALTER SINCLAIR
8-10-7t

Attorney for Plaintiff

Ior all time, and his devotion to his country, his self-sacrificing, his long enduring toil, and above all his exalted patriotism, will ever make him the expendence of the nation. He is truthfully portrayed by the author of this little book. It is a book all should read.

By J. E. Jones with thrity-three illus trations, $1.00 net. Any bookseller will get this for Bond Building Washington, D. C.

An Exclusive Decoration Among the most inaccessible of dec-orations is the Grand Cross of the Russian Order of St. George, founded by Catherine the Great in 1769. In all its history of more than 150 years there have been but four Russians to receive the grand cross. The first was the Empress Catherine berself, who assumed it ex officio. The late Grand Duke Michael Nicholaievitch, having received the inferior grades in the Crimean To Molossi Luigi the above named le- and Caucasus wars, was awarded the fendant and all other persons claiming grand cross for his achievements as any right, title or interest in or to the commander in chief of the Russian army in Asia Minor during the war you are hereby notified that W. J. Conrad the holder of Certificate of Delinquency numbered 103 issued on the 23rd was on the same occasion elected a commander in chief of the Russian Mary L. Peterson, deceased.

You are further notified that said W.

J. Conrad has paid taxes on said premto telephone systems in the tropics by In the Circui Court of the State of ises for prior or subsequent years, with Oregon in and for the the rate of interest on said amounts as he said, have not sense enough to duck States improved and many states with their heads when they find a telephone or telegraph wire across their tracks, but push on and carry the wires and sometimes the poles with them. White ants eat the telegraph poles if these a telephone instrument that had been own communities. used as a hive by bees, which entered insulation by spinning over the wires in many sections they continue to be sgainst you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to wit: Within six weeks from the 10th day of August, 1915, and if you fail to appear and answer on or before the 21st day of September, 1915, that being the last day of the time prescribed in the order of publication, the plaintiff will take judgment and decree against you for the relief demanded in its complaint, a succinct statement of which is as follows:

Plaintiff will take judgment against the above entitled in the of the same of the s This summons is published by order of the Honorable James Watson, Judge of the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Coos and said order was made and dated this 1st day of September, 1915 and the date of the

"What's the objection to it?" "People are too egotistical. If there is anything I hate it's egotism. And when I see kings going about confidently and doing things wrong, and diplomats trying all sorts of insincere lawyers seeking applause for arguing on the wrong side of a case, and every out a blush, I am forced to the conviction that I am the only consistently moral gentleman on this globe. And it makes me feel lonely."-Exchange.

Ebony. from India, Ceylon and other tropical tional Congress of Mothers and Parent long. The darkness of the wood in ng a powerful influence for good roads. creases with the age of the tree. It is a very hard wood, and hence it is desirable for furniture making. Its to 5 in the morning, does her own cookunique color, too, makes it always The beauties of Mount Vernon, and a with ivery by the Greeks to bring out worthy of notice, and it was combined

> Not For Her. "I don't see how you can tolerate that man.' "Oh, but he is a foreign nobleman,

"I don't care," said the other girl. 'I'll be jiggered if I'd marry a man who does his courting with a bored don't you? Young Lady-All but one thing. Aviator-and that is? Young Lady-What makes it stay up?-New Business.

why you are staring at her.-Philadel-Peking Observatory.

Peking is the oldest in the world, having been founded in 1279 by Kublai

Covent Garden Covent garden, London's greatest vegetable and fruit market, was once convent garden owned by the monks

GET YOUR

Butter Wrappers

Herald Office

STILL IN THE LAND OF MUD

Small Percentage of Improved Roads In the United States.

GREAT LOSSES TO FARMERS

Good Roads In Rural Communities Not Only Improve the Economic Conditions Therein, but the Social Conditions as Well-They Materially Affect the Spread of Education.

A little booklet written by S. M. Williams of Lima, O., points out the ecocomic and social influences exerted by both good and bad roads.

"The public is gradually awakening to the importance of permanent road construction," states Mr. Williams in his booklet. "But with only 10 per he said, have not sense enough to duck States improved and many states with less than 5 per cent of improved roads we are still in the land of mud. Many sections of the country are opposing road improvement because of a lack of are of any wood but teak. He showed understanding of its value to their

"In rural communities one day in a by the slot for the switch hook and week was set aside from farm duties formed inside a comb that was renew- for going to town. The farmer was ed as often as it was cleared away by satisfied to drive through the mud and over the rough roads. Unfortunately satisfied with such road conditions, but in other sections the farmer knows better. He is demanding the same advantages enjoyed by his competitors in other sections and due to the building

> "In one county of Tennessee, before road improvement began, one bale of cotton was an average load for a two horse team. There are now 100 miles of improved roads in that county, and twelve bales is not an uncommon load, thereby increasing the earning ability of the team for the farmer twelve

"In another county of Tennessee the ost of delivering wheat from farm to railroad, a distance of ten miles, was reduced from 15 to 4 cents per bushel after their roads were improved.

"Careful investigation and comparion in the showing of the farmers' and other teams before and after road improvement disclose some remarkable sults, in one case an increase of 380 and another of 233 per cent. Compare and consider this profit for the farmer with his small proportion of the road mprovement cost.

"The United States department of agriculture estimates that the farmers of the United States are losing annually $250,000,000 on account of the inacssibility of their products at certain times of the year, due to bad road conlitions. "Investigation shows that there are tricks with complete effrontery, and many counties rich in agricultural products, but burdened with bad roads, where the annual incoming shipments body displaying utter selfishness with- greatly exceed the outgoing. With improved roads such counties could not only be self supporting, but could ship

"We who live in towns often fail to realize the influence of road conditions upon the social life of rural communities. It is only fair to say that the Nacountries, where it is obtained in logs sometimes fifteen and twenty feet long. The darkness of the wood in er of moderate means, who rises at 4 ing, washing, ironing and sewing, should be assisted in finding ways and means for intellectual improvement in order that she may bring up her family of boys and girls to be useful members

"Experts have found that insanity is a social condition with a distinct relation to good roads. Two states were recently astounded by a report of an investigation made within their borders as to the causes of insanity. In both states the road conditions were miserable, and it was found that a large percentage of the insane were the wives and daughters of the farm-Enthusiastic Aviator (after long ex-planation 6. principle and workings of portunity for social intercommunicaers where there was little or no ophis biplane)-Now you understand it, tion, but whose lives were of monotony and loneliness, due to isolation on account of miserable road conditions.

"The building of good roads will relieve the isolation of these rural dis-tricts and give the inhabitants oppor-To the above named defendant, Homer D. Colyar.

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within ten days from the date of the service of this summons upon you, if served in any other County of this republic. The tolume is not only valuable for its educational matter, and as a thoroughly good guide, but also as an example of line book making. The execution is perfect; the printers' art was never better shown, and the illustrations are such as to command the admiration of all. It or the founder of this republic. The volume is not only valuable for its education as an example of line book making. The execution is perfect; the printers' art was never better shown, and the illustrations are such as to command the admiration of all. It or the founder of this republic. The volume is not only valuable for its education as the unfortunate and pitiable conditions. Poor roads mean It tons. Poor roads m tunity for a large socialization, which ba-Perhaps she's trying to find out cy 12. The excess of illiteracy in rural over arban population, due to a lower percentage of improved roads, showed for the south Atlantic states 400 pers nt and 140 per cent for the New England states. In both of these comparisons only native whites of native parentage were considered. The per entage of liliteracy among the urban white population is estimated to be only nine-tenths of 1 per cent. Rural illiteracy among the same class of inhabitants is 600 per cent greater and due to the influence of bad roads upon the school and social lives of the rural

A Medieval Tale

By ESTHER VANDEVEER

Medleval times were prolific of stories of the devil, who was supposed to be going about making bargains for souls. A great many such tales illustrating his methods have been handed down to us from that age in which they were believed by those who cir-culated them. Here is one that has remained dormant for many years. It was told me by an American multimillionaire who bought a castle in Germany and found the legend ame papers that had not been disturbed for hundreds of years.

Count Caspar Ards sid, the lord of the castle in questi i, was in love with Bertha, the daughter of a neighboring Baron Cronsheld. There had been a feud between the families, and Cronsheld refused the young count the hand of his daughter. One evening the count was sitting in his cabinet, disconsolate that he must be deprived of his love, when the door opened and a man entered wearing a pointed beard and an upturned mus

"Who are you," asked the count, and how did you gain access to me

"I am the devil," was the response, and I have come to help you to win the hand of the girl you love." "Leave me; you will require a soul to pay for your assistance."

"You are right. I must have the soul of your firstborn child."

"Begone, I say; I will have nothing to do with you.'

"Then you must give up all hope of a union with the Countess Bertha. Her father will never yield."

The devil stuck to his work, conversing with the count and constantly getting him under his satanic influence. Caspar asked him how he would ac-complish fils object, and he said the baron was a skillful chess player. The devil would taunt him into playing a game, the winner to name a husband for his daughter. Caspar, who was desperately in love, finally consented, but only after wringing from the devil a certain condition. He might redeem his child's soul if he could beat the devil at a game of chess. This did not seem likely, but it was the only hope

Satan would give.

The bargain having been struck. Satan sent the baron word that he had heard of his remarkable skill at chess and challenged him to a contest. The baron, much flattered, invited the chal-lenger to his castle. Satan appeared in the person of an agreeable young man giving evidence by his rich attire and general lavishness of being a grand ersonage. He told the baron that he would play him a game of chess, the stake to be what he had named to Caspar. The baron, supposing that he wanted Bertha for himself, consented. Of course the devil beat the baron, and the winner named for a husband for his daughter Count Caspar Ardenreid.

The baron consented, cursing the trickster at the same time and wondering why he had befriended the lovers. Since there was nothing against Count Caspar but the feud with which he had nothing to do, Baron Cronsheld made the best of it and soon became attached to his son-in-law. Caspar told him how he had won his consent and what he had agreed to pay for it. This excited the old man to spend a great deal of time studying difficult chess came to claim his grandchild he might edeem him by beating the arch fiend at his own game. He was so proud of his ability as a chess player that he eally aspired to beat the devil. The day a man child was born to the count and countess was both a happy and a sad one. The lady had learned from her husband the secret that her baby's soul must go to the devil, and since she was very religious the calamity was the more awful. Her father red her that her son was safe, for it had been stipulated that if any one could be found to beat the devil at chess the bargain would be off. He (the baron) had learned a number of ombinations any one of which was sure to win. The mother proposed that the baby be baptized at once, hoping that this might forestall Satan, but before ! could be done he appeared and claimed the child's soul. Since all depended on a chess contest the count proposed that three games be played between the baron and the devil, two games to win. So they sat down at once and began to first game with his eyes shut. He pur-posely threw away the game, but even without seeing the chessmen he could have beaten his antagonist if he had been so disposed. The second game he beat the baron in less than a dozen Cronsheld refused to play the third game, declaring that the best chess player in the world could not beat one who played using superhuman means. The count went to his wife to impart the news that their son's soul depended on the third game, which the devil was sure to win. Bertha said she had been praying to the Virgin Mary for help and had been told what to do. When ber husband went back to the devil he said he would play the third game him self. Satan laughed scornfully, but sat down at the board.

Half a dozen moves had been made and Satan had but two more to make to checkmate when Caspar threw back his doublet and displayed a gold cross. Satan cringed under the table and left the room like a dog with his tall be-And he never came back for his pay.

Try a Herald want ad for anything you want to buy or sell

POLK'S-OREGON and WASHINGTON Business Directory

L. POLK & CO., SEATTLE

"TALK TO PORTLAND"

Recent improvents in our long distance lines and switch-boards have resulted in much better transmission for telephone conversations to Roseburg, Eugene, Salem, Portland and all Western Oregon points. Business men will now find it is as easy to talk to their Portland Correspondents as at their local customers.

Use the Telephone It saves you time and money and makes for more satisfactory business relations.

Coos and Curry Telephone Co.

L. H. HAZARD, Casine

R. E. SHINE, V-Pres O. C. SANFORD, Asst. Cashier

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF COQUILLE, OREGON.

Transacts a General Banking Business

Board of Directors.

Correspondents

R. C. Dement, A. J. Sherwood, L. Harlocker, L. H. Hazard, Isaiah Hacker, R. E. Shine. National Bank of Commerce, New York City Crocker Woolworth N'l Bank, San Francisco First National Bank of Portland, Portland

IDLE MONEY

Is useless money. If you have any cash that isn't working put it to work for you as you worked for it Open a savings account with this bank and your money will at once begin earning interest for you and will keep at the task 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and 52 weeks in the year. Do

Farmers and Merchants Bank

Roseburg Myrtle Point Stage

And Auto Line

Leave Myrtle Point on arrival of beat from Bandon. Auto to Kock Creek and from Camus; only 14 miles of staging. Arrives at Rose-burg 7:30 p. m. connecting with north bound train. Arrive Myrtle

Make reservations in advance at Owl Drug Store, Marshfield.

Fare From Myrtle Point $7.00

Office at Laird's Stage Barn, Myrtle Point, Both Phones

OLD RELIABLE-EQUIPPED WITH WIRELESS

J. L. LAIRD, Proprietor

STEAMER BREAKWATER

Sails from Coos Bay

From Portland 8 a. m.

Every Thursday at 8 a. m. Tickets on sale at Portland City Ticket Office 6th & Oak St. P. L. STERLING, Agent Phone Main 181

HOTEL BAXTER

Under New Management

Having leased this well-equipped hotel, I propose to conduct it in such a manner as to merit patronage and give satisfaction to the traveling

M. M. YOUNG, Proprietor

SHOOT STRAIGHT

If you are to hit what you aim at.

AIM THROUGH US

People should know what you have to offer and we have the means of = telling them. ==

An Ad. from you in this paper will reach buyers who buy, isn't that sufficient?