Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Candlin who have spent the past two weeks at the exposition and visiting the various points of interest in the vicinity of San Francisco, reached Coos Bay on the Kilburn Sunday and came on home the same day. They report a most delightful vacation and are enthusiastic over the big fair. Mrs. Candlin was particularly impressed with the Canadian building and with the Philippine village, the latter showing the wonderful progress made by the people of the islands since the time of the St. Louis exposition. They found the weather delightful and the only thing to complain of, a not overly pleasant voyage home, and a delay of ten hours off the Columbia bar. However, as they passed up First street to their home Sunday they walked as people who had not been seasick, but had enjoyed a good rest and were mighty glad to be nearing home again.
