Chas. Baxter informs us that all the saloons in Marshfield intend to close down without a protest the first of the year, while at Bandon we learn that applications have already been made for 1916 licenses by several of the saloons.

Chicken Thieves Again Busy

Friday night chicken thieves again demonstrated their ability by relieving the chicken coop back of Moss' meat market of a dozen nice Plymouth Rock fryers. Those South Slough pirates can't hold a candle to Coquille's chicken thieves. The person or persons who have been doing the stealing go about it like Southern negroes and leave no trace.

Chapter of Accidents

Saturday night was a night of happenings. Earl Schroeder started things by breaking a leg. Ralph Lukens fainted in Shores' pool hall and a doctor had to be called to his assistance; a carload of joy riders rendered the latest hit of the season at 11:55 p. m., which caused a dog to howl the rest of the night; a rooster kept insisting all night that it was daylight, just because there was a full moon. Take it all in all Saturday night was one of the liveliest nights our little city has seen for some time.

One Brand.
"Paw, what's it mean 'burning the midnight oil?'" "Joy riding, my son."
—Buffalo Express.

Birthday Party.

Mrs. Z. C. Strang invited a number of girls to the Strang home last Wednesday in honor of her daughter Miss Zelma's eighteenth birthday. The affair was kept a secret from the guest of honor until she was startled by more than a dozen girls jumping up in a supposedly empty room. After the excitement was over, blank booklets were passed around together with a supply of old magazines, and a jolly afternoon was spent illustrating life stories by cut out pictures, according to the titles of the pages. In the evening a delicious chicken dinner was served in cafeteria style and soon afterwards the company adjourned to the Masonic hall to witness a basketball contest between the High school team and the town boys.

High School Debate.

Myrtle Cunningham, Mary Levar, Merton Tyrrell and Leslie Schroeder have been selected to represent the local high school in the contests of the State Debating League for the year. These contestants were chosen at a tryout held at the high school last Thursday. Messrs. Morrison, Law and Shimmen acting as judges. The debates to determine the championship of Coos county will be held on the evening of January 28, the subject for discussion being, "Resolved, that the Swiss system of military training and service should be adopted by the United States." Merton Tyrrell and Leslie Schroeder will uphold the affirmative side of this question against Myrtle Point at this place, while Mary Levar and Myrtle Cunningham will go to North Bend to contend for the negative.

DIED

Jimmie Sanderson, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Sanderson of this city, died at the home of his parents Friday night with double-sided pneumonia. He was at first attacked with throat trouble which seemed to go to his lungs and caused pneumonia to set in. He died within three days after taking the fever.

Coquille People Praise Simple Mixture

Many Coquille praise the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-ika. This remedy is the most THOROUGH bowel cleanser ever sold being even used successfully in appendicitis. ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach, ONE MINUTE after you take it the gasses rumble and pass out. Adler-ika cannot gripe and the INSTANT action is surprising.

Married

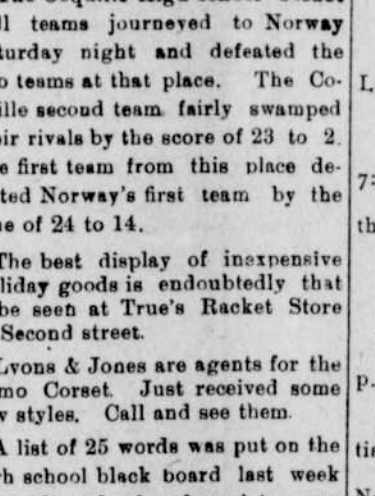

George R. Norris, of Fairview, and Miss Bethel Stock, of Sumner, were married at the Methodist parsonage in Marshfield Tuesday evening, December 14. Rev. Joseph Knotts performing the ceremony. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the parents of the groom and a brother of the bride being in attendance. Both of the young people belong to old pioneer families, their grandparents having come to Coos county and carved homes out of the wilderness long before there was a wagon road over the mountains.

The young couple will make their home at Fairview, where Mr.

Norris has recently built a home for his bride. The best wishes of many friends are extended to the happy pair.
