

"I'll Bet You a Year's Salary"

KITTY GRAY, an American newspaper reporter, finds and purchases half an old coin that she discovered in the window of an old curiosity shop. She is so impressed by the inscription which promises romance and adventure that she gives up her position on the newspaper in order to devote herself to solving the mystery. The derision of her editor moves her to bet him a year's salary that she can do it. She starts for the strange country and throughout the story she is shadowed by those who strive to thwart her at every turn.

How she triumphs over the most astounding obstacles, her hair-breadth escapes and thrilling adventures are told in the Universal's new magnificent picture serial, THE BROKEN COIN, founded on the story by Emerson Hough, the famous author who wrote such masterpieces of fiction as "The Mississippi Bubble," "54-40 or Fight," and scores of other huge successes. He has outdone his previous efforts in this wonderful story of THE BROKEN COIN, which is played by the strongest and most brilliant combination of moving picture stars ever brought together.

See Grace Cunard and Francis Ford in this triumph of realism and sensation. Follow Kitty Gray through her devious and adventurous quest, in the finest picture serial ever shown on the screen.

Drew, deceased, under and by authority of an order of the County Court of the State of Oregon in and for the County of Coos duly made and entered on the 29th day of January, 1916, authorizing and directing me so to do, will from and after the first day of March, 1916, proceed to sell at private sale all of the real property of the said estate, to-wit: the south half of the southeast quarter and the south half of the southwest quarter of section thirty-four, in township twenty-nine south, range fourteen west of the Willamette meridian, in Coos County, Oregon, to the highest and best bidder; terms of sale not less than one-half cash in hand at time of sale, balance payable not more than five years from date of sale with interest on such deferred payment, if any, at the rate of not less than eight per cent per annum.
Dated February 1, 1916.
GUY DREW, Administrator of the Estate of David M. Drew, Deceased. 2-1-5t

Base Deception.
Family Physician—I am afraid, Mrs. Gaybird, your husband cannot last much longer. The trouble with your husband, madam, is that he has overdrawn his account at the bank of vitality. Mrs. Gaybird—I felt sure he was deceiving me about something. Doctor, I give you my word, I never knew he had any account there.—Topeka Journal.

John Hay on Stanton.
In "The Life and Letters of John Hay" is this plaintive note to Nicolay: "My dear Nico—Don't, in a sudden spasm of good nature, send any more people with letters to me requesting favors from Stanton. I would rather make the tour of a smallpox hospital."

The Obliging Proprietor.
"Won't you please give me an order?" pleaded the persistent drummer. "Certainly," replied the crusty proprietor. "Get out!"

Was Willing.
Smith—You and Jones don't seem to be as friendly as you were. Does he owe you money? Brown—No, not exactly, but he wanted to.

The Gooseberry.
Gooseberry bushes were originally called crowsberry bushes, from the plants having prickles similar to those of the gorse shrub.

FORD OFF TO MAKE PEACE IN EUROPE

Leader Says He Is Confident Great Good Will Result From Trip.

New York.—Henry Ford and his guests, together with a large number of newspaper correspondents and moving picture men, set sail on the Oskar II to endeavor to bring the great European war to an end.
One hundred and forty names were on the list of Mr. Ford's guests. Of these 83 are peace envoys, 54 newspaper and magazine correspondents and three moving picture men. For their use Mr. Ford chartered the entire first and second cabins of the steamer.
The Oskar II should arrive at Christiania, Norway, her first stop, about December 14. Thence the party is to proceed to Stockholm, Copenhagen and The Hague. It is proposed to hold the peace conference at The Hague.
William J. Bryan and Thomas A. Edison arrived at the dock an hour before the steamer sailed to bid farewell to Mr. Ford.
Before sailing Mr. Ford issued what he called a farewell statement: "I am sailing with the firm belief," he said, "that a great good will come of this mission. It will keep alive the thought that peace is possible as well as desirable, and, so long as that is done, hope of peace exists."

MONASTIR OCCUPIED BY TEUTONIC ALLIES
Berlin, by wireless to Sayville, N. Y.—Retreating Serbian troops have been overtaken and defeated near the Albanian border by the Bulgarians, the war office announced here. More than 100 cannon were taken. The occupation of Monastir by Germans and Bulgarians is officially confirmed. The statement follows:
"German and Bulgarian detachments entered Monastir and were welcomed joyfully by the authorities and the people.
"Bulgarians halted the retreating enemy southwest of Pristrend (Serbia, near the Albanian border), defeated him and captured more than 100 cannon and large quantities of war material, among which were 200 automobiles."
Having achieved the conquest of Serbia, the Bulgarian and German forces are undertaking to conquer Montenegro. Greece, after appearing for one instant favorable to the allies, now seems less likely to support them.

BRITISH ARE BEATEN BACK
Failure of Bagdad Expedition Against Turks Confirmed by London.
London.—The retreat of the British army in Mesopotamia was announced by the official report of the war department. The report confirms the Berlin version to the effect that the expedition sent to take Bagdad had failed. The official announcement said:
"General Townshend remained in occupation of the battlefield at Cleaphon, beating off all counter-attacks, till he had completed the removal of his wounded and of 1600 prisoners taken from the enemy; but in view of our heavy losses, and the arrival of Turkish reinforcements, he then withdrew."
"It is reported that our total casualties in the actions amounted to 4567. General Townshend remarks of the steadiness of the troops and states that the retirement was carried out in perfect order. By the latest reports General Townshend was within a few miles of Kut-el-Amara, upon which position he is retiring."

GET YOUR Butter Wrappers AT THE Herald Office

"Dough."
An exchange prints the following list of words ending in "ough" and adds the pronunciation of the more obscure words, so far as ascertainable from the dictionaries: Messrs. Gough (goff), Hough (huff) and Clough (cluff), though tough enough, thought through the day that they would visit Mr. Brough (brook), who, having a blcough (bleup) and a cough, lived in a clough (cluff or clou), with plenty of dough and a tame chough (chuff) kept near a plough in a rough trough, hung to a bough over a lough (loch). A slouch (stuf) of the bank into the slough (sloo) injured his thoroughbred's hough (lock).
No wonder the foreigner shudders at these four terrible letters!

Swift's Sarcasm.
"My brethren," said Dean Swift in a sermon, "there are three sorts of pride—of riches, of birth and of talents. I shall not now speak of the latter, none of you being liable to that abominable vice."
"There's lots of money in stocks."
"Quite right! That's where mine went."—Princeton Tiger.

Superior Telegraph Service
A few days ago Mr. John C. Kendall called our Marshfield Telegraph office and dictated a message to our operator to be sent to Mr. John D. Goss, who was in Portland. In just 11½ minutes, our Telegraph operator called Mr. Kendall and read an answer to him from Mr. Goss. The message had been sent to Portland, Mr. Goss had been located, the message delivered to him, he had written the answer, which was returned through the same successive steps. This is an example of the prompt, efficient and satisfactory telegraph service which is being rendered daily to Pacific Coast points. Standard Rates. Satisfactory Service. Call, telegraph and dictate your message or file it at any of our offices.
