The day was enjoyably spent on the beach, and lunch was spread on a section of wreckage from the Field. The party secured several souvenirs of the wrecked boat as well as a slight accentuation of color which is always bestowed on visitors when they make infrequent visits to that popular seaside resort.

Woman's Study Club

The Woman's Study Club held their annual social meeting yesterday at the home of the president, Mrs. W. J. Longston. The time, after the preliminary business meeting scheduled, was devoted to needlework and conversation. At the close of this very enjoyable afternoon an appetizing dinner was served. The two large tables as well as the living room and dining room were beautifully decorated with roses and carnations and the club colors, lavender and gold, were much in evidence. Following is a list of the members and the invited guests present: Mesdames J. W. Springer, V. R. Wilson, R. B. Rogers, H. Lorenz, H. W. Young, H. A. Young, W. L. Kistner, M. O. Hawkins, R. S. Epperson, and W. J. Longston.

Kids Against Has-Beens

At the Lyons Field next Friday afternoon a few of the old has-beens are going to give the local High School Baseball a few pointers in the art of playing baseball. This team will be made up of such players as Frank McKeena, E. A. Folsom, Fred Nosler, Nick Lorenz and Sam Tuttle.

There will be a small charge of 15 cents at the gate and the proceeds of the game will go to the benefit of the High School Athletic Assn. The object of this game is to put the baseball players in trim for the big game to be played for the benefit of the Corn Show.

We expect the whole High School to turn out but they will all root for their team and the Old Boys will be left in the cold if the old fans are not there to keep them going.

Now let us all turn out and encourage a good clean game of baseball and give our support to a cause that is of benefit to the community.

attorney. The Coquille Valley Sentinel was declared the official paper. O. C. Sanford was elected chairman of the council. The recorder's bond was given and accepted with B. H. Burros and L. H. Hazard as securities.

Distressing Occurrence

The Edson Elliott Company found itself unprepared to fulfill its engagement at the Scenic this evening and whether it will appear here again is doubtful. The Scenic was notified too late yesterday to secure a program of new pictures for this evening, so the four-reel Kalem special feature, "The Pitfall," will be repeated, with two other reels, making 6000 feet. This was determined on before the show started last evening, and the manager prepared a slide saying that The Pitfall would be repeated "by request," not considering it necessary to fill up the slide by telling at whose request it would be. This was to be run just before the end of the picture. Then the operator misunderstood his instructions and ran the slide before he started the picture the first time, which was a dead give away.

Flag Day Proclamation

Whereas, June 14, 1916, is the 139th anniversary of the adoption of the Stars and Stripes; and Whereas, Organizations of a patriotic nature in Oregon are desirous that special emphasis be placed upon this day and its meaning; and Whereas, This generation has seen no time when loyalty and patriotism are more required than now, or when the encouragement of these vital national virtues is more appropriate;

Now, therefore, I do hereby proclaim Wednesday, June 14th, as Flag Day throughout the State of Oregon, and I earnestly urge that the day be devoted to exercises indicative of and conducive to loyalty to the Flag; that in homes, schools, churches and business establishments the occasion be fittingly observed; that the Flag be displayed from public buildings, schools, homes, and places of business, and that the entire commonwealth, at this critical period of international unrest, unite in honoring the Flag of the United States of America and in pledging renewed and vigorous loyalty to it and the principles of liberty it represents.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oregon to be hereunto affixed this third day of June, 1916.

JAMES WITHYCOMBE,
Governor of Oregon.

New Superintendent Here

A. L. Martin, the newly appointed superintendent of the Coos county division of the Oregon Power Co., was in town Sunday and yesterday in consultation with Manager McKeena and getting acquainted with conditions in the Coquille Valley. It is pleasant to record that he found the people with a very friendly feeling toward the Oregon Power Co., due to the courteous and businesslike method of the local manager.

Farewell Fifield

All that remains of the steamer Fifield is a red blotch of splintered wood lying on the beach where she went ashore. It is hard to imagine the power of the waves which have splintered the boat into fine kindling wood which is scattered from the jetty clear to New Lake, 18 miles down the coast. All the small boards lying on the beach are being picked up by people for souvenirs, as are also the bolts and screws from the wreck. The machinery has all been removed. Soon there will be nothing left to remind one of the foundered ship.
