Don't run your dollar out of town; let the poor thing stay; Buy At Home. If you buy out of town, and we buy out of town, and our neighbors buy out of town, what in thunder will become of our town?

Buy at Home

The mail-order houses increase their sales each year. We cannot understand why. As a rule their goods cannot compare with those of local dealers and when a person buys at home he has a come-back if dissatisfied. The mail-order houses have a form-letter for kickers and there is mighty little satisfaction in reading a form-letter. Buy at home and be safe.—Ex.

Mighty Good Reading

Do you read the advertisements? They contain some of the best reading in all the paper. Each week the merchants of Coquille and nearby towns have stories to tell that are filled with facts that will save you money. Begin this week and read the ads. Week after week you will find just the sort of offer that you have been looking for and the benefit you will derive will add to your comfort.

The Era of Poor Dyes

Poor dyes and in some instances no dyes at all is one of the American penalties in the European War.

Science and manufacture are at work to remedy the shortage, but in the meantime it pays to use extra care in making purchases.

Shop only with reliable merchants.

If you want the names of some of these, we refer you to the advertising in the Herald.

The very fact that they are advertising is evidence that their business methods will stand the light of day—and probably that their dyes stand the wash.

Shadybrook Items

Chas Bothwell, father and son went to Gold Beach on business Friday.

Mrs. Doethrow and children and Mrs. Bowman and son were callers at the home of Mrs. W. F. Smith Friday.

Game Warden Adams passed through here Saturday on his way up river.

Mrs. O. E. Bailey and Mrs. W. F. Smith went to Gold Beach Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, daughter in law and granddaughter, of Wedderburn, were visitors in the neighborhood Thursday, the guests of Mrs. O. E. Bailey.

Chas Bothwell is doing some much needed work on the Sander creek road.

The gardens and crops in this locality are looking fine and the prospects are for a late but very good harvest.

The work of the Shadybrook Study Center is progressing nicely. A library of nearly two hundred choice books has arrived from Eugene and other places. Other supplies have also been received and a circulating library from Salem has been ordered.

Mrs. Della Nichols and daughter returned Thursday from Lane county where they have been working in the interest of the Study Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Harrington went to Gold Beach Saturday.

Dr. Robinson of Gold Beach was in the neighborhood the last of the week.

East Fork Items

Geo. Sherwood and Mrs. Sherwood of Tacoma came in over the Coos Bay road with team last week.

Scout Master Kelley and the boy scouts of Coquille are camping on the East Fork and having a good time.

The man who broke into Harley Laird's home and stole Ed Abernethy's best suit of clothes lacked horse sense, for he could have earned a suit of clothes in a shorter time than it will take him to pay the state for Ed's clothes and then not get the clothes.

The booze makers are out for a law to annul the prohibition law of the state by letting down the bars so the booze fighters may get their dope easy. The prohibitionists have called the bluff and are out to amend the law so that the state will be so thoroughly dry that the booze maker and the booze fighter will not be able to get a smell of the devil's soup. The battery is vote NO on the brewers' bill; vote YES for the prohibition bill.

Port Orford

Jeff C. French, of Port Orford, was visiting the Coos county towns last week, making arrangements for attractions for the Azate Carnival which will be held at Port Orford August 10, 11 and 12.

Mr. French says that the Port Orford people have had considerable delay about fixing the date for their carnival, as they did not wish to conflict with the railroad carnival on the Bay. They have finally set the time before that event and to suit the convenience of Governor Withycombe, who is to visit Curry county at the time indicated, going as far south as Gold Beach with the members of the Fish and Game Commission.

Gov. Withycombe and his staff and the members of the Oregon State Game and Fish Commission will be there August 10, which they have designated "Governor's Day."

Besides the attendance from Coos and Curry, they have advised that scores of auto parties are coming from outside points.

A general program covering the three days is being arranged, insuring a good time for all who come, whether to stay one day or all three. Everybody in Port Orford is aiding in it.

Bancroft Briefs

Leonard Evernden, son of E. E. Evernden, is sick with pneumonia.

D J Mitchell, formerly of Bandon, is settling on a homestead on the upper Myrtle creek.

Ad Magill, of the Eden Valley country, passed through on his way home from the lower country Thursday.

Miss Susie Evernden is helping Mrs. Culver with her household and enjoying a visit with old friends.

Bro. Rambler was in our vicinity the latter part of the week; we shall expect one of his cheerful writups soon.

Mrs. Frank Christie is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shields and other relatives before retiring to "continuous residence" on their homestead.

Arago Personals

Schroeder Bros. are putting in lots of hay this week.

Mrs. Tracy's father and mother are stopping with her this summer. Her father is employed in the brick yard.

A card received from Art Peterson says that he and Mr. Minard have just reached Uniontown, Wn. Cap. Heller is working for J. Carl during the absence of Art Peterson.

Walter Farrier and wife and Mrs. Gus Schroeder made a flying trip to Myrtle Point last evening.

Misses Ena Ellis and Lena Barkdol were visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Donaca one day this week.

Mrs. DeLong and daughter Bessie have been enjoying the use of Mr. Minard's automobile while he is absent.

Mrs. Gus Schroeder's mother and sister are visiting at this place.

Mr. Foister came over in his auto truck to get the boiler and machinery which he purchased from Cal. Ellis.

Asher Post of Riverton, was up in this part of the country looking for work. He says work is scarce down that way.

Bridge Briefs

Miss Virgie Houser is enjoying a visit with her cousins, the Warner girls, at Bancroft.

John Gordon is building a house on his little farm by the river side.

Ruby Myers walked to Myrtle Point last week and had some dental work done.

Miss Edythe Lund was called home Friday by the illness of her sister, cutting short her visit with Mrs. R. J. Montgomery.

Mrs. A. Clemans came home a few days ago, from Marshfield to spend a few weeks on her homestead. Her sons, Elbert and Orlo, were over from Powers for a day or two but have gone back to work again.

The Ford and Popp families had a picnic Thursday at Popp's place. J. A. Hara, the Rawleigh man, is making his regular visit to our community.

The Mission Circle met at the home of Mrs. A. O. Hooton Monday afternoon with good attend and

C. G. Price, of North Bend, preached on "The Christianizing of the Home" Friday night to a large and attentive audience.

Oscar Lundberg and Russell Voakam were over from Powers a few days ago.

The intermediate and junior classes of the Sunday school had a picnic at A. O. Hooton's place Monday afternoon. After an afternoon of games of various kinds, the young folks enjoyed a picnic supper part of which they themselves had cooked on a camp fire. They report a "dandy" time.

Miss Audrey Bryant spent the week end with her parents here. She is teaching at Delmar, so her visits home are short and far between.

Mrs. Lucy Culver and sons and Miss Susie Evernden went to Arago Saturday and returned Sunday.

Levi Wilson and Lyle and Bryce Nosler went to the head of Big Creek Monday on a fishing trip.

W. A. Lett and family are planning to attend church services at Broadbent next Sunday.

J. G. Houser has gone to Camas to work on the road. E E Weekly has charge of the road work there. Mobbey Welch is taking in the circus at Powers.

Pepper Just As Good

The following story is too good to keep:

Recently several Marshfield ladies treated their children to a little picnic in the woods. After lunch the little daughter of Judge and Mrs. J. S. Coke came in much excited to get some salt, that she might catch a little bird. The ladies were reading and one of them hurriedly picked up a pepper shaker and handed it to the little girl, who, to their amusement, went in quest of the bird; but the laugh was on the ladies when little Miss Virginia returned with the pepper shaker in one hand and the bird in the other and gleefully announced, "It doesn't make a bit of difference mamma, I used pepper and it did just as well as salt." But the ladies being hopeless heretics, unlearned in the science of charms and magic, think it must have been a young bird and that the pepper was shaken into its eyes.
