

THE COQUILLE HERALD

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY

Entered as second-class matter May 8, 1905, at the post office at Coquille, Oregon, under act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

P. C. LEVAR, LESSEE AND EDITOR
ROY M. AVERY, BUSINESS MANAGER

Devoted to the material and social upbuilding of the Coquille Valley particularly and of Coos County generally.

Subscription, $1.50 per year, in advance. Phone Main 381

Next Tuesday The Herald will issue a special number, containing much matter that will be of interest to the thousands of visitors who are expected to come from the outside for the Railroad Jubilee. There will be at least fourteen pages of the issue, and very probably more. Four thousand copies will be printed, and arrangements will be made to have them distributed on the trains as they come from Eugene bearing the visitors. While the Herald is probably less well equipped than the other county papers for getting out an issue of this extent, we are doing it in order that the Coquille valley may be brought to the attention of all those who attend the Coos Bay Railroad Jubilee. It is not expected that the paper will do justice to this beautiful and fertile valley and its prosperous and enterprising people, yet we will make it as creditable an issue as is possible with the resources at our command. In connection, we wish to express appreciation of the assistance given by the Coquille Commercial Club and the business men of this city. We have been especially pleased with the unsolicited endorsement and assistance coming from Bandon. That city certainly lives up to its reputation as the liveliest town in Oregon, and as soon as it was known there that The Herald contemplated the printing of a special number the Bandon Commercial Club asked for the reservation of a page. With no desire to "blow" beforehand about what we are going to do, we wish to assure our readers that the issue will be one that they will be pleased with, and one that they will do well to send to any friends elsewhere who may be interested in the Coquille valley. To those who have not been asked to take advertising space, we will say that we are too busy to cover the ground thoroughly, but we will be glad to meet their desires in that regard, if we are notified in time. Any assistance in the way of data or short articles that would be of interest to the strangers will also help us to make a creditable showing for this part of the county.

East Fork Items

The Coquille campers at the Keel club grounds are having a good time—something like a dozen or more of them.

M. J. Krantz is back from his trip north and likes the outlook in Idaho for irrigation farming.

There is talk that the people of Brewster Valley will build a creamery.

Mrs. Chas. Heller, not Mr. Heller, was with Louie to bring Mrs. Louie Heller from North Bend.

Mrs. Louie Heller was among the last patients whom Dr. Culin visited. He came out to see her Tuesday.

Dr. Culin was a man in whom people had confidence. New York has a great opportunity to expand a profitable industry and does not seem to realize it. Infantile paralysis surely must be a business maker for doctors, nurses, undertakers and gravediggers. If New York can keep infantile paralysis for home consumption, and export it beyond her boundaries in a "four per cent" solution she would thus extend the profitable employment of the doctors, the nurses, the undertakers and the gravediggers.

Funny, isn't it, why the booze-makers and booze-fighters of Oregon don't get in and make a yell against laws that quarantine people from profitable employment and expanding the industries of a state. Great is the industry of the booze maker and the booze fighter. If you don't believe it look at the county hospitals, the county jails, the insane asylums, the prisons, and the foundling homes that they have built, and their marks in the potter's field. Great is the industry of the booze maker and the booze-fighter.

The Red Cross Society and all relief associations of kindred kind were never so big and doing such great work as today; never so many nurses and doctors taking care of the wounded and sick, never before such big shipments of supplies for the hungry and destitute; never before has the divine right of man so thoroughly soaked in mankind as today, and the "divine right of kings" so thoroughly rated as a windy bladder, as it is today. Sure this is a day of big things, the biggest and the best that the world ever saw.

There is a public opinion today that dams cowardly, dastardly villainous treachery with a damnation from which there is no getting away. And yet there are people bellyaching around that the world is getting worse. Don't forget this, that the man who is yelling that the world is getting worse is living to make it worse.

Some folks like to poultice themselves with the pleasure of what they call the thought that the world is growing worse and worse, and seem to delight in the "great carnival of blood" occasioned by the Great War.

R. A. EASTON.

Resolutions

The neighbors of Myrtle Camp No. 197, W. O. W. in special session assembled offer the following resolutions of condolence to the family of Dr. Walter Culin.

Whereas, It has pleased the ruler of the universe to remove from our midst our beloved neighbor Dr. Walter Culin who was a charter member and camp physician of Myrtle Camp No. 197 W. O. W. since its organization in 1895. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That in his death this community has lost a noble and upright citizen, this Camp a competent, conservative and fearless examiner and his family a kind, devoted and loving husband and father.

That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this Camp and a copy delivered to the family.

Random Rambles

(By a Rambler.)

Last week found the Rambler in the Bear Creek-Prosper section. This is a rich agricultural section and the farmers generally are prosperous and happy.

We found Joseph Flam, mention of whom was recently made in the paper, well recovered from his recent accident and hustling about with all his old time enthusiasm and bustle.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Barger who was recently kicked by a horse and who, it was feared, was fatally injured, has also recovered.

Mrs. J. R. Cox has been quite ill and has been taking treatment in Bandon. We are glad to say she is much improved and will soon be home on the ranch at upper Bear creek.

Mr. Van Leneve has a Jersey cow that is making a splendid record. For July she made 89 pounds of butterfat according to official test. Mr. Van Leneve values her at $250 which it seems to us is conservative. She received no grain rations but made this record on silage and pasture.

With the present heavy travel on the Bandon road one is brought face to face with the necessity for better roads. The curves are dangerous and it is enough to take the breath of a veteran autoist the way some of those fellows round them. With the beginning of the work under the bonding system should come an effort to cut down grades and curves on this important highway.

The longshoremen's strike made itself felt in Bandon as it retarded work for all summer. There is much bitter feeling and many of the former longshoremen have had to seek work elsewhere to save their families from starvation.

The mills are now running full time both at Prosper and Bandon and the general feeling is that the worst is past and that this section is entering upon an era of financial development ahead of anything in the past.

A freak of nature is to be seen near Prosper at the home of the Schoonovers. They have a well some 30 feet in depth. In the driest season there is an abundance of water but when the heavy fall rains begin the well goes entirely dry.

For the coming week the Rambler will visit new territory and will have more to say of this section in the next issue.

I used to long for heaven, But what's the use, Since unto me 'tis given To dwell in Coos. Her fields are ever vernal, Her forests green and fair; The hand of the Eternal, We see it everywhere.

DON'T carry around a great amount of currency. If you do you are beset by two great evils. One is the temptation to spend readily. A man with $100 in currency in his pocket is freer to spend than the man with little currency. He is more apt to break a ten dollar bill than he is to draw a ten dollar check.

The other evil is the bait offered to thieves. A man who is known to carry a large sum of money in his possession never can tell when he will be set upon by a highwayman. The wealthiest men in the country seldom carry large amounts of cash. When you accumulate a goodly amount of currency deposit it in the bank at once.
